TDCAA & Guests

8:30 a.m. State of the State

To effectively function, prosecutors routinely rely on the efforts of myriad outside entities. Whether a nonprofit, task force, or state agency, these groups are all subject to legislative and administrative pressures. We begin the day by discussing how we currently engage with these entities in the wake of laws passed last legislative session and how that engagement may be impacted by the coming legislative session.

10:00 a.m. Break

10:30 a.m. Legislative Preview

Last legislative session, the duties of prosecutors took stage—front and center. Here, we will discuss what may be in focus for the next session. We will cover the hottest of topics including discovery, prosecutor discretion, compensation and retirement, bail reform, and organized retail theft.
