

Fundamentals of Management: Elected Edition

November 28-29, 2023

Embassy Suites, Frisco, TX

6.75 hours of MCLE & limited enrollment

A few years ago, TDCAA formed the Prosecutor Management Institute (PMI) in response to a need for quality management training built with prosecutors in mind. Our first course, Fundamentals of Management, was a huge success. To ensure that busy elected prosecutors can attend, we offered a specialized version of the course to them in 2019 in conjunction with our Elected Prosecutor Conference, and it received rave reviews!

This year, we are proud to announce our third “Elected Edition” management training open only to elected prosecutors, which will take place in Frisco. In this 1½-day course, district and county attorneys will receive a high-level, content-packed dose of professionally developed training curated specifically for them. Using state-of-the-art assessment tools and materials, attendees will:

- gain insight into their own behavioral inclinations and recognize those inclinations in others,
- develop skills designed to harness the natural talents of their team,
- examine and understand the value of employing alternative conflict-resolution styles,
- identify the core competencies necessary to effectively manage themselves, their team, and the organization, and
- learn and practice methods to effectively reinforce, correct, and improve their team’s conduct.

This course will immediately precede our Elected Prosecutor Conference and take place on November 28 and 29. Please note that registration is separate from the Elected Conference, and seating is limited and will be based on the date of registration. Enrolled attendees will receive an email with links to two online assessments shortly after the November 3 registration deadline. The assessments must be completed prior to the course, but they will not take more than a few quiet minutes. The cost of this program is $350 per attendee. Due to the course’s content density, attendees must plan to be present for the entire program.

What people are saying about Fundamentals of Management: Elected Edition

“I don’t have time for trendy, experimental, or feel-good seminars with little practical usefulness, and this is not one of those. The course immediately equipped me to recognize root causes—rather than just behavioral symptoms—of management problems I encounter, which is critical in effectively addressing them. I want to go back for a refresher!”

—C. Scott Brumley, County Attorney in Potter County

“In 2019, I attended the ‘Elected Edition’ of the Fundamentals of Management Course, and as it turns out, you can teach an old dog new tricks. I learned a lot about how I manage and what improvements I needed to make. It definitely changed how I manage conflict within the office and how I motivate the different personality types. It was well worth my time and money.”

—Julie Renken, District Attorney in Washington County

Registration for this course and hotel information is at www.tdcaa.com; the deadline to register is November 3. It requires separate registration and payment from our Elected Prosecutor Conference, which runs November 29–December 1 at the same hotel.
