

JOB LISTING

LEE COUNTY ATTORNEY'S OFFICE

POSITION – Assistant County Attorney – Felony Trial Attorney

The Lee County Attorney's office is currently accepting applications for a PART-TIME Assistant County Attorney to assist as first or second chair in the back log of pending criminal jury trials. The position is funded for at least two years with funds from the American Rescue Plan Act.

The hours are variable and would be dependent on pre-trial and trial settings. The number of felony trials per year varies and may be up to 5 felony trials per year. The position allows non-court work to be conducted remotely.

Applicants may maintain a private separate law practice not in conflict with the duties as an assistant County Attorney.

ABOUT US – Lee County is a central Texas county of approximately 17,000 residents about an hour from both Austin and College Station. The Lee County Attorney prosecutes Misdemeanor and Felony criminal cases in Lee County courts. The office has 1 full-time assistant county attorney, 1 part-time assistant county attorney handling primarily CPS and civil matters, and 3 administrative assistants.

JOB DUTIES – Perform all duties as assigned but primarily:

- All aspects of Felony Criminal Prosecutions
- The assistant may be requested to assist in misdemeanor prosecutions

BENEFITS – All benefits pursuant to the Lee County Personnel Policy guidelines. Other benefits may be offered as negotiated.

SALARY – Will largely be dependent on experience.

REQUIREMENTS – Doctor of Jurisprudence from an accredited law school, licensed by and in good standing with the State Bar of Texas.

QUALIFICATIONS – The right applicant is dependable, has common sense, with good time management and interpersonal skills. Felony first chair criminal trial prosecution experience is required. The selected candidate must be able to perform the functions of the job with sometimes limited direction from the County Attorney.

APPLICATIONS – Applicants must submit a resume and Lee County Job Application via email to Lee County Attorney Martin Placke, Attention Casandra Collins at cassandra.collins@co.lee.tx.us, by mail to 200 S. Main, Suite 305, Giddings, Texas 78942, or via fax to 979 542-1226. Applications may be downloaded from the Lee County, Texas website at www.co.lee.tx.us. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled.
