

What Every Prosecutor Should Know About Mental Illness

This free online course is now available at TDCAA.com/training/#onlinetraining

3.5 hours of MCLE

Part One of the TDCAA Mental Health Video Series is now available through TDCAA's online training platform. This 3.5-hour course is designed to provide prosecutors and other criminal justice practitioners with an understanding of how mental illness can impact a criminal case, as well as some of the essential tools available to prosecutors handling cases where a defendant's mental health is an issue. It is available free of charge.

Agenda

Mental Health 101

Dr. Maureen Burrows, Forensic Psychologist

Mental Health Legal Basics

Jeff Matovich, Assistant District Attorney, Harris County

Case Assessment and Intake of MH Cases

Lee Pierson, Assistant District Attorney, Dallas County

Connecting with Local Resources

Sarah Moore, First Assistant District Attorney, Dawson County

Registration for this course is free. Once registered at www.tdcaa.com/training/#onlinetraining, participants will receive a confirmation email.