

Alternatives to Traditional Prosecution of Mental Health Cases

This free online course is now available at TDCAA.com/training/#onlinetraining

3 hours of MCLE

Part Three of TDCAA's Mental Health Video Series is now available through TDCAA's online training platform. This 3-hour course is designed to provide prosecutors and other criminal justice professionals with relevant information related to the creation of and operation of mental health specialty dockets, mental health courts, and diversion programs for mental health cases. This course is available free of charge.

Agenda

Specialty Dockets and Courts for MH Cases

Erica Winsor, Assistant District Attorney, Dallas County

Mental Health Diversion Program Options

Audrey Garnett, Assistant Criminal District Attorney, Dallas County, & Michele Oncken, Assistant District Attorney, Harris County

Building Diversion Options with Limited Resources

Jennifer Tharp, Criminal District Attorney, Comal County

Registration for this course is free. Once registered at www.tdcaa.com/training/#onlinetraining, participants will receive a confirmation email.