Fundamentals of Management Course Information

Texas prosecutors routinely find themselves in supervisory positions without the benefit of management training or experience. In response to a growing need for quality management training built with prosecutors in mind, TDCAA offers our Prosecutor Management Institute's first module, Fundamentals of Management. This 2½-day course is designed to give prosecuting attorneys and other office staff the necessary tools to become skilled managers. Whether you are the chief of a single court or you are the jurisdiction's elected prosecutor, this course will provide what you need to either begin your managerial path or tweak those skills you already possess.

Using state-of-the-art assessment tools and materials developed by prosecutors for prosecutors, module attendees will:

- gain insight into your own behavioral inclinations and recognize those inclinations in others,
- develop skills designed to harness the natural talents of your team,
- examine and understand the value of employing alternative conflict-resolution styles,
- identify the core competencies necessary to effectively manage yourself, your team, and your organization, and
- learn and practice methods to effectively reinforce, correct, and improve your team's conduct.

Each course can accommodate 24 attendees and is designed for prosecuting attorneys and staff in supervisory roles. Normally, it is taught to all the supervisors of a single office, but for this event, individuals from any office are invited to attend the course in Austin.

Schedule: TDCAA is hosting two identical trainings, our Fundamentals of Management Course (I & II), at the same time at the same hotel, each with their own registration. Both will take place on August 12 (9:00 a.m.–6:00 p.m.), August 13 (9:00 a.m.–6:00 p.m.), and August 14 (9:00 a.m.–1:00 p.m.).

Cost: $500 per person

Meals: TDCAA will provide coffee, soft drinks, and snacks but not lunches or a reception, so those meal costs are your own.

CLE: Attendees will be awarded 10.5 hours of CLE.

Reimbursement: TDCAA will reimburse attendees $85 for up to three nights in a hotel.

Registration for these courses and other information is at tdcaa.com.

These programs are funded by a grant from the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals and by the Texas District and County Attorneys Association.
