With reports of violent crime on the rise, Texas prosecutors must arm themselves with the tools and skills necessary to resolve these tough cases. Whether it is a deeper understanding of consent issues in adult sex assault cases, an examination of domestic violence victim dynamics, or an exploration of an officer's use of force, this training will address the need. Accompanied with a focus on their duty to see justice done, TDCAA's Prosecuting Violent Crimes Conference has something for prosecutors of all experience levels.

Registration for this conference and other information is at tdcaa.com.

This program is funded by a grant from the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals and by the Texas District and County Attorneys Association.
