My name is _____. I make this declaration pursuant to Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code section 132.001. I currently serve as the foreperson of the grand jury of the 147th Judicial District Court (January 2020 extended term). I am executing this declaration as part of my duties and responsibilities. On this date, and in accordance with the virtual grand jury guidelines, I declare under penalty of perjury that the following is true and correct:

1. One or more prosecuting attorneys came before the grand jury at a scheduled time today to present their case or cases to the grand jury. After each attorney presented all of the cases that were presented today by that prosecutor, the grand jury conducted its deliberations.
2. Regarding the cases that were presented by each such attorney and subsequently either true-billed or no-billed today, I ensured, prior to beginning deliberations on those cases, that a quorum of the members of this grand jury was present and able to deliberate on each such case.
3. Regarding the cases that were presented by each such attorney and subsequently either true-billed or no-billed today, I inquired of the grand jury, prior to beginning deliberations on those cases, whether anyone had concerns with the integrity of grand jury secrecy, and I ensured that no members had any unresolved concerns regarding grand jury secrecy.
