■ TEXAS RULES OF APPELLATE PROCEDURE ■

Effective April 1, 2025

SECTION ONE: GENERAL PROVISIONS

RULE 1. SCOPE OF RULES; LOCAL RULES OF COURTS OF APPEALS

RULE 1.1. SCOPE

These rules govern procedure in appellate courts and before appellate judges and post-trial procedure in trial courts in criminal cases.

RULE 1.2. LOCAL RULES AND FORMS

(a) Promulgation. A court of appeals may promulgate rules and forms governing its practice that are not inconsistent with state or federal law or rules adopted by the Supreme Court or the Court of Criminal Appeals. To be effective, local rules and forms must be published on the Office of Court Administration's website.

(b) Party's Noncompliance. A court must not dismiss an appeal due to a party's failure to comply with a local rule or form without giving the noncomplying party notice and a reasonable opportunity to cure the noncompliance.

■ COMMENT TO 2023 CHANGE

Rule 1.2 is amended to remove the requirement that the Supreme Court of Texas and Court of Criminal Appeals approve local rules and to expressly address local forms. The amended rule provides that local rules and forms must not conflict with other laws or rules and that they are not effective unless published on the Office of Court Administration's website.

RULE 2. SUSPENSION OF RULES

On a party's motion or on its own initiative an appellate court may—to expedite a decision or for other good cause—suspend a rule's operation in a particular case and order a different procedure; but a court must not construe this rule to suspend any provision in the Code of Criminal Procedure or to alter the time for perfecting an appeal in a civil case.

RULE 3. DEFINITIONS; UNIFORM TERMINOLOGY

RULE 3.1. DEFINITIONS

(a) Appellant means a party taking an appeal to an appellate court.

(b) Appellate Court means the courts of appeals, the Court of Criminal Appeals, and the Supreme Court.

(c) Appellee means a party adverse to an appellant.

(d) Applicant means a person seeking relief by a habeas corpus in a criminal case.

(e) Petitioner means a party petitioning the Supreme Court or the Court of Criminal Appeals for review.

(f) Relator means a person seeking relief in an original proceeding in an appellate court other than by habeas corpus in a criminal case.

(g) Reporter or Court Reporter means the court reporter or court recorder.

(h) Respondent means:

(1) a party adverse to a petitioner in the Supreme Court or the Court of Criminal Appeals; or

(2) a party against whom relief is sought in an original proceeding in an appellate court.

RULE 3.2. UNIFORM TERMINOLOGY IN CRIMINAL CASES

In documents filed in criminal appeals, the parties are the State and the appellant. But if the State has appealed under Article 44.01 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the defendant is the appellee. Otherwise, papers should use real names for parties, and such labels as appellee, petitioner, respondent, and movant should be avoided unless necessary for clarity. In habeas corpus proceedings, the person for whose relief the writ is requested is the applicant; Code of Criminal Procedure article 11.13.

RULE 4. TIME AND NOTICE PROVISIONS

RULE 4.1. COMPUTING TIME

(a) In General. The day of an act, event, or default after which a designated period begins to run is not included when computing a period prescribed or allowed by these rules, by court order, or by statute. The last day of the period is included, but if that day is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the period extends to the end of the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday.

(b) Clerk's Office Closed or Inaccessible. If the act to be done is filing a document, and if the clerk's office where the document is to be filed is closed or inaccessible during regular hours on the last day for filing the document, the period for filing the document extends to the end of the next day when the clerk's office is open and accessible. The closing or inaccessibility of the clerk's office may be proved by a certificate of the clerk or counsel, by a party's affidavit, or by other satisfactory proof, and may be controverted in the same manner.

RULE 4.2. NO NOTICE OF TRIAL COURT'S JUDGMENT IN CIVIL CASE

(a) Additional Time to File Documents.

(1) In General. If a party affected by a judgment or other appealable order has not—within 20 days after the judgment or order was signed—either received the notice required by Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 306a.3 or acquired actual knowledge of the signing, then a period that, under these rules, runs from the signing will begin for that party on the earlier of the date when the party receives notice or acquires actual knowledge of the signing. But in no event may the period begin more than 90 days after the judgment or order was signed.

(2) Exception for Restricted Appeal. Subparagraph (1) does not extend the time for perfecting a restricted appeal.

(b) Procedure to Gain Additional Time. The procedure to gain additional time is governed by Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 306a.5.

(c) The Court's Order. After hearing the motion, the trial court must sign a written order that finds the date when the party or the party's attorney first either received notice or acquired actual knowledge that the judgment or order was signed.

RULE 4.3. PERIODS AFFECTED BY MODIFIED JUDGMENT IN CIVIL CASE

(a) During Plenary-Power Period. If a judgment is modified in any respect while the trial court retains plenary power, a period that, under these rules, runs from the date when the judgment is signed will run from the date when the modified judgment is signed.

(b) After Plenary Power Expires. If the trial court corrects or reforms the judgment under Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 316 after expiration of the trial court's plenary power, all periods provided in these rules that run from the date the judgment is signed run from the date the corrected judgment is signed for complaints that would not apply to the original judgment.

RULE 4.4. PERIODS AFFECTED WHEN PROCESS SERVED BY PUBLICATION

If process was served by publication and if a motion for new trial was filed under Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 329 more than 30 days after the judgment was signed, a period that, under these rules, runs from the date when the judgment is signed will be computed as if the judgment were signed on the date when the motion for new trial was filed.

RULE 4.5. NO NOTICE OF JUDGMENT OR ORDER OF APPELLATE COURT; EFFECT ON TIME TO FILE CERTAIN DOCUMENTS

(a) Additional Time to File Documents. A party may move for additional time to file a motion for rehearing or en banc reconsideration in the court of appeals, a petition for review, or a petition for discretionary review, if the party did not—until after the time expired for filing the document—either receive notice of the judgment or order from the clerk or acquire actual knowledge of the rendition of the judgment or order.

(b) Procedure to Gain Additional Time. The motion must state the earliest date when the party or the party's attorney received notice or acquired actual knowledge that the judgment or order had been rendered. The motion must be filed within 15 days of that date but in no event more than 90 days after the date of the judgment or order.

(c) Where to File.

(1) A motion for additional time to file a motion for rehearing or en banc reconsideration in the court of appeals must be filed in and ruled on by the court of appeals in which the case is pending.

(2) A motion for additional time to file a petition for review must be filed in and ruled on by the Supreme Court.

(3) A motion for additional time to file a petition for discretionary review must be filed in and ruled on by the Court of Criminal Appeals.

(d) Order of the Court. If the court finds that the motion for additional time was timely filed and the party did not—within the time for filing the motion for rehearing or en banc reconsideration, petition for review, or petition for discretionary review, as the case may be—receive the notice or have actual knowledge of the judgment or order, the court must grant the motion. The time for filing the document will begin to run on the date when the court grants the motion.

RULE 4.6. NO NOTICE OF TRIAL COURT'S APPEALABLE ORDER ON A MOTION FOR FORENSIC DNA TESTING

(a) Additional Time to File Notice of Appeal. If neither an adversely affected defendant nor the defendant's attorney received notice or acquired actual knowledge that the trial judge signed an order appealable under Code of Criminal Procedure Chapter 64 within twenty days after the signing, then the time periods under these rules that ordinarily run from the signing of an appealable order will begin to run on the earliest date when the defendant or the defendant's attorney received notice or acquired actual knowledge of the signing. But in no event shall such periods begin more than 120 days after the day the trial judge signed the appealable order.

(b) Motion to Gain Additional Time.

(1) A defendant's motion for additional time must:

(A) Be in writing and sworn;

(B) State the defendant's desire to appeal from the appealable order;

(C) State the earliest date when the defendant or the defendant's attorney received notice or acquired actual knowledge that the trial judge signed the appealable order; and

(D) Be filed within 120 days of the signing of the appealable order.

(2) To establish the application of paragraph (a) of this rule, the defendant adversely affected must prove in the trial court:

(A) The earliest date on which the defendant or the defendant's attorney received notice or acquired actual knowledge that the trial judge signed the appealable order; and

(B) That this date was more than twenty days after the signing of the appealable order.

(3) If the defendant's motion for additional time meets the requirements set out in paragraphs (b)(1) and (b)(2), the motion may serve as the defendant's notice of appeal.

(c) The Court's Order. After hearing the motion for additional time, the trial judge must sign a written order that determines the earliest date when the defendant or the defendant's attorney received notice or acquired actual knowledge that the trial judge signed the appealable order and whether this date was more than twenty days after the judge signed the appealable order.

(d) The Clerk's Duties. The trial court clerk must immediately (as they are filed or entered in the record) forward to all parties in the case copies of the defendant's motion for additional time, the trial judge's written order under subsection (c), the order the defendant seeks to appeal, any State's response, and any exhibits and related documents.

COMMENT TO 2018 CHANGE

Rule 4.6 is intended to provide redress for criminal defendants who are entitled to appeal trial court rulings made pursuant to Texas Code of Criminal Procedure Chapter 64, but receive late or no notice of the rulings. The rule allows a defendant additional time to file a notice of appeal when neither the defendant nor the defendant's attorney received notice or acquired actual knowledge of the signing of the appealable order within the first 20 days after the signing. The rule is based on the framework of Rule of Appellate Procedure 4.2 and Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 306a, but is intended to apply only in the limited context of appealable rulings on Chapter 64 motions. The term “sworn” in Rule 4.6 includes the use of an unsworn declaration made under penalty of perjury. See TEX. CIV. PRAC. & REM. CODE §132.001. If a trial judge grants a defendant’s motion for additional time filed under this rule, the court of appeals may treat the defendant’s late-filed notice of appeal as timely or treat the motion for additional time itself as a notice of appeal for the purpose of determining compliance with Rules 25.2 and 26.2.

RULE 5. FEES IN CIVIL CASES

A party who is not excused by statute or these rules from paying costs must pay—at the time an item is presented for filing—whatever fees are required by statute or Supreme Court order. The appellate court may enforce this rule by any order that is just.

RULE 6. REPRESENTATION BY COUNSEL

RULE 6.1. LEAD COUNSEL

(a) For Appellant. Unless another attorney is designated, lead counsel for an appellant is the attorney whose signature first appears on the notice of appeal.

(b) For a Party Other than Appellant. Unless another attorney is designated, lead counsel for a party other than an appellant is the attorney whose signature first appears on the first document filed in the appellate court on that party’s behalf.

(c) How to Designate. The original or a new lead counsel may be designated by filing a notice stating that attorney’s name, mailing address, telephone number, fax number, if any, email address, and State Bar of Texas identification number. If a new lead counsel is being designated, both the new attorney and either the party or the former lead counsel must sign the notice.

RULE 6.2. APPEARANCE OF OTHER ATTORNEYS

An attorney other than lead counsel may file a notice stating that the attorney represents a specified party to the proceeding and giving that attorney’s name, mailing address, telephone number, fax number, if any, email address, and State Bar of Texas identification number. The clerk will note on the docket the attorney’s appearance. When a brief or motion is filed, the clerk will note on the docket the name of each attorney, if not already noted, who appears on the document.

RULE 6.3. TO WHOM COMMUNICATIONS SENT

Any notice, copies of documents filed in an appellate court, or other communications must be sent to:

- (a) each party’s lead counsel on appeal;
- (b) a party’s lead counsel in the trial court if:
  - (1) that party was represented by counsel in the trial court;
  - (2) lead counsel on appeal has not yet been designated for that party; and
  - (3) lead counsel in the trial court has not filed a nonrepresentation notice or been allowed to withdraw;
- (c) a party if the party is not represented by counsel.

RULE 6.4. NONREPRESENTATION NOTICE

(a) In General. If, in accordance with paragraph 6.3(b), the lead counsel in the trial court is being sent notices, copies of documents, or other communications, that attorney may file a nonrepresentation notice in the appellate court. The notice must:

- (1) state that the attorney is not representing the party on appeal;

(2) state that the court and other counsel should communicate directly with the party in the future;

(3) give the party’s name and last known address and telephone number; and

(4) be signed by the party.

(b) Appointed Counsel. In a criminal case, an attorney appointed by the trial court to represent an indigent party cannot file a nonrepresentation notice.

(c) Withdrawal of Lead Counsel. If an attorney other than lead counsel will no longer represent a party, but lead counsel will continue to represent the party, the non-lead counsel should file a nonrepresentation notice. The notice should state that non-lead counsel will no longer represent the client and identify counsel who will continue to represent the party.

Amended effective Sept. 1, 2023.

RULE 6.5. WITHDRAWAL OF LEAD COUNSEL

An appellate court may, on appropriate terms and conditions, permit ~~an attorney~~ lead counsel to withdraw from representing a party in the appellate court.

(a) Contents of Motion. A motion for leave to withdraw must contain the following:

- (1) a list of current deadlines and settings in the case;
- (2) the party’s name and last known address, ~~and~~ telephone number, and email address;
- (3) a statement that a copy of the motion was delivered to the party; and
- (4) a statement that the party was notified in writing of the right to object to the motion.

(b) Delivery to Party. The motion must be delivered to the party in person or mailed—both by certified and by first-class mail—to the party at the party’s last known address.

(c) If Motion Granted. If the court grants the motion, the withdrawing ~~attorney~~ lead counsel must immediately notify the party, in writing, of any deadlines or settings that the attorney knows about at the time of withdrawal but that were not previously disclosed to the party. The withdrawing ~~attorney~~ lead counsel must file a copy of that notice with the court clerk.

(d) Exception for Substitution of Lead Counsel. If an attorney substitutes for a withdrawing ~~attorney~~ lead counsel, the motion to withdraw need not comply with (a) but must state only the substitute attorney’s name, mailing address, telephone number, email address, fax number, if any, and State Bar of Texas identification number. The withdrawing ~~attorney~~ lead counsel must comply with (b) but not (c).

Amendment to (a)(2) & (d) effective April 1, 2025. Amendments to title, first sentence, (a), (c), & (d) effective Sept. 1, 2023.

RULE 6.6. AGREEMENTS OF PARTIES OR COUNSEL

To be enforceable, an agreement of parties or their counsel concerning an appellate court proceeding must be in writing and signed by the parties or their counsel. Such an agreement is subject to any appellate court order necessary to ensure that the case is properly presented.

RULE 7. SUBSTITUTING PARTIES

RULE 7.1. PARTIES WHO ARE NOT PUBLIC OFFICERS

(a) Death of a Party.

(1) Civil Cases. If a party to a civil case dies after the trial court renders judgment but before the case has been finally disposed of on appeal, the appeal may be perfected, and the appellate court will proceed to adjudicate the appeal as if all parties were alive. The appellate court's judgment will have the same force and effect as if rendered when all parties were living. The decedent party's name may be used on all papers.

(2) Criminal Cases. If the appellant in a criminal case dies after an appeal is perfected but before the appellate court issues the mandate, the appeal will be permanently abated.

(b) Substitution for Other Reasons. If substitution of a party in the appellate court is necessary for a reason other than death, the appellate court may order substitution on any party's motion at any time.

RULE 7.2. PUBLIC OFFICERS

(a) Automatic Substitution of Officer. When a public officer is a party in an official capacity to an appeal or original proceeding, and if that person ceases to hold office before the appeal or original proceeding is finally disposed of, the public officer's successor is automatically substituted as a party if appropriate. Proceedings following substitution are to be in the name of the substituted party, but any misnomer that does not affect the substantial rights of the parties may be disregarded. Substitution may be ordered at any time, but failure to order substitution of the successor does not affect the substitution.

(b) Abatement. If the case is an original proceeding under Rule 52, the court must abate the proceeding to allow the successor to reconsider the original party's decision. In all other cases, the suit will not abate, and the successor will be bound by the appellate court's judgment or order as if the successor were the original party.

RULE 8. BANKRUPTCY IN CIVIL CASES

RULE 8.1. NOTICE OF BANKRUPTCY

Any party may file a notice that a party is in bankruptcy. The notice must contain:

- (a) the bankrupt party's name;
- (b) the court in which the bankruptcy proceeding is pending;
- (c) the bankruptcy proceeding's style and case number; and
- (d) the date when the bankruptcy petition was filed.

RULE 8.2. EFFECT OF BANKRUPTCY

A bankruptcy suspends the appeal and all periods in these rules from the date when the bankruptcy petition is filed, until the appellate court reinstates or severs the appeal in accordance with federal law. A period that began to run and had not expired at the time the proceeding was suspended begins anew when the proceeding is reinstated or severed under 8.3. A document filed by a party while the proceeding is suspended will be deemed filed on the same day, but after, the court reinstates or severs the appeal and will not be considered ineffective because it was filed while the proceeding was suspended.

RULE 8.3. MOTION TO REINSTATE OR SEVER APPEAL SUSPENDED BY BANKRUPTCY

(a) Motion to Reinstate. If a case has been suspended by a bankruptcy filing, a party may move that the appellate court reinstate the appeal if permitted by federal law or the bankruptcy court. If the bankruptcy court has lifted or terminated the stay a certified copy of the order must be attached to the motion.

(b) Motion to Sever. A party may move to sever the appeal with respect to the bankrupt party and to reinstate the appeal with respect to the other parties. The motion must show that the case is severable and must comply with applicable federal law regarding severance of a bankrupt party. The court may proceed under this paragraph on its own initiative.

RULE 9. DOCUMENTS GENERALLY

RULE 9.1. SIGNING

(a) Represented Parties. If a party is represented by counsel, a document filed on that party's behalf must be signed by at least one of the party's attorneys. For each attorney whose name appears on a document as representing that party, the document must contain that attorney's State Bar of Texas identification number, mailing address, telephone number, fax number, if any, and email address.

(b) Unrepresented Parties. A party not represented by counsel must sign any document that the party files and give the party's mailing address, telephone number, fax number, if any, and email address.

(c) Electronic Signatures. A document that is electronically served, filed, or issued by a court or clerk is considered signed if the document includes:

- (1) a "/s/" and name typed in the space where the signature would otherwise appear, unless the document is notarized or sworn; or
- (2) an electronic image or scanned image of the signature.

RULE 9.2. FILING

(a) With Whom. A document is filed in an appellate court by delivering it to:

- (1) the clerk of the court in which the document is to be filed; or
- (2) a justice or judge of that court who is willing to accept delivery. A justice or judge who accepts delivery must note on the document the date and time of delivery, which will be considered the time of filing, and must promptly send it to the clerk.

(b) Filing by Mail.

(1) Timely Filing. A document received within ten days after the filing deadline is considered timely filed if:

- (A) it was sent to the proper clerk by United States Postal Service or a commercial delivery service;
- (B) it was placed in an envelope or wrapper properly addressed and stamped; and
- (C) it was deposited in the mail or delivered to a commercial delivery service on or before the last day for filing.

(2) Proof of Mailing. Though it may consider other proof, the appellate court will accept the following as conclusive proof of the date of mailing:

- (A) a legible postmark affixed by the United States Postal Service;
  - (B) a receipt for registered or certified mail if the receipt is endorsed by the United States Postal Service;
  - (C) a certificate of mailing by the United States Postal Service; or
  - (D) a receipt endorsed by the commercial delivery service.
- (c) Electronic Filing.
- (1) Requirement. Attorneys in civil cases must electronically file documents. Attorneys in criminal cases must electronically file documents except for good cause shown in a motion filed in the appellate court. Unrepresented parties in civil and criminal cases may electronically file documents, but it is not required.
  - (2) Mechanism. Electronic filing must be done through the electronic filing manager established by the Office of Court Administration and an electronic filing service provider certified by the Office of Court Administration.
  - (3) Exceptions. Documents filed under seal, subject to a pending motion to seal, or to which access is otherwise restricted by law or court order must not be electronically filed. For good cause, an appellate court may permit a party to file other documents in paper form in a particular case.
  - (4) Timely Filing. Unless a document must be filed by a certain time of day, a document is considered timely filed if it is electronically filed at any time before midnight (in the court's time zone) on the filing deadline. An electronically filed document is deemed filed when transmitted to the filing party's electronic filing service provider, except:
    - (A) if a document is transmitted on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, it is deemed filed on the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday; and
    - (B) if a document requires a motion and an order allowing its filing, the document is deemed filed on the date the motion is granted.
  - (5) Technical Failure. If a document is untimely due to a technical failure or a system outage, the filing party may seek appropriate relief from the court.
  - (6) Confirmation of Filing. The electronic filing manager will send a filing confirmation notice to the filing party.
  - (7) Electronic Order, Notices, and Other Documents From the Court.
    - (A) In Civil Cases.
      - (i) Except as provided in (ii), the clerk must send orders, notices, and other documents to the parties electronically through ~~[an electronic filing service provider certified by the Office of Court Administration or]~~ an electronic filing system approved by the Supreme Court. A court seal may be electronic.
      - (ii) The clerk need not send orders, notices, or other documents electronically:
        - (a) when sealed or when access is otherwise restricted by law or court order; or
        - (b) when an unrepresented party has not provided an e-mail address.
    - (B) In Criminal Cases.
      - (i) The clerk may electronically send notices and other documents to the parties. A court seal may be electronic.

- (ii) Except as provided in (iii), the clerk must send orders to the parties electronically through ~~[an electronic filing service provider certified by the Office of Court Administration or]~~ an electronic filing system approved by the Supreme Court. A court seal may be electronic.
- (iii) The clerk need not send orders electronically:
  - (a) when sealed or when access is otherwise restricted by law or court order; or
  - (b) when an unrepresented party has not provided an e-mail address.

Amended effective May 28, 2024.

■ COMMENT TO 2023 CHANGE

Rule 9.2(c)(7) is amended to implement section 80.002 of the Government Code. Nothing in Rule 9.2(c)(7) prohibits the clerk from sending orders, notices, and documents to parties by additional methods other than through ~~[an electronic filing service provider certified by the Office of Court Administration or]~~ an electronic filing system approved by the Supreme Court. Indeed, the clerk is strongly encouraged to use additional methods when a party is unrepresented. If a party has not provided an e-mail address and consequently compliance with Rule 9.2(c)(7) is impossible, then the clerk should use an alternative method to send orders, notices, and documents to that party.

MAILBOX RULE

The mailbox rule applies to incarcerated pro se defendants as well as attorneys. Pleadings are deemed filed by an incarcerated pro se defendant when he delivers them to prison authorities rather than when the court clerk receives them. Campbell v. State, 320 S.W.3d 338 (Tex. Crim. App. 2010); see also Taylor v. State, 424 S.W.3d 39 (Tex. Crim. App. 2014) (mistake in timely but incorrectly sending notice of appeal to the appeals court rather than the district court clerk did not make notice of appeal untimely). The "timely mailed, timely filed" mailbox rule in TRAP 9.2(b) does not include private couriers such as FedEx. Ex parte Castillo, 369 S.W.3d 196 (Tex. Crim. App. 2012).

RULE 9.3. NUMBER OF COPIES

~~[(a) Courts of Appeals:]~~

~~[(1) Document Filed in Paper Form. If a document is not electronically filed, a party must file the original and one unbound copy of the document unless otherwise required by local rule. The unbound copy of an appendix must contain a separate page before each document and must not include tabs that extend beyond the edge of the page.]~~

~~[(2) Electronically Filed Document. Unless required by local rule, a party need not file a paper copy of an electronically filed document.]~~

~~[(b) Supreme Court and Court of Criminal Appeals:]~~

~~[(1) Document Filed in Paper Form. If a document is not electronically filed, a party must file the original and 11 copies of any document addressed to either the Supreme Court or the Court of Criminal Appeals, except that in the Supreme Court only an original and one copy must be filed of any motion, response to the motion, and reply in support of the motion, and in the Court of Criminal Appeals, only the original must be filed of a motion for extension of time or a response to the motion, or a pleading under Code of Criminal Procedure article 11.07.]~~

~~[(2) Electronically Filed Document. Paper copies of each~~

~~document that is electronically filed with the Supreme Court or the Court of Criminal Appeals must be mailed or hand-delivered to the Supreme Court or the Court of Criminal Appeals, as appropriate, within three business days after the document is electronically filed. The number of paper copies required shall be determined, respectively, by order of the Supreme Court or the Court of Criminal Appeals.]~~

(a) Document Filed in Paper Form. If a document is not electronically filed, a party must file the original and one unbound copy of the document unless otherwise required by local rule, except that, in the Court of Criminal Appeals, only the original must be filed of a motion for extension of time, a response to the motion, or a pleading under Code of Criminal Procedure article 11.07. The unbound copy of an appendix must contain a separate page before each document and must not include tabs that extend beyond the edge of the page.

(b) Electronically Filed Document. A party need not file a paper copy of an electronically filed document.

(c) Exception for Record. Only the original record need be filed in any proceeding.

RULE 9.4. FORM

Except for the record, a document filed with an appellate court, including a paper copy of an electronically filed document, must—unless the court accepts another form in the interest of justice—be in the following form:

(a) Printing. A document may be produced by standard typographic printing or by any duplicating process that produces a distinct black image. Printing must be on one side of the paper.

(b) Paper Type and Size. The paper on which a document is produced must be 8½ by 11 inches, white or nearly white, and opaque.

(c) Margins. Documents must have at least one-inch margins on both sides and at the top and bottom.

(d) Spacing. Text must be double-spaced, but footnotes, block quotations, short lists, and issues or points of error may be single-spaced.

(e) Typeface. A document produced on a computer must be printed in a conventional typeface no smaller than 14-point except for footnotes, which must be no smaller than 12-point. A typewritten document must be printed in standard 10-character-per-inch (cpi) monospaced typeface.

(f) Binding and Covering. A paper document must be bound so as to ensure that it will not lose its cover or fall apart in regular use. A paper document should be stapled once in the top left-hand corner or be bound so that it will lie flat when open. A paper petition or brief should have durable front and back covers which must not be plastic or be red, black, or dark blue.

(g) Contents of Cover. A document's front cover, if any, must contain the case style, the case number, the title of the document being filed, the name of the party filing the document, and the name, mailing address, telephone number, fax number, if any, email address, and State Bar of Texas identification number of the lead counsel for the filing party. If a party requests oral argument in the court of appeals, the request must appear on the front cover of that party's first brief.

(h) Appendix and Original Proceeding Record. A paper appendix may be bound either with the document to which it is related or separately. If separately bound, the appendix must comply with paragraph (f). A paper record in an original proceeding or a paper appendix must be tabbed and indexed. An electronically filed record in an original proceeding or an electronically filed appendix that includes more than one item must contain bookmarks to assist in locating each item.

(i) Length

(1) Contents Included and Excluded. In calculating the length of a document, every word and every part of the document, including headings, footnotes, and quotations, must be counted except the following: caption, identity of parties and counsel, statement regarding oral argument, table of contents, index of authorities, statement of the case, statement of issues presented, statement of jurisdiction, statement of procedural history, signature, proof of service, certification, certificate of compliance, and appendix.

(2) Maximum Length. The documents listed below must not exceed the following limits:

(A) A brief and response in a direct appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals in a case in which the death penalty has been assessed: 37,500 if computer-generated, and 125 pages if not.

(B) A brief and response in an appellate court (other than a brief under subparagraph (A)) and a petition and response in an original proceeding in the court of appeals: 15,000 words if computer-generated, and 50 pages if not. In a civil case in the courts of appeals, the aggregate of all briefs filed by a party must not exceed 27,000 words if computer-generated, and 90 pages if not.

(C) A reply brief in an appellate court and a reply to a response to a petition in an original proceeding in the court of appeals: 7,500 words if computer-generated, and 25 pages if not.

(D) A petition and response in an original proceeding in the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals, except for petitions and responses in an original proceeding in a case in which the death penalty has been assessed, a petition for review and response in the Supreme Court, a petition for discretionary review in the Court of Criminal Appeals, and a motion for rehearing and response in an appellate court: 4,500 words if computer-generated, and 15 pages if not.

(E) A reply to a response to a petition for review in the Supreme Court, a reply to a response to a petition in an original proceeding in the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals, except a reply to a response in an original proceeding in a case in which the death penalty has been assessed, and a reply to a petition for discretionary review in the Court of Criminal Appeals: 2,400 words if computer-generated, and 8 pages if not.

(F) A petition and response in an original proceeding in the Court of Criminal Appeals in a case in which the death penalty has been assessed: 9,000 words if computer-generated, and 30 pages if not.

(G) A reply to a response to a petition in an original proceeding in the Court of Criminal Appeals in a case in which the death penalty has been assessed: 4,800 words if computer-generated, and 16 pages if not.

(3) Certificate of Compliance. A computer-generated document that is subject to a word limit under this rule must include a certificate by counsel or an unrepresented party stating the number of words in the document. The person certifying may rely on the word count of the computer program used to prepare the document.

(4) Extensions. A court may, on motion, permit a document that exceeds the prescribed limit.

(j) Electronically Filed Documents. An electronically filed document must:

- (1) be in text-searchable portable document format (PDF);
- (2) be directly converted to PDF rather than scanned, if possible;
- (3) not be locked;
- (4) be combined with any appendix into one computer file, unless that file would exceed the size limit prescribed by the electronic filing manager; ~~and~~
- (5) in civil cases, be bookmarked to assist in locating each item; and
- (6) ~~[(5)]~~ otherwise comply with the Technology Standards set by the Judicial Committee on Information Technology and approved by the Supreme Court.

(k) Nonconforming Documents. If a document fails to conform with these rules, the court may strike the document or identify the error and permit the party to resubmit the document in a conforming format by a specified deadline.

Amended effective Dec. 1, 2024.

RULE 9.5. SERVICE

(a) Service of All Documents Required. At or before the time of a document's filing, the filing party must serve a copy on all parties to the proceeding. Service on a party represented by counsel must be made on that party's lead counsel. Except in original proceedings, a party need not serve a copy of the record.

(b) Manner of Service.

(1) Documents Filed Electronically. A document filed electronically under Rule 9.2 must be served electronically through the electronic filing manager if the email address of the party or attorney to be served is on file with the electronic filing manager. If the email address of the party or attorney to be served is not on file with the electronic filing manager, the document may be served on that party or attorney under subparagraph (2).

(2) Documents Not Filed Electronically. A document that is not filed electronically may be served in person, by mail, by commercial delivery service, by fax, or by email. Personal service includes delivery to any responsible person at the office of the lead counsel for the party served.

(c) When Complete.

- (1) Service by mail is complete on mailing.
- (2) Service by commercial delivery service is complete when the document is placed in the control of the delivery service.
- (3) Service by fax is complete on receipt.
- (4) Electronic service is complete on transmission of the document to the serving party's electronic filing service provider. The electronic filing manager will send confirmation of service to the serving party.

(d) Proof of Service. A document presented for filing must contain a proof of service in the form of either an acknowledgment of service by the person served or a certificate of service. Proof of service may appear on or be affixed to the filed document.

The clerk may permit a document to be filed without proof of service, but will require the proof to be filed promptly.

(e) Certificate Requirements. For a document filed electronically in a civil case, an automated certificate of service generated by the filing party's electronic filing service provider suffices. For a document not filed electronically in a civil case or for any document filed in a criminal case, a [A] certificate of service must be signed by the person who made the service and must state:

- (1) the date and manner of service;
- (2) the name and address of each person served; and
- (3) if the person served is a party's attorney, the name of the party represented by that attorney.

Amended effective March 1, 2024.

RULE 9.6. COMMUNICATIONS WITH THE COURT
Parties and counsel may communicate with the appellate court about a case only through the clerk.

RULE 9.7. ADOPTION BY REFERENCE

Any party may join in or adopt by reference all or any part of a brief, petition, response, motion, or other document filed in an appellate court by another party in the same case.

RULE 9.8. PROTECTION OF MINOR'S IDENTITY IN PARENTAL-RIGHTS TERMINATION CASES AND JUVENILE COURT CASES

(a) Alias Defined. For purposes of this rule, an alias means one or more of a person's initials or a fictitious name, used to refer to the person.

(b) Parental-Rights Termination Cases. In an appeal or an original proceeding in an appellate court, arising out of a case in which the termination of parental rights was at issue:

- (1) except for a docketing statement, in all papers submitted to the court, including all appendix items submitted with a brief, petition, or motion:

(A) a minor must be identified only by an alias unless the court orders otherwise;

(B) the court may order that a minor's parent or other family member be identified only by an alias if necessary to protect a minor's identity; and

(C) all documents must be redacted accordingly;

- (2) the court must, in its opinion, use an alias to refer to a minor, and if necessary to protect the minor's identity, to the minor's parent or other family member.

(c) Juvenile Court Cases. In an appeal or an original proceeding in an appellate court, arising out of a case under Title 3 of the Family Code:

- (1) except for a docketing statement, in all papers submitted to the court, including all appendix items submitted with a brief, petition, or motion:

(A) a minor must be identified only by an alias;

(B) a minor's parent or other family member must be identified only by an alias; and

(C) all documents must be redacted accordingly;

- (2) the court must, in its opinion, use an alias to refer to a minor and to the minor's parent or other family member.

(d) No Alteration of Appellate Record. Nothing in this rule permits alteration of the original appellate record except as specifically authorized by court order.

RULE 9.9. PRIVACY PROTECTION FOR DOCUMENTS FILED IN CIVIL CASES

- (a) Sensitive Data Defined. Sensitive data consists of:
- (1) a driver's license number, passport number, social security number, tax identification number or similar government-issued personal identification number;
  - (2) a bank account number, credit card number, or other financial account number; and
  - (3) a birth date, home address, and the name of any person who was a minor when the underlying suit was filed.
- (b) Filing of Documents Containing Sensitive Data Prohibited. Unless the inclusion of sensitive data is specifically required by a statute, court rule, or administrative regulation, an electronic or paper document containing sensitive data may not be filed with a court unless the sensitive data is redacted, except for the record in an appeal under Section Two.
- (c) Redaction of Sensitive Data; Retention Requirement. Sensitive data must be redacted by using the letter "X" in place of each omitted digit or character or by removing the sensitive data in a manner indicating that the data has been redacted. The filing party must retain an unredacted version of the filed document during the pendency of the appeal and any related proceedings filed within six months of the date the judgment is signed.
- (d) Notice to Clerk. If a document must contain sensitive data, the filing party must notify the clerk by:
- (1) designating the document as containing sensitive data when the document is electronically filed; or
  - (2) if the document is not electronically filed, by including, on the upper left-hand side of the first page, the phrase: "NOTICE: THIS DOCUMENT CONTAINS SENSITIVE DATA."
- (e) Restriction on Remote Access. Documents that contain unredacted sensitive data in violation of this rule must not be posted on the Internet.

RULE 9.10. PRIVACY PROTECTION FOR DOCUMENTS FILED IN CRIMINAL CASES

- (a) Sensitive Data Defined. Sensitive data consists of:
- (1) a driver's license number, passport number, social security number, tax identification number or similar government-issued personal identification number;
  - (2) bank account number, credit card number, and other financial account number;
  - (3) a birth date, a home address, and the name of any person who was a minor at the time the offense was committed.
- (b) Redacted Filings. Unless a court orders otherwise, an electronic or paper filing with the court, including the contents of any appendices, must not contain sensitive data.
- (c) Exemptions from the Redaction Requirement. The redaction requirement does not apply to the following:
- (1) A court filing that is related to a criminal matter or investigation and that is prepared before the filing of a criminal charge or is not filed as part of any docketed criminal case;
  - (2) An arrest or search warrant;
  - (3) A charging document and an affidavit filed in support of any charging document;
  - (4) A defendant's date of birth;
  - (5) A defendant's address; and
  - (6) Any government issued number intended to identify the defendant associated with a criminal filing, except for the

- defendant's social security number or driver's license number.
- (d) Redaction procedures. Sensitive data must be redacted by using the letter "X" in place of each omitted digit or character or by removing the sensitive data in a manner indicating that the data has been redacted. The filer must retain an unredacted version of the filed document during the pendency of the appeal and any related proceedings filed within three years of the date the judgment is signed. If a district court clerk or appellate court clerk discovers unredacted sensitive data in the record, the clerk shall notify the parties and seek a ruling from the court.
- (e) Certification. The filing of a document constitutes a certification by the filer that the document complies with paragraphs (a) and (b) of this rule.
- (f) Reference List. If a filer believes any information described in paragraph (a) of this rule is essential to a document or that the document would be confusing without the information, the filer may submit the information to the court in a reference list that is in paper form and under seal. The reference list must specify an appropriate identifier that corresponds uniquely to each item listed. Any reference in the document to a listed identifier will be construed to refer to the corresponding item of information. If the filer provides a reference list pursuant to this rule, the front page of the document containing the redacted information must indicate that the reference list has been, or will be, provided. On its own initiative, the court may order a sealed reference list in any case.
- (g) Sealed materials. Materials that are required by statute to be sealed, redacted, or kept confidential, such as the items set out in Articles 35.29 (Personal Information About Jurors), 38.45 (Evidence Depicting or Describing Abuse of or Sexual Conduct by Child or Minor), and 42.12, §9(j), must be treated in accordance with the pertinent statutes and shall not be publicly available on the internet. A court may also order that a document be filed under seal in paper form or electronic form, without redaction. The court may later unseal the document or order the filer to provide a redacted version of the document for the public record. If a court orders material sealed, whether it be sensitive data or other materials, the court's sealing order must be affixed to the outside of the sealed container if the sealed material is filed in paper form, or be the first document that appears if filed in electronic form. Sealed portions of the clerk's and reporter's records should be clearly marked and separated from unsealed portions and tendered as separate records, whether in paper form or electronic form. Sealed material shall not be available either on the internet or in other form without court order.
- (h) Waiver of Protection of Identifiers. A person waives the protection of this rule as to a person's own information by filing it without redaction and not under seal.

RULE 10. MOTIONS IN THE APPELLATE COURTS

RULE 10.1. CONTENTS OF MOTIONS; RESPONSE

- (a) Motion. Unless these rules prescribe another form, a party must apply by motion for an order or other relief. The motion must:
- (1) contain or be accompanied by any matter specifically required by a rule governing such a motion;
  - (2) state with particularity the grounds on which it is based;
  - (3) set forth the order or relief sought;

- (4) be served and filed with any brief, affidavit, or other paper filed in support of the motion; and
- (5) in civil cases, except for motions for rehearing and en banc reconsideration, contain or be accompanied by a certificate stating that the filing party conferred, or made a reasonable attempt to confer, with all other parties about the merits of the motion and whether those parties oppose the motion.

(b) Response. A party may file a response to a motion at any time before the court rules on the motion or by any deadline set by the court. The court may determine a motion before a response is filed.

RULE 10.2. EVIDENCE ON MOTIONS

A motion need not be verified unless it depends on the following types of facts, in which case the motion must be supported by affidavit or other satisfactory evidence. The types of facts requiring proof are those that are:

- (a) not in the record;
- (b) not within the court's knowledge in its official capacity; and
- (c) not within the personal knowledge of the attorney signing the motion.

RULE 10.3. DETERMINING MOTIONS

(a) Time for Determination. A court should not hear or determine a motion until 10 days after the motion was filed, unless:

- (1) the motion is to extend time to file a brief, a petition for review, or a petition for discretionary review;
- (2) the motion states that the parties have conferred and that no party opposes the motion; or
- (3) the motion is an emergency.

(b) Reconsideration. If a motion is determined prematurely, any party adversely affected may request the court to reconsider its order.

RULE 10.4. POWER OF PANEL OR SINGLE

JUSTICE OR JUDGE TO ENTERTAIN MOTIONS

(a) Single Justice. In addition to the authority expressly conferred by these rules or by law, a single justice or judge of an appellate court may grant or deny a request for relief that these rules allow to be sought by motion. But in a civil case, a single justice should not do the following:

- (1) act on a petition for an extraordinary writ; or
- (2) dismiss or otherwise determine an appeal or a motion for rehearing or en banc reconsideration.

(b) Panel. An appellate court may provide, by order or rule, that a panel or the full court must act on any motion or class of motions.

RULE 10.5. PARTICULAR MOTIONS

(a) Motions Relating to Informalities in the Record. A motion relating to informalities in the manner of bringing a case into court must be filed within 30 days after the record is filed in the court of appeals. The objection, if waivable, will otherwise be deemed waived.

(b) Motions to Extend Time.

(1) Contents of Motion in General. All motions to extend time, except a motion to extend time for filing a notice of appeal, must state:

- (A) the deadline for filing the item in question;
- (B) the length of the extension sought;
- (C) the facts relied on to reasonably explain the need for an extension; and

(D) the number of previous extensions granted regarding the item in question.

(2) Contents of Motion to Extend Time to File Notice of Appeal.

A motion to extend the time for filing a notice of appeal must:

- (A) comply with (1)(A) and (C);
- (B) identify the trial court;
- (C) state the date of the trial court's judgment or appealable order; and
- (D) state the case number and style of the case in the trial court.

(3) Contents of Motion to Extend Time to File Petition for Review or Petition for Discretionary Review. A motion to extend time to file a petition for review or petition for discretionary review must also specify:

- (A) the court of appeals;
- (B) the date of the court of appeals' judgment;
- (C) the case number and style of the case in the court of appeals; and
- (D) the date every motion for rehearing or en banc reconsideration was filed, and either the date and nature of the court of appeals' ruling on the motion, or that it remains pending.

(c) Motions to Postpone Argument. Unless all parties agree, or unless sufficient cause is apparent to the court, a motion to postpone argument of a case must be supported by sufficient cause.

RULE 11. AMICUS CURIAE BRIEFS

An appellate clerk may receive, but not file, an amicus curiae brief. But the court for good cause may refuse to consider the brief and order that it be returned. An amicus curiae brief must:

- (a) comply with the briefing rules for parties;
- (b) identify the person or entity on whose behalf the brief is tendered;
- (c) disclose the source of any fee paid or to be paid for preparing the brief; and
- (d) certify that copies have been served on all parties.

RULE 12. DUTIES OF APPELLATE CLERK

RULE 12.1. DOCKETING THE CASE

On receiving a copy of the notice of appeal, the petition for review, the petition for discretionary review, the petition in an original proceeding, or a certified question, the appellate clerk must:

- (a) endorse on the document the date of receipt;
- (b) collect any filing fee;
- (c) docket the case;
- (d) notify all parties of the receipt of the document; and
- (e) if the document filed is a petition for review filed in the Supreme Court, notify the court of appeals' clerk of the filing of the petition.

RULE 12.2. DOCKET NUMBERS

The clerk must put the case's docket number on each item received in connection with the case and must put the docket number on the envelope in which the record is stored.

(a) Numbering System. Each case filed in a court of appeals must be assigned a docket number consisting of the following four parts, separated by hyphens:

- (1) the number of the court of appeals district;
- (2) the last two digits of the year in which the case is filed;
- (3) the number assigned to the case; and

- (4) the designation “CV” for a civil case or “CR” for a criminal case.
- (b) Numbering Order. Each case must be docketed in the order of its filing.
- (c) Multiple Notices of Appeal. All notices of appeal filed in the same case must be given the same docket number.
- (d) Appeals not yet Filed. A motion relating to an appeal that has been perfected but not yet filed must be docketed and assigned a docket number that will also be assigned to the appeal when it is filed.

RULE 12.3. CUSTODY OF PAPERS

The clerk must safeguard the record and every other item filed in a case. If the record or any part of it or any other item is missing, the court will make an order for the replacement of the record or item that is just under the circumstances.

RULE 12.4. WITHDRAWING PAPERS

The clerk may permit the record or other filed item to be taken from the clerk’s office at any time, on the following conditions:

- (a) the clerk must have a receipt for the record or item;
- (b) the clerk should make reasonable conditions to ensure that the withdrawn record or item is preserved and returned;
- (c) the clerk may demand the return of the record or item at any time;
- (d) after the case is submitted to the court and before the court’s decision, the record cannot be withdrawn;
- (e) after the court’s decision, the losing party must be given priority in withdrawing the record;
- (f) the clerk may not allow original documents filed under Rule 34.5(f) or original exhibits filed under Rule 34.6(g) to be taken from the clerk’s office;
- (g) if the court allows an original document or exhibit to be taken by a party and it is not returned, the court may accept the opposing party’s statement concerning the document’s or exhibit’s nature and contents;
- (h) withdrawn material must not be removed from the court’s jurisdiction; and
- (i) the court may, on the motion of any party or its own initiative, modify any of these conditions.

RULE 12.5. CLERK’S DUTY TO ACCOUNT

The clerk of an appellate court who receives money due another court must promptly pay the money to the court to whom it is due. This rule is enforceable by the Supreme Court.

RULE 12.6. NOTICES OF COURT’S JUDGMENTS AND ORDERS

In any proceeding, the clerk of an appellate court must promptly send a notice of any judgment, mandate, or other court order to all parties to the proceeding.

RULE 13. COURT REPORTERS AND COURT RECORDERS

RULE 13.1. DUTIES OF COURT REPORTERS AND RECORDERS

The official court reporter or court recorder must:

- (a) unless excused by agreement of the parties, attend court sessions and make a full record of the proceedings;
- (b) take all exhibits offered in evidence during a proceeding and ensure that they are marked;

- (c) file all exhibits with the trial court clerk after a proceeding ends;
- (d) perform the duties prescribed by Rules 34.6 and 35; and
- (e) perform other acts relating to the reporter’s or recorder’s official duties, as the trial court directs.

RULE 13.2. ADDITIONAL DUTIES OF COURT RECORDER

The official court recorder must also:

- (a) ensure that the recording system functions properly throughout the proceeding and that a complete, clear, and transcribable recording is made;
- (b) make a detailed, legible log of all proceedings being recorded, showing:
  - (1) the number and style of the case before the court;
  - (2) the name of each person speaking;
  - (3) the event being recorded such as the voir dire, the opening statement, direct and cross-examinations, and bench conferences;
  - (4) each exhibit offered, admitted, or excluded;
  - (5) the time of day of each event; and
  - (6) the index number on the recording device showing where each event is recorded;
- (c) after a proceeding ends, file with the clerk the original log;
- (d) have the original recording stored to ensure that it is preserved and is accessible; and
- (e) ensure that no one gains access to the original recording without the court’s written order.

RULE 13.3. PRIORITIES OF REPORTERS

The trial court must help ensure that the court reporter’s work is timely accomplished by setting work priorities. The reporter’s duties relating to proceedings before the court take preference over other work.

RULE 13.4. REPORT OF REPORTERS

To aid the trial court in setting priorities under 13.3, each court reporter must give the trial court a monthly written report showing the amount and nature of the business pending in the reporter’s office. A copy of this report must be filed with the appellate clerk of each district in which the court sits.

RULE 13.5. APPOINTING DEPUTY REPORTER

When the official court reporter is unable to perform the duties in 13.1 or 13.2 because of illness, press of official work, or unavoidable absence or disability, the trial court may designate a deputy reporter. If the court appoints a deputy reporter, that person must file with the trial court clerk a document stating:

- (a) the date the deputy worked;
- (b) the court in which the deputy worked;
- (c) the number and style of the case on which the deputy worked; and
- (d) the deputy’s name, mailing address, telephone number, fax number, if any, email address, and Certified Shorthand Reporter number.

RULE 13.6. FILING OF NOTES IN A CRIMINAL CASE

When a defendant is convicted and sentenced, or is granted deferred adjudication for a felony other than a state jail felony, and does not appeal, the court reporter must—within 20 days after the time to perfect the appeal has expired—file the untranscribed notes or the original recording of the proceeding with the trial court clerk. The trial court clerk need not retain the notes beyond 15 years of their filing date.

RULE 14. RECORDING AND BROADCASTING COURT PROCEEDINGS

RULE 14.1. RECORDING AND BROADCASTING PERMITTED

An appellate court may permit courtroom proceedings to be broadcast, televised, recorded, or photographed in accordance with this rule.

RULE 14.2. PROCEDURE

- (a) Request to Cover Court Proceeding.
- (1) A person wishing to broadcast, televise, record, or photograph a court proceeding must file with the court clerk a request to cover the proceeding. The request must state:
    - (A) the case style and number;
    - (B) the date and time when the proceeding is to begin;
    - (C) the name of the requesting person or organization;
    - (D) the type of coverage requested (for example, televising or photographing); and
    - (E) the type and extent of equipment to be used.
  - (2) A request to cover argument of a case must be filed no later than five days before the date the case is set for argument and must be served on all parties to the case. A request to cover any other proceeding must be filed no later than two days before the date when the proceeding is to begin.
- (b) Response. Any party may file a response to the request. If the request is to cover argument, the response must be filed no later than two days before the date set for argument. If a party objects to coverage of the argument, the response should state the injury that will allegedly result from coverage.
- (c) Court May Shorten Time. The court may, in the interest of justice, shorten the time for filing a document under this rule if no party or interested person would be unduly prejudiced.
- (d) Decision of Court. In deciding whether to allow coverage, the court may consider information known ex parte to the court. The court may allow, deny, limit, or terminate coverage for any reason the court considers necessary or appropriate, such as protecting the parties' rights or the dignity of the court and ensuring the orderly conduct of the proceedings.

RULE 14.3. EQUIPMENT AND PERSONNEL

The court may, among other things:

- (a) require that a person seeking to cover a proceeding demonstrate or display the equipment that will be used;
- (b) prohibit equipment that produces distracting sound or light;
- (c) prohibit signal lights or devices showing when equipment is operating, or require their concealment;
- (d) prohibit moving lights, flash attachments, or sudden lighting changes;
- (e) require the use of the courtroom's existing video, audio, and lighting systems, if any;
- (f) specify the placement of personnel and equipment;
- (g) determine the number of cameras to be allowed in the courtroom; and
- (h) require pooling of equipment if more than one person wishes to cover a proceeding.

RULE 14.4. ENFORCEMENT

The court may sanction a violation of this rule by measures that include barring a person or organization from access to future coverage of proceedings in that court for a defined period.

RULE 15. ISSUANCE OF WRIT OR PROCESS BY APPELLATE COURT

RULE 15.1. IN GENERAL

- (a) Signature under Seal. A writ or process issuing from an appellate court must bear the court's seal and be signed by the clerk.
- (b) To Whom Directed; by Whom Served. Unless a rule or statute provides otherwise, the writ or process must be directed to the person or court to be served. The writ or process may be served by the sheriff, constable, or other peace officer whose jurisdiction includes the county in which the person or court to be served may be found.
- (c) Return; Lack of Execution; Simultaneous Writs. The writ or process must be returned to the issuing court according to the writ's direction. If the writ or process is not executed, the clerk may issue another writ or process if requested by the party who requested the former writ or process. At a party's request, the clerk may issue two or more writs simultaneously.

RULE 15.2. APPEARANCE WITHOUT SERVICE; ACTUAL KNOWLEDGE

A party who appears in person or by attorney in an appellate court proceeding—or who has actual knowledge of the court's opinion, judgment, or order related to a writ or process—is bound by the opinion, judgment, or order to the same extent as if personally served under 15.1.

RULE 16. DISQUALIFICATION OR RECUSAL OF APPELLATE JUDGES

RULE 16.1. GROUNDS FOR DISQUALIFICATION

The grounds for disqualification of an appellate court justice or judge are determined by the Constitution and laws of Texas.

RULE 16.2. GROUNDS FOR RECUSAL

The grounds for recusal of an appellate court justice or judge are the same as those provided in the Rules of Civil Procedure. In addition, a justice or judge must recuse in a proceeding if it presents a material issue which the justice or judge participated in deciding while serving on another court in which the proceeding was pending.

RULE 16.3. PROCEDURE FOR RECUSAL

- (a) Motion. A party may file a motion to recuse a justice or judge before whom the case is pending. The motion must be filed promptly after the party has reason to believe that the justice or judge should not participate in deciding the case.
- (b) Decision. Before any further proceeding in the case, the challenged justice or judge must either remove himself or herself from all participation in the case or certify the matter to the entire court, which will decide the motion by a majority of the remaining judges sitting en banc. The challenged justice or judge must not sit with the remainder of the court to consider the motion as to him or her.
- (c) Appeal. An order of recusal is not reviewable, but the denial of a recusal motion is reviewable.

RULE 17. COURT OF APPEALS UNABLE TO TAKE IMMEDIATE ACTION

RULE 17.1. INABILITY TO ACT

A court of appeals is unable to take immediate action if it cannot—within the time when action must be taken—assemble a panel because members of the court are ill, absent, or unavailable. A justice who is disqualified or recused is unavailable. A court of appeals' inability to act immediately may be established by certificate of the clerk, a member of the court, or a party's counsel, or by affidavit of a party.

RULE 17.2. NEAREST AVAILABLE COURT OF APPEALS

If a court of appeals is unable to take immediate action, the nearest court of appeals that is able to take immediate action may do so with the same effect as the other court. The nearest court of appeals is the one whose courthouse is nearest—measured by a straight line—the courthouse of the trial court.

RULE 17.3. FURTHER PROCEEDINGS

After acting or refusing to act, the nearest court of appeals must promptly send a copy of its order, and the original or a copy of any document presented to it, to the other court, which will conduct any further proceedings in the matter.

RULE 18. MANDATE

RULE 18.1. ISSUANCE

The clerk of the appellate court that rendered the judgment must issue a mandate in accordance with the judgment and send it to the clerk of the court to which it is directed and to all parties to the proceeding when one of the following periods expires:

(a) In the Court of Appeals.

(1) Ten days after the time has expired for filing a motion to extend time to file a petition for review or a petition for discretionary review if:

(A) no timely petition for review or petition for discretionary review has been filed;

(B) no timely filed motion to extend time to file a petition for review or petition for discretionary review is pending; and

(C) in a criminal case, the Court of Criminal Appeals has not granted review on its own initiative.

(2) Ten days after the time has expired for filing a motion to extend time to file a motion for rehearing of a denial, refusal, or dismissal of a petition for review, or a refusal or dismissal of a petition for discretionary review, if no timely filed motion for rehearing or motion to extend time is pending.

(b) In the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals. Ten days after the time has expired for filing a motion to extend time to file a motion for rehearing if no timely filed motion for rehearing or motion to extend time is pending.

(c) Agreement to issue. The mandate may be issued earlier if the parties so agree, or for good cause on the motion of a party.

RULE 18.2. STAY OF MANDATE

A party may move to stay issuance of the mandate pending the United States Supreme Court's disposition of a petition for writ of certiorari. The motion must state the grounds for the petition and the circumstances requiring the stay. The appellate court authorized to issue the mandate may grant a stay if it finds that the grounds are substantial and that the petitioner or others would incur serious hardship from the mandate's issuance if the United States Supreme Court were later to reverse the judgment. In a criminal case, the stay will last for no more than 90 days, to permit the timely filing of a petition for writ of certiorari. After that period and others mentioned in this rule expire, the mandate will issue.

RULE 18.3. TRIAL COURT CASE NUMBER

The mandate must state the trial court case number.

RULE 18.4. FILING OF MANDATE

The clerk receiving the mandate will file it with the case's other papers and note it on the docket.

RULE 18.5. COSTS

The mandate will be issued without waiting for costs to be paid. If the Supreme Court declines to grant review, Supreme Court costs must be included in the court of appeals' mandate.

RULE 18.6. MANDATE IN ACCELERATED APPEALS

The appellate court's judgment on an appeal from an interlocutory order takes effect when the mandate is issued. The court may issue the mandate with its judgment or delay the mandate until the appeal is finally disposed of. If the mandate is issued, any further proceeding in the trial court must conform to the mandate.

RULE 18.7. RECALL OF MANDATE

If an appellate court vacates or modifies its judgment or order after issuing its mandate, the appellate clerk must promptly notify the clerk of the court to which the mandate was directed and all parties. The mandate will have no effect and a new mandate may be issued.

RULE 19. PLENARY POWER OF THE COURTS OF APPEALS AND EXPIRATION OF TERM

RULE 19.1. PLENARY POWER OF COURTS OF APPEALS

A court of appeals' plenary power over its judgment expires:

(a) 60 days after judgment if no timely filed motion for rehearing or en banc reconsideration, or timely filed motion to extend time to file such a motion, is then pending; or

(b) 30 days after the court overrules all timely filed motions for rehearing or en banc reconsideration, and all timely filed motions to extend time to file such a motion.

COMMENT TO 2008 CHANGE

Subdivision 19.1 is changed, consistent with other changes in the rules, to specifically address a motion for en banc reconsideration and treat it as having the effect of a motion for rehearing.

RULE 19.2. PLENARY POWER CONTINUES AFTER PETITION FILED

In a civil case, the court of appeals retains plenary power to vacate or modify its judgment during the periods prescribed in 19.1 even if a party has filed a petition for review in the Supreme Court.

RULE 19.3. PROCEEDINGS AFTER PLENARY POWER EXPIRES

After its plenary power expires, the court cannot vacate or modify its judgment. But the court may:

- (a) correct a clerical error in its judgment or opinion;
- (b) issue and recall its mandate as these rules provide;
- (c) enforce or suspend enforcement of its judgment as these rules or applicable law provide;
- (d) order or modify the amount and type of security required to suspend a judgment, and decide the sufficiency of the sureties, under Rule 24; and
- (e) order its opinion published in accordance with Rule 47.

RULE 19.4. EXPIRATION OF TERM

The expiration of the appellate court's term does not affect the court's plenary power or its jurisdiction over a case that is pending when the court's term expires.

RULE 20. WHEN PARTY IS INDIGENT

RULE 20.1. CIVIL CASES

(a) Costs Defined. In this rule, "costs" mean filing fees charged by the appellate court. Fees charged for preparation of the appellate record are governed by Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 145.

(b) When a Statement Was Filed in the Trial Court.

(1) General Rule; Status in Trial Court Carries Forward. A party who filed a Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs in the trial court is not required to pay costs in the appellate court unless the trial court overruled the party's claim of indigence in an order that complies with Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 145. A party is not required to pay costs in the appellate court if the trial court ordered the party to pay partial costs or to pay costs in installments.

(2) Establishing the Right to Proceed Under the General Rule. To establish the right to proceed without payment of costs under (1), a party must communicate to the appellate court clerk in writing that the party is presumed indigent under this rule. In an appeal under Section Two of these rules, the applicability of the presumption should be stated in the notice of appeal and in the docketing statement.

(3) Exception; Material Change in Circumstances. An appellate court may permit a party who is not entitled to proceed under (1) to proceed without payment of costs if the party establishes that the party's financial circumstances have materially changed since the date of the trial court's order under Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 145.

(A) Requirements. The party must file a motion in the appellate court alleging that the party's financial circumstances have materially changed since the date of the trial court's order and a current Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs that complies with Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 145. The Statement that was filed in the trial court does not meet the requirements of this rule.

(B) Action by Appellate Court. The appellate court may decide the motion based on the record or refer the motion to the trial court with instructions to hear evidence and issue findings of fact. If a motion is referred to the trial court, the appellate court must review the trial court's findings and the record of the hearing before ruling on the motion.

(c) When No Statement Was Filed in the Trial Court. An appellate court may permit a party who did not file a Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs in the trial court to proceed without payment of costs. The court may require the party to file a Statement in the appellate court. If the court denies the party's request to proceed without payment of costs, it must do so in a written order.

RULE 20.2. CRIMINAL CASES

Within the time for perfecting the appeal, an appellant who is unable to pay for the appellate record may, by motion and affidavit, ask the trial court to have the appellate record furnished without charge. If after hearing the motion the court finds that the appellant cannot pay or give security for the appellate record, the court must order the reporter to transcribe the proceedings. When the court certifies that the appellate record has been furnished to the appellant, the reporter must be paid from the general funds of the county in which the offense was committed, in the amount set by the trial court.

INDIGENT DEFENDANTS

Indigency determinations for purposes of a free record for appeal require a two-step process. First, the defendant must make a prima facie showing of indigency. See Whitehead v. State, 130 S.W.3d 866, 874 (Tex. Crim. App. 2004). Once the defendant meets the initial burden, the State must show that the defendant is not, in fact, indigent. McFatrige v. State, 309 S.W.3d 1 (Tex. Crim. App. 2010). See also Civil Practice & Remedies Code §13.003.

SECTION TWO: APPEALS FROM TRIAL COURT JUDGMENTS AND ORDERS

RULE 21. NEW TRIALS IN CRIMINAL CASES

RULE 21.1. DEFINITIONS

(a) New Trial means the rehearing of a criminal action after the trial court has, on the defendant's motion, set aside a finding or verdict of guilt.

(b) New Trial on Punishment means a new hearing of the punishment stage of a criminal action after the trial court has, on the defendant's motion, set aside an assessment of punishment without setting aside a finding or verdict of guilt.

RULE 21.2. WHEN MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL REQUIRED

A motion for new trial is a prerequisite to presenting a point of error on appeal only when necessary to adduce facts not in the record.

RULE 21.3. GROUNDS

The defendant must be granted a new trial, or a new trial on punishment, for any of the following reasons:

- (a) except in a misdemeanor case in which the maximum possible punishment is a fine, when the defendant has been unlawfully tried in absentia or has been denied counsel;
- (b) when the court has misdirected the jury about the law or has committed some other material error likely to injure the defendant's rights;
- (c) when the verdict has been decided by lot or in any manner

- other than a fair expression of the jurors' opinion;
- (d) when a juror has been bribed to convict or has been guilty of any other corrupt conduct;
- (e) when a material defense witness has been kept from court by force, threats, or fraud, or when evidence tending to establish the defendant's innocence has been intentionally destroyed or withheld, thus preventing its production at trial;
- (f) when, after retiring to deliberate, the jury has received other evidence; when a juror has talked with anyone about the case; or when a juror became so intoxicated that his or her vote was probably influenced as a result;
- (g) when the jury has engaged in such misconduct that the defendant did not receive a fair and impartial trial; or
- (h) when the verdict is contrary to the law and the evidence.

GROUNDING FOR NEW TRIAL

The mandatory grounds for new trial found in T.R.App.P. 21.3 are not an exhaustive list. State v. Evans, 843 S.W.2d 576 (Tex. Crim. App. 1992). The trial court also has the discretion to grant a new trial in the interest of justice, but only if the defendant has articulated a legal reason for granting the motion. State v. Herndon, 215 S.W.3d 901 (Tex. Crim. App. 2007); State v. Thomas, 428 S.W.3d 99 (Tex. Crim. App. 2014) (new trial in the interest of justice not allowed on a claim that defense counsel failed to call an exculpatory witness who was known to him and available at trial); State v. Arizmendi, 519 S.W.3d 143 (Tex. Crim. App. 2017) (a ruling and testimony from co-defendant's suppression hearing not "new evidence"). Some other examples of grounds for new trial include:

1. Juror intentionally withheld or misrepresented material information in the voir dire process. Von January v. State, 576 S.W.2d 43 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978); Salazar v. State, 562 S.W.2d 480 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978).
2. Batson error. State v. Dixon, 893 S.W.2d 286 (Tex. App. — Texarkana 1995, no pet.).
3. Involuntary plea based on promises of the prosecutor. State v. Hartman, 810 S.W.2d 22 (Tex. App. — Beaumont 1991, no pet.).
4. Jury argument commenting on the defendant's failure to testify. State v. Howard, 838 S.W.2d 926 (Tex. App. — Austin 1992, no pet.).
5. Ineffective assistance of counsel. Reyes v. State, 849 S.W.2d 812 (Tex. Crim. App. 1993).

JURY MISCONDUCT

Jury misconduct is governed by Rule 21.3 and T.R.Evid. 606(b). Rule 606(b) substantially restricts the defendant's ability to inquire into jury deliberations. Rule 21.3 sets out three grounds for jury misconduct that can potentially get a defendant a new trial: (1) deciding a verdict unfairly; (2) receiving other evidence, unauthorized conversations, or being intoxicated while deliberating; or (3) depriving the defendant of a fair and impartial trial. See White v. State, 225 S.W.3d 571 (Tex. Crim. App. 2007) (presence of two disqualified jurors in deliberations is not an outside influence). In general, a juror can testify after trial only: (1) about whether an outside influence was brought to bear upon a juror, or (2) to rebut a claim that the juror was not qualified. T.R.Evid. 606(b), effectively overruling Buentello v. State, 826 S.W.2d 610 (Tex. Crim. App. 1992); see also Hines v. State, 3 S.W.3d 618 (Tex. App. — Texarkana 1999, pet. ref'd). However, the U.S. Supreme Court has ruled that the 6th Amendment requires that if a juror makes a clear statement during deliberations that he relied on racial bias to convict a defendant, the no-impeachment-of-jury-verdict rule (in Texas, Rule 606(b)) must yield to permit the trial court to consider evidence of the juror's statement. Rodriguez v. Colorado, 137 S.Ct. 855 (2017).

OUTSIDE INFLUENCE

An "outside influence" under Rule 606(b) is "something originating from a source outside of the jury room and other than from the jurors themselves." McQuarrie v. State, 380 S.W.3d 145, 154 (Tex. Crim. App. 2012). [Note that Rule 21.3(f) uses the term "other evidence."] External events or information, unrelated to the trial, that cause jurors to feel personal pressure to hasten deliberations are not outside influences. Colyer v. State, 428 S.W.3d 117, 125 (Tex. Crim. App. 2014) ("Personal pressures—such as a fear or inclement weather or concerns about a child's illness—are not 'outside influences'"). Typical situations that would be considered an "outside influence" under Federal Rule 606(b) are threats, bribes, communications with court personnel, and assaults on a jury member, but not coercion by a fellow juror or discussing a juror's own personal knowledge. Colyer, 428 S.W.3d at 125. The sound of a siren heard outside is not "other evidence" under Rule 21.3, nor was it detrimental to the defendant in his evading arrest case. Najar v. State, 618 S.W.3d 366 (Tex. Crim. App. 2021) (State may argue for the first time on appeal that the trial court rejected a juror affidavit because it did not believe the affidavit or because it was improper under T.R.Evid. 606).

Not every statement made by a juror based upon his personal experience will be considered an improper outside influence. Lucero v. State, 246 S.W.3d 86 (Tex. Crim. App. 2008) (reading from the Bible during punishment phase deliberations did not affect verdict); Saenz v. State, 976 S.W.2d 314 (Tex. App. — Corpus Christi 1998, no pet.).

RULE 21.4. TIME TO FILE AND AMEND MOTION

- (a) To File. The defendant may file a motion for new trial before, but no later than 30 days after, the date when the trial court imposes or suspends sentence in open court.
- (b) To Amend. Within 30 days after the date when the trial court imposes or suspends sentence in open court but before the court overrules any preceding motion for new trial, a defendant may, without leave of court, file one or more amended motions for new trial.

UNSWORN IS SUFFICIENT

A defendant's unsworn declarations accompanying his motion that use the phrases "according to my belief" and "under penalty of perjury" are sufficient to support a motion for new trial. Bahm v. State, 219 S.W.3d 391 (Tex. Crim. App. 2007) (unsworn declarations must meet the statutory requirements of Civil Practice & Remedies Code §132.001). See also Rouse v. State, 300 S.W.3d 754 (Tex. Crim. App. 2009).

RULE 21.5. STATE MAY CONTROVERT; EFFECT
The State may oppose in writing any reason the defendant sets forth in the motion for new trial. The State's having opposed a motion for new trial does not affect a defendant's responsibilities under 21.6.

RULE 21.6. TIME TO PRESENT

The defendant must present the motion for new trial to the trial court within 10 days of filing it, unless the trial court in its discretion permits it to be presented and heard within 75 days from the date when the court imposes or suspends sentence in open court.

PRESENTING MOTIONS

A docket-sheet entry without a signed order is sufficient to show “presentment” of a motion for new trial filed the same day the defendant claims to have presented it to the trial court. Stokes v. State, 277 S.W.3d 20 (Tex. Crim. App. 2009). Rule 21.6 does not expressly state that a judge’s signature is necessary to satisfy the requirement.

RULE 21.7. TYPES OF EVIDENCE ALLOWED AT HEARING

The court may receive evidence by affidavit or otherwise.

TESTIMONY V. AFFIDAVIT

There is no per se rule that a trial court must hear testimony whenever there is a factual dispute in affidavits on a motion for new trial and a party asks for testimony. A trial court abuses its discretion only in failing to hold a hearing when a defendant presents a motion for new trial raising matters that may not be determined from the record. Holden v. State, 201 S.W.3d 761 (Tex. Crim. App. 2006).

RULE 21.8. COURT’S RULING

- (a) Time to Rule. The court must rule on a motion for new trial within 75 days after imposing or suspending sentence in open court.
- (b) Ruling. In ruling on a motion for new trial, the court may make oral or written findings of fact. The granting of a motion for new trial must be accomplished by written order. A docket entry does not constitute a written order.
- (c) Failure to Rule. A motion not timely ruled on by written order will be deemed denied when the period prescribed in (a) expires.

HEARINGS

The right to a hearing on a motion for new trial is not absolute. Rozell v. State, 176 S.W.3d 228, 230 (Tex. Crim. App. 2005). The defendant must both timely file a motion with supporting affidavits showing that error occurred and present the motion to the trial court. Rozell, 176 S.W.3d at 230. Merely filing a motion for new trial does not constitute “presentment” under T.R.App.P. 21.6. Thompson v. State, 243 S.W.3d 774 (Tex. App. — Fort Worth 2007, pet. ref’d); Baker v. State, 956 S.W.2d 19 (Tex. Crim. App. 1997). When the defendant must adduce facts not in the record to present them on appeal, he must file a motion for new trial and obtain a hearing. T.R.App.P. 21.2; Rozell. The defendant must obtain a hearing on the motion before the motion for new trial is overruled by operation of law. Rozell.

EVIDENCE ALLOWED

The trial court can receive evidence in a motion for new trial by affidavit or otherwise. Lopez v. State, 895 S.W.2d 392 (Tex. App. — Corpus Christi 1994, no pet.).

TRIAL COURT RULING

The trial court can only grant a new trial within the 75-day window discussed in Rule 21.8, but there is no similar time limit on the court’s authority to rescind the order. Kirk v. State, 454 S.W.3d 511 (Tex. Crim. App. 2015). Any motion not timely ruled on before the end of the 75-day period is deemed denied. TRAP 21.8(a), (c); Stokes v. State, 277 S.W.3d 20, 21 (Tex. Crim. App. 2009).

RULE 21.9. GRANTING A NEW TRIAL

- (a) A court must grant a new trial when it has found a meritorious ground for new trial, but a court must grant only a new trial on punishment when it has found a ground that affected only the assessment of punishment.

(b) Granting a new trial restores the case to its position before the former trial, including, at any party’s option, arraignment or pretrial proceedings initiated by that party.

(c) Granting a new trial on punishment restores the case to its position after the defendant was found guilty. Unless the defendant, State, and trial court all agree to a change, punishment in a new trial shall be assessed in accordance with the defendant’s original election under article 37.07, §2(b) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

(d) A finding or verdict of guilt in the former trial must not be regarded as a presumption of guilt, nor may it be alluded to in the presence of the jury that hears the case on retrial of guilt. A finding of fact or an assessment of punishment in the former trial may not be alluded to in the presence of the jury that hears the case on retrial of punishment.

RULE 22. ARREST OF JUDGMENT IN CRIMINAL CASES

RULE 22.1. DEFINITION

Motion in arrest of judgment means a defendant’s oral or written suggestion that, for reasons stated in the motion, the judgment rendered against the defendant was contrary to law. Such a motion is made in the trial court.

RULE 22.2. GROUNDS

The motion may be based on any of the following grounds:

- (a) that the indictment or information is subject to an exception on substantive grounds;
- (b) that in relation to the indictment or information a verdict is substantively defective; or
- (c) that the judgment is invalid for some other reason.

RULE 22.3. TIME TO FILE MOTION

A defendant may file a motion in arrest of judgment before, but no later than 30 days after, the date when the trial court imposes or suspends sentence in open court.

RULE 22.4. COURT’S RULING

- (a) Time to Rule; Form of Ruling. The court must rule on a motion in arrest of judgment within 75 days after imposing or suspending sentence in open court. The ruling may be oral or in writing.
- (b) Failure to Rule. A motion not timely ruled on will be deemed denied when the period prescribed in (a) expires.

RULE 22.5. EFFECT OF DENYING

For purposes of the defendant’s giving notice of appeal, an order denying a motion in arrest of judgment will be considered an order denying a motion for new trial.

RULE 22.6. EFFECT OF GRANTING

(a) Defendant Restored. If judgment is arrested, the defendant is restored to the position that he or she had before the indictment or information was presented.

(b) Defendant Discharged or Remanded. If the judgment is arrested, the defendant will be discharged. But the trial court may remand the defendant to custody or fix bail if the court determines, from the evidence adduced at trial, that the defendant may be convicted on a proper indictment or information, or on a proper verdict in relation to the indictment or information.

RULE 23. NUNC PRO TUNC PROCEEDINGS IN CRIMINAL CASES

RULE 23.1. JUDGMENT AND SENTENCE

Unless the trial court has granted a new trial or arrested the judgment, or unless the defendant has appealed, a failure to render judgment and pronounce sentence may be corrected at any time by the court's doing so.

RULE 23.2. CREDIT ON SENTENCE

When sentence is pronounced, the trial court must give the defendant credit on that sentence for:

- (a) all time the defendant has been confined since the time when judgment and sentence should have been entered and pronounced; and
- (b) all time between the defendant's arrest and confinement to the time when judgment and sentence should have been entered and pronounced.

RULE 24. SUSPENSION OF ENFORCEMENT OF JUDGMENT PENDING APPEAL IN CIVIL CASES

RULE 24.1. SUSPENSION OF ENFORCEMENT

(a) Methods. Unless the law or these rules provide otherwise, a judgment debtor may supersede the judgment by:

- (1) filing with the trial court clerk a written agreement with the judgment creditor for suspending enforcement of the judgment;
- (2) filing with the trial court clerk a good and sufficient bond;
- (3) making a deposit with the trial court clerk in lieu of a bond; or
- (4) providing alternate security under Rule 24.2(e) or ordered by the court.

(b) Bonds.

- (1) A bond must be:
  - (A) in the amount required by 24.2;
  - (B) payable to the judgment creditor;
  - (C) signed by the judgment debtor or the debtor's agent;
  - (D) signed by a sufficient surety or sureties as obligors; and
  - (E) conditioned as required by (d).
- (2) ~~[To be effective a bond must be approved by the trial court clerk.] A bond is effective upon filing.~~ On motion of any party, the trial court will review the bond.

(c) Deposit in Lieu of Bond.

- (1) Types of Deposits. Instead of filing a surety bond, a party may deposit with the trial court clerk:
  - (A) cash;
  - (B) a cashier's check payable to the clerk, drawn on any federally insured and federally or state-chartered bank or savings-and-loan association; or
  - (C) with leave of court, a negotiable obligation of the federal government or of any federally insured and federally or state-chartered bank or savings-and-loan association.
- (2) Amount of Deposit. The deposit must be in the amount required by 24.2.
- (3) Clerk's duties; Interest. The clerk must promptly deposit any cash or a cashier's check in accordance with law. The clerk must hold the deposit until the conditions of liability in (d) are extinguished. The clerk must then release any remaining funds in the deposit to the judgment debtor.

(d) Conditions of Liability. The surety or sureties on a bond, any deposit in lieu of a bond, or any alternate security under Rule 24.2(e) or ordered by the court is subject to liability for all damages and costs that may be awarded against the debtor—up to the amount of the bond, deposit, or security—if:

- (1) the debtor does not perfect an appeal or the debtor's appeal is dismissed, and the debtor does not perform the trial court's judgment;
- (2) the debtor does not perform an adverse judgment final on appeal; or
- (3) the judgment is for the recovery of an interest in real or personal property, and the debtor does not pay the creditor the value of the property interest's rent or revenue during the pendency of the appeal.

(e) Orders of Trial Court. The trial court may make any order necessary to adequately protect the judgment creditor against loss or damage that the appeal might cause.

(f) Effect of Supersedeas. Enforcement of a judgment must be suspended if the judgment is superseded. Enforcement begun before the judgment is superseded must cease when the judgment is superseded. If execution has been issued, the clerk will promptly issue a writ of supersedeas.

Rule 24.1(b)(2) amended effective Jan. 1, 2024. Other amendments effective Sept. 1, 2023.

RULE 24.2. AMOUNT OF BOND, DEPOSIT OR SECURITY

(a) Type of Judgment.

(1) For Recovery of Money. When the judgment is for money, the amount of the bond, deposit, or security must equal the sum of compensatory damages awarded in the judgment, interest for the estimated duration of the appeal, and costs awarded in the judgment. But the amount must not exceed the lesser of:

- (A) 50 percent of the judgment debtor's current net worth; or
- (B) 25 million dollars.

(2) For Recovery of Property. When the judgment is for the recovery of an interest in real or personal property, the trial court will determine the type of security that the judgment debtor must post. The amount of that security must be at least:

- (A) the value of the property interest's rent or revenue, if the property interest is real; or
- (B) the value of the property interest on the date when the court rendered judgment, if the property interest is personal.

(3) Other Judgment. When the judgment is for something other than money or an interest in property, the trial court must set the amount and type of security that the judgment debtor must post. The security must adequately protect the judgment creditor against loss or damage that the appeal might cause. But the trial court may decline to permit the judgment to be superseded if the judgment creditor posts security ordered by the trial court in an amount and type that will secure the judgment debtor against any loss or damage caused by the relief granted the judgment creditor if an appellate court determines, on final disposition, that that relief was improper. When the judgment debtor is the state, a department of this state, or the head of a department of this state, the trial court must permit a judgment to be superseded except in a matter arising from a contested case in an administrative enforcement action.

(4) Conservatorship or Custody. When the judgment involves the conservatorship or custody of a minor or other person under legal disability, enforcement of the judgment will not be suspended, with or without security, unless ordered by the trial court. But upon a proper showing, the appellate court may suspend enforcement of the judgment with or without security.

(5) For a Governmental Entity. When a judgment in favor of a governmental entity in its governmental capacity is one in which the entity has no pecuniary interest, the trial court must determine whether to suspend enforcement, with or without security, taking into account the harm that is likely to result to the judgment debtor if enforcement is not suspended, and the harm that is likely to result to others if enforcement is suspended. The appellate court may review the trial court's determination and suspend enforcement of the judgment, with or without security, or refuse to suspend the judgment. If security is required, recovery is limited to the governmental entity's actual damages resulting from suspension of the judgment.

(b) Lesser Amount. The trial court must lower the amount of security required by (a) to an amount that will not cause the judgment debtor substantial economic harm if, after notice to all parties and a hearing, the court finds that posting a bond, deposit, or security in the amount required by (a) is likely to cause the judgment debtor substantial economic harm.

(c) Determination of Net Worth.

(1) Judgment Debtor's Affidavit Required; Contents; Prima Facie Evidence. A judgment debtor who provides a bond, deposit, or security under (a)(1)(A) or (e) in an amount based on the debtor's net worth must simultaneously file with the trial court clerk an affidavit that states the debtor's net worth and states complete, detailed information concerning the debtor's assets and liabilities from which net worth can be ascertained. An affidavit that meets these requirements is prima facie evidence of the debtor's net worth for the purpose of establishing the amount of the bond, deposit, or security required to suspend enforcement of the judgment. A trial court clerk must receive and file a net-worth affidavit tendered for filing by a judgment debtor.

(2) Contest; Discovery. A judgment creditor may file a contest to the debtor's claimed net worth. The contest need not be sworn. The creditor may conduct reasonable discovery concerning the judgment debtor's net worth.

(3) Hearing; Burden of Proof; Findings; Additional Security. The trial court must hear a judgment creditor's contest of the judgment debtor's claimed net worth promptly after any discovery has been completed. The judgment debtor has the burden of proving net worth. The trial court must issue an order that states the debtor's net worth and states with particularity the factual basis for that determination. If the trial court orders additional or other security to supersede the judgment, the enforcement of the judgment will be suspended for twenty days after the trial court's order. If the judgment debtor does not comply with the order within that period, the judgment may be enforced against the judgment debtor.

(d) Injunction. The trial court may enjoin the judgment debtor from dissipating or transferring assets to avoid satisfaction of the judgment, but the trial court may not make any order that interferes with the judgment debtor's use, transfer, conveyance, or dissipation of assets in the normal course of business.

(e) Alternative Security in Certain Cases.

(1) Applicability. Paragraph (e) applies only to a judgment debtor with a net worth of less than $10 million.

(2) Alternative Security; Required Showing. On a showing by the judgment debtor that posting security in the amount required under (a)(1) would require the judgment debtor to substantially liquidate the judgment debtor's interests in real or personal property necessary to the normal course of the judgment debtor's business, the trial court must allow the judgment debtor to post alternative security with a value sufficient to secure the judgment.

(3) Earnings on Appeal. During an appeal, the judgment debtor may continue to manage, use, and receive earnings from interests in real or personal property in the normal course of business.

(f) Redetermination. If an appellate court reduces the amount of the judgment used to set the bond, deposit, or security, the judgment debtor is entitled, pending appeal of the judgment to a court of last resort, to a redetermination by the trial court of the amount of the bond, deposit, or security required to suspend enforcement.

Addition of (e) & (f) and amendment to (c) apply to a civil action commenced on or after Sept. 1, 2023.

RULE 24.3. CONTINUING TRIAL COURT

JURISDICTION; DUTIES OF JUDGMENT DEBTOR

(a) Continuing Jurisdiction. Even after the trial court's plenary power expires, the trial court has continuing jurisdiction to do the following:

- (1) order the amount and type of security and decide the sufficiency of sureties; and
- (2) if circumstances change, modify the amount or type of security required to continue the suspension of a judgment's execution.

(b) Duties of Judgment Debtor. If, after jurisdiction attaches in an appellate court, the trial court orders or modifies the security or decides the sufficiency of sureties, the judgment debtor must notify the appellate court of the trial court's action.

RULE 24.4. APPELLATE REVIEW

(a) Motions; Review. A party may seek review of the trial court's ruling by motion filed in the court of appeals with jurisdiction or potential jurisdiction over the appeal from the judgment in the case. A party may seek review of the court of appeals' ruling on the motion by petition for writ of mandamus in the Supreme Court. The appellate court may review:

- (1) the sufficiency or excessiveness of the amount of security, but when the judgment is for money, the appellate court must not modify the amount of security to exceed the limits imposed by Rule 24.2(a)(1);

- (2) the sureties on any bond;
- (3) the type of security;
- (4) the determination whether to permit suspension of enforcement; and
- (5) the trial court's exercise of discretion under 24.3(a).
- (b) Grounds of Review. Review may be based both on conditions as they existed at the time the trial court signed an order and on changes in those conditions afterward.
- (c) Temporary Orders. The appellate court may issue any temporary orders necessary to preserve the parties' rights.
- (d) Action by Appellate Court. The motion must be heard at the earliest practicable time. The appellate court may require that the amount of a bond, deposit, or other security be increased or decreased, and that another bond, deposit, or security be provided ~~[and approved by the trial court clerk]~~. The appellate court may require other changes in the trial court order. The appellate court may remand to the trial court for entry of findings of fact or for the taking of evidence.
- (e) Effect of Ruling. If the appellate court orders additional or other security to supersede the judgment, enforcement will be suspended for 20 days after the appellate court's order. If the judgment debtor does not comply with the order within that period, the judgment may be enforced. When any additional bond, deposit, or security has been filed, the trial court clerk must notify the appellate court. The posting of additional security will not release the previously posted security or affect any alternative security arrangements that the judgment debtor previously made unless specifically ordered by the appellate court.

■ COMMENT TO 2023 & 2024 CHANGES

New Rule 24.2(e) and (f) are added to implement §52.007 of the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code. Rules 24.1(b)(2) and 24.4(d) are amended to provide that a bond is effective upon filing, though the bond is still subject to challenge.

RULE 25. PERFECTING APPEAL

RULE 25.1. CIVIL CASES

- (a) Notice of Appeal. An appeal is perfected when a written notice of appeal is filed with the trial court clerk. If a notice of appeal is mistakenly filed with the appellate court, the notice is deemed to have been filed the same day with the trial court clerk, and the appellate clerk must immediately send the trial court clerk a copy of the notice.
- (b) Jurisdiction of Appellate Court. The filing of a notice of appeal by any party invokes the appellate court's jurisdiction over all parties to the trial court's judgment or order appealed from. Any party's failure to take any other step required by these rules, including the failure of another party to perfect an appeal under (c), does not deprive the appellate court of jurisdiction but is ground only for the appellate court to act appropriately, including dismissing the appeal.
- (c) Who Must File Notice. A party who seeks to alter the trial court's judgment or other appealable order must file a notice of appeal. Parties whose interests are aligned may file a joint notice of appeal. The appellate court may not grant a party who does not file a notice of appeal more favorable relief than did the trial court except for just cause.

- (d) Contents of Notice. The notice of appeal must:
  - (1) identify the trial court and state the case's trial court number and style;
  - (2) state the date of the judgment or order appealed from;
  - (3) state that the party desires to appeal;
  - (4) state the court to which the appeal is taken unless the appeal is to either the First or Fourteenth Court of Appeals, in which case the notice must state that the appeal is to either of those courts;
  - (5) state the name of each party filing the notice;
  - (6) in an accelerated appeal, state that the appeal is accelerated and state whether it is a parental termination or child protection case or an appeal from an order certifying a child to stand trial as an adult, as defined in Rule 28.4;
  - (7) in a restricted appeal:
    - (A) state that the appellant is a party affected by the trial court's judgment but did not participate—either in person or through counsel—in the hearing that resulted in the judgment complained of;
    - (B) state that the appellant did not timely file either a postjudgment motion, request for findings of fact and conclusions of law, or notice of appeal; and
    - (C) be verified by the appellant if the appellant does not have counsel.
  - (8) state, if applicable, that the appellant is presumed indigent and may proceed without paying costs under Rule 20.1[-]; and
  - (9) state whether the appeal involves a matter:
    - (A) brought by or against the state or a board, commission, department, office, or other agency in the executive branch of the state government, including a university system or institution of higher education;
    - (B) brought by or against an officer or employee of the state or a board, commission, department, office, or other agency in the executive branch of the state government arising out of that officer's or employee's official conduct; or
    - (C) in which a party to the proceeding challenges the constitutionality or validity of a state statute or rule and the attorney general is a party to the case.
- (e) Notice of Notice. The notice of appeal must be served on all parties to the trial court's final judgment or, in an interlocutory appeal, on all parties to the trial court proceeding. At or before the time of the notice of appeal's filing, the filing party must also deliver a copy of the notice of appeal to each court reporter responsible for preparing the reporter's record.
- (f) Trial Court Clerk's Duties. The trial court clerk must immediately deliver a copy of the notice of appeal to the appellate court clerk and to the court reporter or court reporters responsible for preparing the reporter's record.
- (g) Amending the Notice. An amended notice of appeal correcting a defect or omission in an earlier filed notice may be filed in the appellate court at any time before the appellant's brief is filed. The amended notice is subject to being struck for cause on the motion of any party affected by the amended notice. After the appellant's brief is filed, the notice may be amended only on leave of the appellate court and on such terms as the court may prescribe.
- (h) Enforcement of judgment not suspended by appeal. The filing of a notice of appeal does not suspend enforcement of the judgment. Enforcement of the judgment may proceed unless:

- (1) the judgment is superseded in accordance with Rule 24, or
- (2) the appellant is entitled to supersede the judgment without security by filing a notice of appeal.

Addition of (d)(9) effective Sept. 1, 2024.

COMMENT TO 2024 CHANGE

Rule 25.1(d)(9) is adopted to implement Texas Gov't Code §22.220(d), which describes matters within the Fifteenth Court of Appeals' exclusive intermediate appellate jurisdiction. The addition is designed to assist the courts of appeals in the orderly transfer of cases and to assist parties in determining which court should hear their appeal.

COMMENT TO 2023 CHANGE

Rule 25.1 is revised to implement Texas Family Code §56.01(h-1).

COMMENT TO 2019 CHANGE

Subdivision 25.1(e) is revised to implement §51.017 of the Texas Civil Practice & Remedies Code.

RULE 25.2. CRIMINAL CASES

(a) Rights to Appeal.

(1) Of the State. The State is entitled to appeal a court's order in a criminal case as provided by Code of Criminal Procedure article 44.01.

(2) Of the Defendant. A defendant in a criminal case has the right of appeal under Code of Criminal Procedure article 44.02 and these rules. The trial court shall enter a certification of the defendant's right of appeal each time it enters a judgment of guilt or other appealable order other than an order appealable under Code of Criminal Procedure Chapter 64. In a plea bargain case—that is, a case in which a defendant's plea was guilty or nolo contendere and the punishment did not exceed the punishment recommended by the prosecutor and agreed to by the defendant—a defendant may appeal only:

- (A) those matters that were raised by written motion filed and ruled on before trial,
- (B) after getting the trial court's permission to appeal, or
- (C) where the specific appeal is expressly authorized by statute.

(b) Perfection of Appeal. In a criminal case, appeal is perfected by timely filing a sufficient notice of appeal. In a death-penalty case it is unnecessary to file a notice of appeal, but, in every death-penalty case, the clerk of the trial court shall file a notice of conviction with the Court of Criminal Appeals within thirty days after the defendant is sentenced to death.

(c) Form and Sufficiency of Notice.

- (1) Notice must be given in writing and filed with the trial court clerk. If the notice of appeal is received in the court of appeals, the clerk of that court shall immediately record on the notice the date that it was received and send the notice to the trial court clerk.
- (2) Notice is sufficient if it shows the party's desire to appeal from the judgment or other appealable order, and, if the State is the appellant, the notice complies with Code of Criminal Procedure article 44.01.

(d) Certification of Defendant's Right of Appeal. If the defendant is the appellant, the record must include the trial court's certification of the defendant's right of appeal under Rule 25.2(a)(2). The certification shall include a notice that the defendant has been informed of his rights concerning an appeal, as well as any right to file a pro se petition for discretionary review. This notification shall be signed by the defendant, with a copy given to him. The certification should be part of the record when notice is filed, but may be added by timely amendment or supplementation under this rule or Rule 34.5(c)(1) or Rule 37.1 or by order of the appellate court under Rule 34.5(c)(2). The appeal must be dismissed if a certification that shows the defendant has the right of appeal has not been made part of the record under these rules.

(e) Trial Court Clerk's Duties. The trial court clerk must note on the copies of the notice of appeal and the trial court's certification of the defendant's right of appeal the case number and the date when each was filed. The clerk must then immediately deliver one copy of each to the clerk of the appropriate court of appeals, to the trial judge, to each court reporter responsible for preparing the reporter's record, and, if the defendant is the appellant, one copy of each to the State's attorney.

(f) Amending the Notice or Certification. An amended notice of appeal or trial court's certification of the defendant's right of appeal correcting a defect or omission in an earlier filed notice or certification, including a defect in the notification of the defendant's appellate rights, may be filed in the appellate court in accordance with Rule 37.1, or at any time before the appealing party's brief is filed if the court of appeals has not used Rule 37.1. The amended notice or certification is subject to being struck for cause on the motion of any party affected by the amended notice or certification. After the appealing party's brief is filed, the notice or certification may be amended only on leave of the appellate court and on such terms as the court may prescribe.

(g) Effect of Appeal. Once the record has been filed in the appellate court, all further proceedings in the trial court — except as provided otherwise by law or by these rules — will be suspended until the trial court receives the appellate-court mandate.

(h) Advice of Right to Appeal. When a court enters a judgment or other appealable order and the defendant has a right of appeal, the court (orally or in writing) shall advise the defendant of his right of appeal and of the requirements for timely filing a sufficient notice of appeal.

COMMENT TO 1997 CHANGE

This is former Rule 40. In civil cases, the requirement of an appeal bond is repealed. Appeal is perfected by filing a notice of appeal. A notice must be filed by any party seeking to alter the trial court's judgment. The restricted appeal—formerly the appeal by writ of error—is perfected by filing a notice of appeal in the trial court as in other appeals. The contents of the notice of appeal is prescribed. The notice of limitation of appeal is repealed. In criminal cases, the rule is amended to apply to notices by the State, and to refer to additional statutory requirements for the State's notice. In felony cases in which the defendant waived trial by jury, pleaded guilty or nolo contendere, and received a punishment that did not exceed what the defendant agreed to in a plea bargain, the rule is amended to make clear that regardless of when the alleged error occurred, an appeal must be based on a jurisdictional defect or a written motion ruled on before trial, or be with the permission of the trial court.

■ COMMENT TO 2002 CHANGE

Subdivision 25.2(a) states the parties' rights of appeal that are established by Code of Criminal Procedure article 44.01 and by article 44.02, the proviso of which was repealed when rulemaking power was given to the Court of Criminal Appeals. Subdivision 25.2(b) is given the requirement that a notice of appeal be in "sufficient" form, which codifies the decisional law. The requirement in former subdivision 25.2(b)(3) that a plea-bargaining appellant's notice of appeal specify the right of appeal is replaced by a requirement in subdivision 25.2(d) that the trial court certify the defendant's right of appeal in every case in which a judgment or other appealable order is entered. The certificate should be signed at the time the judgment or other appealable order is pronounced. The form of certification of the defendant's right of appeal is provided in an appendix to these rules. If the record does not include the trial court's certification that the defendant has the right of appeal, the appeal must be dismissed. If a sufficient notice of appeal or certification is not filed after the appellate court deals with the defect (see Rules 34.5(c) and 37.1), preparation of an appellate record and representation by an appointed attorney may cease.

RIGHT TO APPEAL & PLEA BARGAINS

A defendant who gets his plea bargain may not appeal anything other than a pretrial motion unless the defendant gets the trial court's consent. Chavez v. State, 183 S.W.3d 675 (Tex. Crim. App. 2006). The only time a valid non-negotiated (or "open") plea of guilty waives the right to appeal is if the judgment of guilt was rendered independent of the claimed error. Brasfield v. State, 18 S.W.3d 232 (Tex. Crim. App. 2000).

STATE APPEALS & TRIAL COURT JURISDICTION

When the State appeals under CCP Art. 44.01(a) or (b), the State is entitled to a stay in the proceedings pending disposition of the appeal. Under Rule 25.2(g), once the appellate record is filed, all further proceedings are suspended until the trial court receives the appellate court mandate. Ex parte Macias, 541 S.W.3d 782 (Tex. Crim. App. 2017). The trial court resumes jurisdiction only after the appellate court mandate issues.

RULE 26. TIME TO PERFECT APPEAL

RULE 26.1. CIVIL CASES

The notice of appeal must be filed within 30 days after the judgment is signed, except as follows:

- (a) the notice of appeal must be filed within 90 days after the judgment is signed if any party timely files:
  - (1) a motion for new trial;
  - (2) a motion to modify the judgment;
  - (3) a motion to reinstate under Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 165a; or
  - (4) a request for findings of fact and conclusions of law if findings and conclusions either are required by the Rules of Civil Procedure or, if not required, could properly be considered by the appellate court;
- (b) in an accelerated appeal, the notice of appeal must be filed within 20 days after the judgment or order is signed;
- (c) in a restricted appeal, the notice of appeal must be filed within six months after the judgment or order is signed; and
- (d) if any party timely files a notice of appeal, another party may file a notice of appeal within the applicable period stated above or 14 days after the first filed notice of appeal, whichever is later.

RULE 26.2. CRIMINAL CASES

- (a) By the Defendant. The notice of appeal must be filed:
  - (1) within 30 days after the day sentence is imposed or suspended in open court, or after the day the trial court enters an appealable order; or
  - (2) within 90 days after the day sentence is imposed or suspended in open court if the defendant timely files a motion for new trial.
- (b) By the State. The notice of appeal must be filed within 20 days after the day the trial court enters the order, ruling, or sentence to be appealed.

NUNC PRO TUNC

If a defendant timely files a motion for new trial and, while the motion for new trial is pending, the trial court enters a nunc pro tunc order, a defendant seeking to challenge the nunc pro tunc order does not need to file notice of appeal within 30 days after the nunc pro tunc order. Williams v. State, 603 S.W.3d 439 (Tex. Crim. App. 2020).

RULE 26.3. EXTENSION OF TIME

The appellate court may extend the time to file the notice of appeal if, within 15 days after the deadline for filing the notice of appeal, the party:

- (a) files in the trial court the notice of appeal; and
- (b) files in the appellate court a motion complying with Rule 10.5(b).

RULE 27. PREMATURE FILINGS

RULE 27.1. PREMATURELY FILED

NOTICE OF APPEAL

- (a) Civil Cases. In a civil case, a prematurely filed notice of appeal is effective and deemed filed on the day of, but after, the event that begins the period for perfecting the appeal.
- (b) Criminal Cases. In a criminal case, a prematurely filed notice of appeal is effective and deemed filed on the same day, but after, sentence is imposed or suspended in open court, or the appealable order is signed by the trial court. But a notice of appeal is not effective if filed before the trial court makes a finding of guilt or receives a jury verdict.

RULE 27.2. OTHER PREMATURE ACTIONS

The appellate court may treat actions taken before an appealable order is signed as relating to an appeal of that order and give them effect as if they had been taken after the order was signed. The appellate court may allow an appealed order that is not final to be modified so as to be made final and may allow the modified order and all proceedings relating to it to be included in a supplemental record.

RULE 27.3. IF APPEALED ORDER

MODIFIED OR VACATED

After an order or judgment in a civil case has been appealed, if the trial court modifies the order or judgment, or if the trial court vacates the order or judgment and replaces it with another appealable order or judgment, the appellate court must treat the appeal as from the subsequent order or judgment and may treat actions relating to the appeal of the first order or judgment as relating to the appeal of the subsequent order or judgment. The subsequent order or judgment and actions relating to it may be included in the original or supplemental record. Any party may nonetheless appeal from the subsequent order or judgment.

RULE 27a. TRANSFERS TO AND FROM THE FIFTEENTH COURT OF APPEALS

(a) Definitions.

(1) “Regional court of appeals” means a court of appeals other than the Fifteenth Court of Appeals.

(2) [(1)] “Transferor court” means the court of appeals in which the appeal is pending.

(3) [(2)] “Transferee court” means the court of appeals to which a party requests of the transferor court[s] seeks to transfer the appeal.

(b) Application.

(1) The transfer process in this rule applies to appeals:

(A) [~~improperly~~] taken to the Fifteenth Court of Appeals that are not within the Fifteenth Court of Appeals’ intermediate appellate jurisdiction; or

(B) taken to a regional court of appeals and over which the Fifteenth Court of Appeals has exclusive intermediate appellate jurisdiction.

(2) This rule does not apply to appeals transferred by the Supreme Court for good cause, including for docket equalization purposes.

(c) Transfer by a Court of Appeals.

(1) Standard. The transferor court must transfer the appeal if:

(A) the deadline for filing an objection has passed;

(B) either:

(i) the transferor court is a regional court of appeals and it determines that the appeal is within the Fifteenth Court of Appeals’ exclusive intermediate jurisdiction; or

(ii) the transferor court is the Fifteenth Court of Appeals and it determines the appeal is not within its exclusive intermediate appellate jurisdiction; and

(C) the transferee court agrees to the transfer.

(2) Transfer Initiation. A transfer may be initiated by a party’s motion or by the transferor court.

(3) [(1)] [~~On a Party’s Motion.~~] Motion or Notice and Opportunity to Respond.

(A) A party may file a motion to transfer an appeal. The motion should be filed within 30 days after the appeal is perfected but must be filed by the date the appellee’s brief is filed. The motion must be filed in the transferor court and explain why the Fifteenth Court of Appeals does or does not have exclusive intermediate appellate jurisdiction. The motion may be supported by briefing. The movant must immediately notify the transferee court of the motion.

(B) If the transferor court initiates a transfer, the transferor court must notify the parties and the transferee court.

(C) A party may file a response to the potential transfer. The response must be filed within 10 days after the motion’s filing or after receiving the transferor court’s notice. The response must explain why the Fifteenth Court of Appeals does or does not have exclusive intermediate appellate jurisdiction.

[(B) The transferor court must notify the parties and the transferee court of its decision on the motion. The transferor court may transfer the appeal if:]

[(i) no party files an objection to the transfer within 10 days after the motion’s filing or the transferor court determines that any filed objection lacks merit; and]

[(ii) the transferee court agrees to the transfer.]

[(C) The transferee court must file, within 20 days after receiving notice from the transferor court of its decision on the motion, a letter in the transferor court explaining whether it agrees with the transferor court’s decision.]

[(2) On Its Own Initiative.]

[(A) The transferor court must notify the parties and the transferee court of its intent to transfer on its own initiative.]

[(B) The transferor court may transfer an appeal on its own initiative if:]

[(i) no party files an objection to the transfer within 10 days after receiving notice from the transferor court of its intent to transfer or the transferor court determines that any filed objection lacks merit; and]

[(ii) the transferee court agrees to the transfer.]

(4) Preliminary Decision. After the deadline for filing a response has passed, the transferor court must notify the parties and the transferee court of its preliminary decision.

(5) [(C)] Transferee Court Disagreement. If [F]the transferee court disagrees with the transferor court’s preliminary decision, the transferee court must, within 20 days after receiving notice from the transferor court of its [intent to transfer] preliminary decision, file a letter in the transferor court explaining [whether it agrees with the transfer] its disagreement. The transferee court may file a letter agreeing with the preliminary decision.

(6) [(3)] Transfer Notice [to Supreme Court and the Office of Court Administration]. If the transferor court and transferee court agree on whether the appeal should be transferred, the transferor court must finalize its decision and notify the parties. If the transferor court transfers an appeal under (1) [or (2)], the transferor court must notify the Supreme Court and the Office of Court Administration of the transfer.

(d) Transfer by the Supreme Court.

(1) Submission Contents. If the transferor court and transferee court do not agree on whether the appeal should be transferred, then the transferor court must forward to the Supreme Court either:

(A) the party’s motion to transfer, any briefing, the transferee court’s letter [~~under (e)(1)(C)~~], and a letter explaining the transferor court’s decision on the motion; or

(B) a letter from the transferor court that explains its reasons for requesting transfer and that notes any party objections and the transferee court’s letter [~~under (e)(2)(C)~~].

(2) Submission Deadline. Unless exceptional circumstances require additional time, the documents in (1) must be submitted to the Supreme Court within 20 days after receipt of the transferee court’s letter [~~under (e)(1)(C) or (e)(2)(C)~~].

(3) Supreme Court Decision. After receipt of all relevant documents, the Supreme Court will consider and decide the motion or request by the transferor court to transfer.

Enacted effective Sept. 1, 2024. Amended effective Aug. 1,

■ COMMENT TO 2025 CHANGE

Rule 27a is amended to clarify the rule's applicability and objection procedures. To accommodate these changes, some paragraphs have been rearranged and relettered or renumbered.

■ COMMENT TO 2024 CHANGE

Rule 27a is adopted to implement Texas Government Code §73.001. Paragraph (b)(1) limits the applicability of the transfer process in Rule 27a to the appeals described in §73.001(c). And paragraph (b)(2) makes clear that Rule 27a does not apply to "good cause" transfers under Section 73.001(a), which are handled under the Policies for Transfer of Cases Between Courts of Appeals adopted in Misc. Dkt. No. 06-9136.

Consistent with Section 1.15 of the Fifteenth Court of Appeals' enabling legislation, Rule 27a only applies to appeals perfected on or after September 1, 2024. See Act of May 21, 2023, 88th Leg., R.S., ch. 459 (S.B. 1045). It does not apply to appeals pending in the courts of appeals that were filed between September 1, 2023, and August 31, 2024, and of which the Fifteenth Court of Appeals has exclusive intermediate appellate jurisdiction under Texas Government Code §22.220(d). On September 1, 2024, those appeals should be transferred immediately to the Fifteenth Court of Appeals.

RULE 28. ACCELERATED~~[, AGREED,]~~ AND PERMISSIVE APPEALS IN CIVIL CASES

RULE 28.1. ACCELERATED APPEALS

(a) Types of Accelerated Appeals. Appeals from interlocutory orders (when allowed by statute), appeals in quo warranto proceedings, appeals required by statute to be accelerated or expedited, and appeals required by law to be filed or perfected within less than 30 days after the date of the order or judgment being appealed are accelerated appeals.

(b) Perfection of Accelerated Appeal. Unless otherwise provided by statute, an accelerated appeal is perfected by filing a notice of appeal in compliance with Rule 25.1 within the time allowed by Rule 26.1(b) or as extended by Rule 26.3. Filing a motion for new trial, any other post-trial motion, or a request for findings of fact will not extend the time to perfect an accelerated appeal.

(c) Appeals of Interlocutory Orders. The trial court need not file findings of fact and conclusions of law but may do so within 30 days after the order is signed.

(d) Quo Warranto Appeals. The trial court may grant a motion for new trial timely filed under Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 329b(a)–(b) until 50 days after the trial court's final judgment is signed. If not determined by signed written order within that period, the motion will be deemed overruled by operation of law on expiration of that period.

(e) Record and Briefs. In lieu of the clerk's record, the appellate court may hear an accelerated appeal on the original papers forwarded by the trial court or on sworn and uncontroverted copies of those papers. The appellate court may allow the case to be submitted without briefs. The deadlines and procedures for filing the record and briefs in an accelerated appeal are provided in Rules 35.1 and 38.6.

Amendment to rule heading effective Nov. 17, 2023.

RULE 28.2. AGREED INTERLOCUTORY APPEALS IN CIVIL CASES [REPEALED]

Repealed effective Sept. 1, 2023 to effectuate the Act of May 11, 2023, 88th Leg., R.S. ch. 209 (SB 1603, codified at Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code §54.014(g)–(h)).

RULE 28.3. PERMISSIVE APPEALS IN CIVIL CASES

(a) Petition required. When a trial court has permitted an appeal from an interlocutory order that would not otherwise be appealable, a party seeking to appeal must petition the court of appeals for permission to appeal.

(b) Where Filed. The petition must be filed with the clerk of the court of appeals having appellate jurisdiction over the action in which the order to be appealed is issued. The First and Fourteenth Courts of Appeals must determine in which of those two courts a petition will be filed.

(c) When Filed. The petition must be filed within 15 days after the order to be appealed is signed. If the order is amended by the trial court, either on its own or in response to a party's motion, to include the court's permission to appeal, the time to petition the court of appeals runs from the date the amended order is signed.

(d) Extension of Time to File Petition. The court of appeals may extend the time to file the petition if the party:

- (1) files the petition within 15 days after the deadline, and
- (2) files a motion complying with Rule 10.5(b).

(e) Contents. The petition must:

- (1) contain the information required by Rule 25.1(d) to be included in a notice of appeal;
- (2) attach ~~[a copy of the order from which appeal is sought];~~

(A) a copy of the order from which appeal is sought;

(B) a copy of every file-marked document that is material to the order from which appeal is sought and that was filed in the trial court; and

(C) a properly authenticated transcript of any relevant testimony from the underlying proceeding, including any relevant exhibits offered in evidence relating to the order from which appeal is sought; a statement that the transcript has been ordered and will be filed when it is received; or a statement that no evidence was adduced in connection with such order.

(3) contain a table of contents, index of authorities, issues presented, and a statement of facts; and

(4) argue clearly and concisely why the order to be appealed involves a controlling question of law as to which there is a substantial ground for difference of opinion and how an immediate appeal from the order may materially advance the ultimate termination of the litigation.

(f) Response, Reply; Cross-Petition; Time for Filing. If any party timely files a petition, any other party may file a response or a cross-petition within 10 days. A party may file a response to a cross-petition within 10 days of the date the cross-petition is filed. A petitioner or cross-petitioner may reply to any matter in a response within 7 days of the date the response is filed. The court of appeals may extend the time to file a response, reply, and cross-petition.

- (g) Length of Petition, Cross-Petition, Response, and Reply. A petition, cross-petition, response, and reply must comply with the length limitations in Rule 9.4(i)(2)(D)–(E).
- (h) Service. A petition, cross-petition, response, and reply must be served on all parties to the trial court proceeding.
- (i) Docketing Statement. Upon filing the petition, the petitioner must file the docketing statement required by Rule 32.1.
- (j) Time for Determination. Unless the court of appeals orders otherwise, a petition, and any cross-petition, response, and reply, will be determined without oral argument, no earlier than 10 days after the petition is filed.
- (k) When Petition Granted. If the petition is granted, a notice of appeal is deemed to have been filed under Rule 26.1(b) on that date, and the appeal is governed by the rules for accelerated appeals. A separate notice of appeal need not be filed. A copy of the order granting the petition must be filed with the trial court clerk.
- (l) When Petition Denied. If the court of appeals denies the petition, the court must explain in its decision the specific reasons for its finding that an appeal is not warranted. On petition for review, the Supreme Court may review the court of appeals’ denial de novo, and, if the Supreme Court concludes that the statutory prerequisites for a permissive appeal are met, the Supreme Court may direct the court of appeals to grant permission to appeal.

Amendments to (e) and addition of (l) effective Nov. 17, 2023.

■ COMMENT TO 2023 CHANGE

Rule 28.2 is repealed. Rule 28.3 is amended to implement sections 51.014(g) and (h) of the Civil Practice and Remedies Code and governs the procedure for all permissive appeals filed after September 1, 2023.

RULE 28.4. ACCELERATED APPEALS IN PARENTAL TERMINATION AND CHILD PROTECTION CASES AND FROM ORDERS CERTIFYING A CHILD TO STAND TRIAL AS AN ADULT

- (a) Application and Definitions.
- (1) Appeals in parental termination and child protection cases and from an order certifying a child to stand trial as an adult are governed by the rules of appellate procedure for accelerated appeals, except as otherwise provided in Rule 28.4.
- (2) In Rule 28.4:
- (A) a “parental termination case” means a suit in which termination of the parent-child relationship is at issue.
- (B) a “child protection case” means a suit affecting the parent-child relationship filed by a governmental entity for managing conservatorship.
- (C) an “order certifying a child to stand trial as an adult” is an order under Family Code section 54.02 waiving juvenile court jurisdiction and transferring a child for prosecution in a district or criminal district court.
- (b) Appellate Record.
- (1) Responsibility for Preparation of Reporter’s Record. In addition to the responsibility imposed on the trial court in Rule 35.3(c), when the reporter’s responsibility to prepare, certify and timely file the reporter’s record arises under Rule 35.3(b), the trial court must direct the official or deputy reporter to immediately commence the preparation of the reporter’s record. The trial court must arrange for a substitute reporter, if necessary.

(2) Extension of Time. The appellate court may grant an extension of time to file a record under Rule 35.3(c); however, the extension or extensions granted must not exceed 30 days cumulatively, absent extraordinary circumstances.

(3) Restriction on Preparation Inapplicable. Section 13.003 of the Civil Practice & Remedies Code does not apply to an appeal from a parental termination or child protection case or an order certifying a child to stand trial as an adult.

(c) Remand for New Trial. If the judgment of the appellate court reverses and remands a parental termination or child protection case for a new trial, the judgment must instruct the trial court to commence the new trial no later than 180 days after the mandate is issued by the appellate court.

■ COMMENT TO 2023 CHANGE

Rule 28.4 is amended to implement Texas Family Code §56.01(h-1).

RULE 29. ORDERS PENDING INTERLOCUTORY APPEAL IN CIVIL CASES

RULE 29.1. EFFECT OF APPEAL

Perfecting an appeal from an order granting interlocutory relief does not suspend the order appealed from unless:

- (a) the order is superseded in accordance with 29.2; or
- (b) the appellant is entitled to supersede the order without security by filing a notice of appeal.

RULE 29.2. SECURITY

The trial court may permit an order granting interlocutory relief to be superseded pending an appeal from the order, in which event the appellant may supersede the order in accordance with Rule 24. If the trial court refuses to permit the appellant to supersede the order, the appellant may move the appellate court to review that decision for abuse of discretion.

RULE 29.3. TEMPORARY ORDERS OF APPELLATE COURT

When an appeal from an interlocutory order is perfected, the appellate court may make any temporary orders necessary to preserve the parties’ rights until disposition of the appeal and may require appropriate security. But the appellate court must not suspend the trial court’s order if the appellant’s rights would be adequately protected by supersedeas or another order made under Rule 24.

RULE 29.4. ENFORCEMENT OF TEMPORARY ORDERS

While an appeal from an interlocutory order is pending, only the appellate court in which the appeal is pending may enforce the order. But the appellate court may refer any enforcement proceeding to the trial court with instructions to:

- (a) hear evidence and grant appropriate relief; or
- (b) make findings and recommendations and report them to the appellate court.

IN TRIAL COURT

While an appeal from an interlocutory order is pending, the trial court retains jurisdiction of the case and unless prohibited by statute may make further orders, including one dissolving the order complained of on appeal. If permitted by law, the trial court may proceed with a trial on the merits. But the court must not make an order that:

- (a) is inconsistent with any appellate court temporary order; or
- (b) interferes with or impairs the jurisdiction of the appellate court or effectiveness of any relief sought or that may be granted on appeal.

RULE 29.6. REVIEW OF FURTHER ORDERS

(a) Motion to Review Further Orders. While an appeal from an interlocutory order is pending, on a party's motion or on appellate court's own initiative, the appellate court may review the following:

- (1) a further appealable interlocutory order concerning the same subject matter; and
  - (2) any interlocutory order that interferes with or impairs the effectiveness of the relief sought or that may be granted on appeal.
- (b) Record. The party filing the motion may rely on the original record or may file a supplemental record with the motion.

RULE 30. RESTRICTED APPEAL TO COURT OF APPEALS IN CIVIL CASES

A party who did not participate—either in person or through counsel—in the hearing that resulted in the judgment complained of and who did not timely file a postjudgment motion or request for findings of fact and conclusions of law, or a notice of appeal within the time permitted by Rule 26.1(a), may file a notice of appeal within the time permitted by Rule 26.1(c). Restricted appeals replace writ of error appeals to the court of appeals. Statutes pertaining to writ of error appeals to the court of appeals apply equally to restricted appeals.

RULE 31. APPEALS IN HABEAS CORPUS, BAIL, AND EXTRADITION PROCEEDINGS IN CRIMINAL CASES

RULE 31.1. FILING THE RECORD AND BRIEFS

When written notice of appeal from a judgment or order in a habeas corpus or bail proceeding is filed, the trial court clerk must prepare and certify the clerk's record and, if the appellant requests, the court reporter must prepare and certify a reporter's record. The clerk must send the clerk's record and the court reporter must send the reporter's record to the appellate court within 15 days after the notice of appeal is filed. On reasonable explanation, the appellate court may shorten or extend the time to file the records.

(a) For an appeal from a habeas corpus proceeding challenging a conviction or an order placing the defendant on community supervision—but not challenging any particular condition of community supervision—the appellate court should use the same briefing rules, deadlines, and schedule that apply to direct appeals from criminal cases. On motion of any party, or on its own initiative, the appellate court may impose a more expedited timeline or submit the case without briefing, if necessary to do substantial justice to the parties.

(b) For an appeal from a bail proceeding or any other habeas corpus proceeding, including one that challenges a particular condition of community supervision, the court will—if it desires briefs—set the time for filing briefs.

INTERLOCUTORY APPEAL OF BAIL

Appellate courts do not have jurisdiction to consider an interlocutory appeal of a pretrial motion for bond reduction.

Ragston v. State, 424 S.W.3d 49 (Tex. Crim. App. 2014).

RULE 31.2. SUBMISSION; HEARING

The applicant need not personally appear. The appellate court will not review any incidental question that might have arisen on the hearing of the application before the trial court. The sole purpose of the appeal is to do substantial justice to the parties.

(a) In an appeal from a habeas corpus proceeding challenging a conviction or an order placing the defendant on community supervision—but not challenging a particular condition of community supervision—the appellate court should use the same submission and hearing schedules that apply to direct appeals from criminal cases. On motion of any party, or on its own initiative, the appellate court may impose a more expedited timeline or submit the case without briefing, if necessary to do substantial justice to the parties.

(b) An appeal in any other habeas corpus or bail proceeding, including a challenge to a particular condition of community supervision, shall be submitted and heard at the earliest practicable time.

RULE 31.3. ORDERS ON APPEAL

The appellate court will render whatever judgment and make whatever orders the law and the nature of the case require. The court may make an appropriate order relating to costs, whether allowing costs and fixing the amount, or allowing no costs.

RULE 31.4. STAY OF MANDATE

(a) When Motion for Stay Required. Despite Rule 18 or any other of these rules, in the following circumstances a party who in good faith intends to seek discretionary review must—within 15 days after the court of appeals renders judgment—file with the court of appeals clerk a motion for stay of mandate, to which is appended the party's petition for discretionary review showing reasons why the Court of Criminal Appeals should review the appellate court judgment:

- (1) when a court of appeals affirms the judgment of the trial court in an extradition matter and thereby sanctions a defendant's extradition; or
  - (2) when a court of appeals reverses the trial court's judgment in a bail matter—including bail pending appeal under Code of Criminal Procedure article 44.04(g)—and thereby grants or reduces the amount of bail.
- (b) Determination of the Motion. The clerk must promptly submit the motion and appendix to the court of appeals, or to one or more judges as the court deems appropriate, for immediate consideration and determination.

(1) If the motion for stay is granted, the clerk will immediately forward the petition for discretionary review to the clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals.

(2) If the motion is denied, the clerk will issue a mandate in accordance with the court of appeals' judgment.

(c) Denial of Stay. If the motion for stay is denied under 31.4(b)(2), the losing party may then present the motion and appendix to the clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals, who will promptly submit them to the Court, or to one or more judges as the Court deems appropriate, for immediate consideration and determination. The Court of Criminal Appeals may deny the motion or stay or recall the mandate. If the mandate is stayed or recalled, the clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals will file the petition for discretionary review and process the case in accordance with Rule 68.7.

RULE 31.5. JUDGMENT CONCLUSIVE

The court of appeals' judgment is final and conclusive if the Court of Criminal Appeals does not grant discretionary review. If the Court of Criminal Appeals grants discretionary review, that court's judgment is final and conclusive. In either case, no further application in the same case can be made for the writ unless the law provides otherwise.

RULE 31.6. DEFENDANT DETAINED BY OTHER THAN OFFICER

If the defendant is held by a person other than an officer, the sheriff receiving the appellate court mandate so ordering must immediately cause the defendant to be discharged, for which discharge the mandate is sufficient authority.

RULE 31.7. JUDGMENT TO BE CERTIFIED

The appellate court clerk will certify the court's judgment to the officer holding the defendant in custody or, if the defendant is held by a person other than an officer, to the appropriate sheriff.

RULE 31.8. EXPEDITED APPEAL BY THE STATE OF AN ORDER GRANTING BAIL

[Editor's note: New Rule 31.8 has received preliminary approval from the Texas Supreme Court and Court of Criminal Appeals, effective Sept. 1, 2025, to effectuate Act of May 29, 2025, 89th Leg., R.S., ch. 339 (SB 9). The Courts noted, however, that "it may later be changed in response to public comments," requested by Dec. 1, 2025.]

(a) Application. This rule applies to an appeal by the State of a magistrate's order granting bail, in an amount considered insufficient by the prosecuting attorney, to a defendant who:

(1) is charged with an offense under any of the following sections of the Penal Code:

- (A) section 19.02 (murder);
- (B) section 19.03 (capital murder);
- (C) section 22.02 (aggravated assault) if:
  - (i) the offense was committed under section 22.02(a)(1); or
  - (ii) the defendant used a firearm, club, knife, or explosive weapon, as those terms are defined in section 46.01 of the Penal Code, during the commission of the assault;
- (D) section 20.04 (aggravated kidnapping);
- (E) section 29.03 (aggravated robbery);
- (F) section 22.021 (aggravated sexual assault);
- (G) section 21.11 (indecentcy with a child);
- (H) section 20A.02 (trafficking of persons); or
- (I) section 20A.03 (continuous trafficking of persons); or

(2) is charged with an offense punishable as a felony while the defendant was released on bail for an offense punishable as a felony at the time the instant offense was committed.

(b) State's Notice of Appeal.

(1) Contents. The State's notice of appeal must comply with Code of Criminal Procedure Article 44.01 and expressly state that the appeal is an expedited appeal under Articles 44.01(a)(7), (f-1), and (f-2) and this rule.

(2) Time and Where to File. Within 10 days after an order is signed granting bail in an amount considered insufficient by the prosecuting attorney, the State must file the notice of appeal with the district clerk.

(3) Service of Notice and Rule. The State must immediately serve on the defendant the notice of appeal and a copy of this rule.

(c) Appellate Record.

(1) State Duties. The State must file with its notice of appeal a bookmarked appendix containing a certified or sworn copy of:

- (A) the order granting bail in an amount considered insufficient by the prosecuting attorney, bail findings, bail conditions, and any supervision order;
- (B) any reporter's record from a bail hearing resulting in the order granting bail in an amount considered insufficient by the prosecuting attorney, including any exhibits; and
- (C) every document that was filed with or presented to the magistrate making the bail decision, including as applicable:

- (i) the charging documents;
- (ii) the risk assessment;
- (iii) the mental health assessment under Code of Criminal Procedure Article 16.22;
- (iv) the arraignment forms;

[Editor's note: There is no (c)(1)(v) in the Rule at its preliminary approval stage.]

- (vi) the indigency affidavit;
- (vii) the magistrate's orders for emergency protection or other protective orders in effect; and
- (viii) the pretrial supervision documents, including documents related to violations.

(2) Supplementation Permitted. The defendant may supplement the State's record with a certified or sworn copy of any additional material filed with or presented to the magistrate that the State failed to provide.

(d) Reporter's Record. The magistrate must ensure that any reporter's record from a bail hearing is prepared within 5 days of the State's requesting the record and arranging for payment.

(e) Further Bail Decisions. While the appeal is pending, the State must immediately notify the court of appeals and supplement the record if any subsequent action has been taken on the bail order.

(f) Briefing on Appeal.

(1) Form and Length. Briefs need not comply with Rule 38 and may be in the form of a motion or letter. A brief must not exceed 3,000 words.

(2) No Extensions. No extensions of time will be granted.

(3) State's Brief. The State's brief must include the identity of parties and counsel, specify the reasons it considers the bail amount insufficient, and be supported by citations to authorities and to the record. The State's brief must also include the State's requested relief on appeal, including the bail amount the prosecuting attorney considers sufficient. The State must file a brief within 5 days after filing the notice of appeal.

(4) Defendant's Brief. The defendant's brief, if any, should respond to the State's brief. The defendant's brief must be filed within 5 days after the State's brief is filed.

(g) Representation on Appeal. The defendant's trial counsel, if any, is authorized to respond to the State's appeal.

(h) Order by the Court of Appeals.

(1) Review and Time. The court of appeals must conduct a de novo review of all issues presented, expedite the appeal, and issue an order within 20 days after the date the appeal is filed.

(2) Types of Orders. The court of appeals may:

(A) affirm the bail amount set by the magistrate;

(B) modify the bail amount set by the magistrate; or

(C) reject the bail amount set by the magistrate and remand the case to the magistrate, with or without guidance, for modification of the bail amount.

(3) Opinion Not Required. The court of appeals may hand down a written opinion but is not required to do so.

(i) Implementation of Modified Bail Amount. If the court of appeals modifies the bail amount, the court of appeals must direct the magistrate to certify the bail form on the court of appeals' behalf, update any reporting systems, and submit any required forms by the relevant deadlines.

■ COMMENT TO 2025 CHANGE

New Rule 31.8 is added to implement the amendments to Article 44.01 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

RULE 32. DOCKETING STATEMENT

RULE 32.1. CIVIL CASES

Promptly upon filing the notice of appeal in a civil case, the appellant must complete and file in the appellate court the [a] [d] Docketing [s] Statement approved by the Office of Court Administration or another document that includes the same information. [that includes the following information:]

[(a)(1) if the appellant filing the statement has counsel, the name of that appellant and the name, address, telephone number, fax number, if any, and State Bar of Texas identification number of the appellant's lead counsel; or]

[(2) if the appellant filing the statement is not represented by an attorney, that party's name, address, telephone number, and fax number, if any;]

[(b) the date the notice of appeal was filed in the trial court and, if mailed to the trial court clerk, the date of mailing;]

[(c) the trial court's name and county, the name of the judge who tried the case, and the date the judgment or order appealed from was signed;]

[(d) the date of filing of any motion for new trial, motion to modify the judgment, request for findings of fact, motion to reinstate, or other filing that affects the time for perfecting the appeal;]

[(e) the names of all other parties to the trial court's judgment or the order appealed from, and:]

[(1) if represented by counsel, their lead counsel's names, addresses, telephone numbers, and fax numbers, if any;]

[(2) if not represented by counsel, the name, address, and telephone number of the party, or a statement that the appellant diligently inquired but could not discover that information;]

[(f) the general nature of the case—for example, personal injury, breach of contract, or temporary injunction;]

[(g) whether the appeal's submission should be given priority, whether the appeal is an accelerated one under Rule 28.1 or another rule or statute, and whether it is a parental termination or child protection case or an appeal from an order certifying a child to stand trial as an adult, as defined in Rule 28.4;]

[(h) whether the appellant has requested or will request a reporter's record, and whether the trial was electronically recorded;]

[(i) the name, mailing address, telephone number, fax number, if any, email address, and Certified Shorthand Reporter number of each court reporter responsible for preparing the reporter's record;]

[(j) whether the appellant intends to seek temporary or ancillary relief while the appeal is pending;]

[(k) if the appellant filed a Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs in the trial court:]

[(1) the date that the Statement was filed;]

[(2) the date of filing of any motion challenging the Statement;]

[(3) the date of any hearing on the appellant's ability to afford costs; and]

[(4) if the trial court signed an order under Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 145, the court's findings regarding the appellant's ability to afford costs and the date that the order was signed;]

[(l) whether the appellant has filed or will file a supersedeas bond; and]

[(m) any other information the appellate court requires.]

Amended effective Sept. 1, 2024.

■ COMMENT TO 2024 CHANGE

Rule 32.1 is amended to remove the list of requirements of what information must be included in the docketing statement in favor of a form approved by the Office of Court Administration.

RULE 32.2. CRIMINAL CASES

Upon perfecting the appeal in a criminal case, the appellant must file in the appellate court a docketing statement that includes the following information:

(a)(1) if the appellant has counsel, the name of the appellant and the name, address, telephone number, fax number, if any, and State Bar of Texas identification number of the appellant's counsel, and whether the counsel is appointed or retained; or

(2) if the appellant is not represented by an attorney, that party's name, address, telephone number, and fax number, if any;

(b) the date the notice of appeal was filed in the trial court and, if mailed to the trial court clerk, the date of mailing;

(c) the trial court's name and county, and the name of the judge who tried the case;

(d) the date the trial court imposed or suspended sentence in open court, or the date the judgment or order appealed from was signed;

- (e) the date of filing any motion for new trial, motion in arrest of judgment, or any other filing that affects the time for perfecting the appeal;
- (f) the offense charged and the date of the offense;
- (g) the defendant's plea;
- (h) whether the trial was jury or nonjury;
- (i) the punishment assessed;
- (j) whether the appeal is from a pretrial order;
- (k) whether the appeal involves the validity of a statute, ordinance, or rule;
- (l) whether a reporter's record has been or will be requested, and whether the trial was electronically recorded;
- (m) the name, mailing address, telephone number, fax number (if any), email address, and Certified Shorthand Reporter number of each court reporter responsible for preparing the reporter's record;
- (n)(1) the dates of filing of any motion and affidavit of indigence;
  - (2) the date of any hearing;
  - (3) the date of any order; and
  - (4) whether the motion was granted or denied; and
- (o) any other information the appellate court requires.

RULE 32.3. SUPPLEMENTAL STATEMENTS

Any party may file a statement supplementing or correcting the docketing statement.

RULE 32.4. PURPOSE OF STATEMENT

The docketing statement is for administrative purposes and does not affect the appellate court's jurisdiction.

RULE 33. PRESERVATION OF APPELLATE COMPLAINTS

RULE 33.1. PRESERVATION; HOW SHOWN

(a) In General. As a prerequisite to presenting a complaint for appellate review, the record must show that:

- (1) the complaint was made to the trial court by a timely request, objection, or motion that:
  - (A) stated the grounds for the ruling that the complaining party sought from the trial court with sufficient specificity to make the trial court aware of the complaint, unless the specific grounds were apparent from the context; and
  - (B) complied with the requirements of the Texas Rules of Evidence or the Texas Rules of Civil or Appellate Procedure; and
- (2) the trial court:
  - (A) ruled on the request, objection, or motion, either expressly or implicitly; or
  - (B) refused to rule on the request, objection, or motion, and the complaining party objected to the refusal.
- (b) Ruling by Operation of Law. In a civil case, the overruling by operation of law of a motion for new trial or a motion to modify the judgment preserves for appellate review a complaint properly made in the motion, unless taking evidence was necessary to properly present the complaint in the trial court.
- (c) Formal Exception and Separate Order not Required. Neither a formal exception to a trial court ruling or order nor a signed, separate order is required to preserve a complaint for appeal.
- (d) Sufficiency of Evidence Complaints in Civil Nonjury Cases. In a civil nonjury case, a complaint regarding the legal or factual insufficiency of the evidence—including a complaint that the damages found by the court are excessive or inadequate, as distinguished from a complaint that the trial court erred in refusing to amend a fact finding or to make an additional finding of fact—may be made for the first time on appeal in the complaining party's brief.

RULE 33.2. FORMAL BILLS OF EXCEPTION

To complain on appeal about a matter that would not otherwise appear in the record, a party must file a formal bill of exception.

- (a) Form. No particular form of words is required in a bill of exception. But the objection to the court's ruling or action, and the ruling complained of, must be stated with sufficient specificity to make the trial court aware of the complaint.
- (b) Evidence. When the appellate record contains the evidence needed to explain a bill of exception, the bill itself need not repeat the evidence, and a party may attach and incorporate a transcription of the evidence certified by the court reporter.
- (c) Procedure.

(1) The complaining party must first present a formal bill of exception to the trial court.

(2) If the parties agree on the contents of the bill of exception, the judge must sign the bill and file it with the trial court clerk. If the parties do not agree on the contents of the bill, the trial judge must—after notice and hearing—do one of the following things:

(A) sign the bill of exception and file it with the trial court clerk if the judge finds that it is correct;

(B) suggest to the complaining party those corrections to the bill that the judge believes are necessary to make it accurately reflect the proceedings in the trial court, and if the party agrees to the corrections, have the corrections made, sign the bill, and file it with the trial court clerk; or

(C) if the complaining party will not agree to the corrections suggested by the judge, return the bill to the complaining party with the judge's refusal written on it, and prepare, sign, and file with the trial court clerk such bill as will, in the judge's opinion, accurately reflect the proceedings in the trial court.

(3) If the complaining party is dissatisfied with the bill of exception filed by the judge under (2)(C), the party may file with the trial court clerk the bill that was rejected by the judge. That party must also file the affidavits of at least three people who observed the matter to which the bill of exception is addressed. The affidavits must attest to the correctness of the bill as presented by the party. The matters contained in that bill of exception may be controverted and maintained by additional affidavits filed by any party within ten days after the filing of that bill. The truth of the bill of exception will be determined by the appellate court.

(d) Conflict. If a formal bill of exception conflicts with the reporter's record, the bill controls.

(e) Time to File.

(1) Civil cases. In a civil case, a formal bill of exception must be filed no later than 30 days after the filing party's notice of appeal is filed.

(2) Criminal Cases. In a criminal case, a formal bill of exception must be filed:

- (A) no later than 60 days after the trial court pronounces or suspends sentence in open court; or
- (B) if a motion for new trial has been timely filed, no later than 90 days after the trial court pronounces or suspends sentence in open court.

(3) Extension of time. The appellate court may extend the time to file a formal bill of exception if, within 15 days after the deadline for filing the bill, the party files in the appellate court a motion complying with Rule 10.5(b).

(f) Inclusion in clerk's record. When filed, a formal bill of exception should be included in the appellate record.

RULE 34. APPELLATE RECORD

RULE 34.1 CONTENTS

The appellate record consists of the clerk's record and, if necessary to the appeal, the reporter's record. Even if more than one notice of appeal is filed, there should be only one appellate record in a case.

RULE 34.2. AGREED RECORD

By written stipulation filed with the trial court clerk, the parties may agree on the contents of the appellate record. An agreed record will be presumed to contain all evidence and filings relevant to the appeal. To request matter to be included in the agreed record, the parties must comply with the procedures in Rules 34.5 and 34.6.

RULE 34.3. AGREED STATEMENT OF THE CASE

In lieu of a reporter's record, the parties may agree on a brief statement of the case. The statement must be filed with the trial court clerk and included in the appellate record.

RULE 34.4. FORM

The Supreme Court and Court of Criminal Appeals will prescribe the form of the appellate record.

RULE 34.5. CLERK'S RECORD

(a) Contents. Unless the parties designate the filings in the appellate record by agreement under Rule 34.2, the record must include copies of the following:

- (1) in civil cases, all pleadings on which the trial was held;
- (2) in criminal cases, the indictment or information, any special plea or defense motion that was presented to the court and overruled, any written waiver, any written stipulation, and, in cases in which a plea of guilty or nolo contendere has been entered, any documents executed for the plea;
- (3) the court's docket sheet;
- (4) the court's charge and the jury's verdict, or the court's findings of fact and conclusions of law;
- (5) the court's judgment or other order that is being appealed;
- (6) any request for findings of fact and conclusions of law, any post-judgment motion, and the court's order on the motion;
- (7) the notice of appeal;
- (8) any formal bill of exception;
- (9) any request for a reporter's record, including any statement of points or issues under Rule 34.6(c);
- (10) any request for preparation of the clerk's record;
- (11) in civil cases, a certified bill of costs, including the cost of preparing the clerk's record, showing credits for payments made;

- (12) in criminal cases, the trial court's certification of the defendant's right of appeal under Rule 25.2;
- (13) in civil cases, any supersedeas bond or certificate of cash deposit in lieu of a bond; and
- (14) subject to (b), any filing that a party designates to have included in the record.

(b) Request for Additional Items.

(1) Time for Request. At any time before the clerk's record is prepared, any party may file with the trial court clerk a written designation specifying items to be included in the record.

(2) Request Must Be Specific. A party requesting that an item be included in the clerk's record must specifically describe the item so that the clerk can readily identify it. The clerk will disregard a general designation, such as one for "all papers filed in the case."

(3) Requesting Unnecessary Items. In a civil case, if a party requests that more items than necessary be included in the clerk's record or any supplement, the appellate court may—regardless of the appeal's outcome—require that party to pay the costs for the preparation of the unnecessary portion.

(4) Failure to Timely Request. An appellate court must not refuse to file the clerk's record or a supplemental clerk's record because of a failure to timely request items to be included in the clerk's record.

(c) Supplementation.

(1) If a relevant item has been omitted from the clerk's record, the trial court, the appellate court, or any party may by letter direct the trial court clerk to prepare, certify, and file in the appellate court a supplement containing the omitted item.

(2) If the appellate court in a criminal case orders the trial court to prepare and file findings of fact and conclusions of law as required by law, or certification of the defendant's right of appeal as required by these rules, the trial court clerk must prepare, certify, and file in the appellate court a supplemental clerk's record containing those findings and conclusions.

(3) Any supplemental clerk's record will be part of the appellate record.

(d) Defects or Inaccuracies. If the clerk's record is defective or inaccurate, the appellate clerk must inform the trial court clerk of the defect or inaccuracy and instruct the clerk to make the correction.

(e) Clerk's Record Lost or Destroyed. If a filing designated for inclusion in the clerk's record has been lost or destroyed, the parties may, by written stipulation, deliver a copy of that item to the trial court clerk for inclusion in the clerk's record or a supplement. If the parties cannot agree, the trial court must—on any party's motion or at the appellate court's request—determine what constitutes an accurate copy of the missing item and order it to be included in the clerk's record or a supplement.

(f) Original Documents. If the trial court determines that original documents filed with the trial court clerk should be inspected by the appellate court or sent to that court in lieu of copies, the trial court must make an order for the safekeeping, transportation, and return of those original documents. The order must list the original documents and briefly describe them. All the documents must be arranged in their listed sequence and bound firmly together. On any party's motion or its own initiative, the appellate court may direct the trial court clerk to send it any original document.

(g) Additional Copies of Clerk's Record in Criminal Cases. In a criminal case, the clerk's record must be made in duplicate, and in a case in which the death penalty was assessed, in triplicate. The trial court clerk must retain the copy or copies for the parties to use with the court's permission.

(h) Clerk May Consult with Parties. The clerk may consult with the parties concerning the contents of the clerk's record.

RULE 34.5A APPENDIX IN LIEU OF CLERK'S RECORD IN A CIVIL CASE

(a) Notice of Election. An appellant in a civil case may file a notice of election with the trial court and the court of appeals stating that the appellant will file an appendix that replaces the clerk's record for the appeal. The notice of election must be filed within 10 days after the date the appellant files a notice of appeal.

(b) Time to File Original Appendix. The appellant filing a notice of election under (a) must file the appendix at the same time as the appellant's brief. Except by order of the court under Rule 38.6(d), the brief and appendix must be filed within 30 days—or 20 days in an accelerated appeal—after the later of:

- (1) the date the appellant filed the notice of election under (a); or
- (2) the date the reporter's record, if any, is filed with the court of appeals.

(c) Supplemental or Joint Appendices. If the appellant files an appendix under (b), any other party may file a supplemental appendix at the same time as that party's brief. The parties may agree under Rule 6.6 to file a joint appendix.

(d) Court-Directed Supplement. The court of appeals may direct the appellant to file a supplemental appendix containing items described by the court of appeals. If the appellant fails to supplement as requested, and the record fails to establish the court of appeals' jurisdiction, the court of appeals may dismiss the appeal. In cases where the court of appeals has jurisdiction, and the appellant fails to supplement as requested, the court of appeals may presume that the missing items support the trial court's judgment.

(e) Contents of Original Appendix. The appendix filed under (b) must contain a copy of:

- (1) each document required by Rule 34.5(a) for a civil case; and
- (2) any other item referenced in the appellant's brief, except as provided by (f).

(f) Contents of All Appendices. When available, the contents of an appendix filed under this rule must be file-stamped. An appendix must not contain a document that was not filed with the trial court, except:

- (1) if the document was issued by the trial court; or
- (2) by agreement of the parties under Rule 6.6.

(g) Filing Requirements for All Appendices. An appendix filed under this rule must be filed separately from any other document, and the pages must be consecutively numbered. An appendix must meet the applicable filing requirements of Rules 9.4(h), 9.8, 9.9, and section 1.1 of Appendix C to these rules. A nonconforming appendix is subject to court action under Rule 9.4(k). A conforming appendix becomes a part of the appellate record under Rule 34.1.

(h) No Clerk's Record. A court clerk must not prepare or file a clerk's record or assess a fee for preparing a clerk's record if a party files an appendix under this rule.

Enacted effective Jan. 1, 2024.

COMMENT TO 2024 CHANGE

New Rule 34.5a is added to implement Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code §51.018. It allows the parties in a civil case to file appendices in lieu of a clerk's record and applies only when a party files a notice of appeal on or after January 1, 2024.

RULE 34.6. REPORTER'S RECORD

(a) Contents.

(1) Stenographic Recording. If the proceedings were stenographically recorded, the reporter's record consists of the court reporter's transcription of so much of the proceedings, and any of the exhibits, that the parties to the appeal designate.

(2) Electronic Recording. If the proceedings were electronically recorded, the reporter's record consists of certified copies of all tapes or other audio-storage devices on which the proceedings were recorded, any of the exhibits that the parties to the appeal designate, and certified copies of the logs prepared by the court recorder under Rule 13.2.

(b) Request for Preparation.

(1) Request to Court Reporter. At or before the time for perfecting the appeal, the appellant must request in writing that the official reporter prepare the reporter's record. The request must designate the exhibits to be included. A request to the court reporter—but not the court recorder—must also designate the portions of the proceedings to be included.

(2) Filing. The appellant must file a copy of the request with the trial court clerk.

(3) Failure to Timely Request. An appellate court must not refuse to file a reporter's record or a supplemental reporter's record because of a failure to timely request it.

(c) Partial Reporter's Record.

(1) Effect on Appellate Points or Issues. If the appellant requests a partial reporter's record, the appellant must include in the request a statement of the points or issues to be presented on appeal and will then be limited to those points or issues.

(2) Other Parties May Designate Additions. Any other party may designate additional exhibits and portions of the testimony to be included in the reporter's record.

(3) Costs; Requesting Unnecessary Matter. Additions requested by another party must be included in the reporter's record at the appellant's cost. But if the trial court finds that all or part of the designated additions are unnecessary to the appeal, the trial court may order the other party to pay the costs for the preparation of the unnecessary additions. This paragraph does not affect the appellate court's power to tax costs differently.

(4) Presumptions. The appellate court must presume that the partial reporter's record designated by the parties constitutes the entire record for purposes of reviewing the stated points or issues. This presumption applies even if the statement includes a point or issue complaining of the legal or factual insufficiency of the evidence to support a specific factual finding identified in that point or issue.

(5) Criminal Cases. In a criminal case, if the statement contains a point complaining that the evidence is insufficient to support a finding of guilt, the record must include all the evidence admitted at the trial on the issue of guilt or innocence and punishment.

(d) Supplementation. If anything relevant is omitted from the reporter's record, the trial court, the appellate court, or any party may by letter direct the official court reporter to prepare, certify, and file in the appellate court a supplemental reporter's record containing the omitted items. Any supplemental reporter's record is part of the appellate record.

(e) Inaccuracies in the Reporter's Record.

(1) Correction of Inaccuracies by Agreement. The parties may agree to correct an inaccuracy in the reporter's record, including an exhibit, without the court reporter's recertification.

(2) Correction of Inaccuracies by Trial Court. If the parties cannot agree on whether or how to correct the reporter's record so that the text accurately discloses what occurred in the trial court and the exhibits are accurate, the trial court must—after notice and hearing—settle the dispute. If the court finds any inaccuracy, it must order the court reporter to conform the reporter's record (including text and any exhibits) to what occurred in the trial court, and to file certified corrections in the appellate court.

(3) Correction after Filing in Appellate Court. If the dispute arises after the reporter's record has been filed in the appellate court, that court may submit the dispute to the trial court for resolution. The trial court must then proceed as under subparagraph (e)(2).

(f) Reporter's Record Lost or Destroyed. An appellant is entitled to a new trial under the following circumstances:

- (1) if the appellant has timely requested a reporter's record;
- (2) if, without the appellant's fault, a significant exhibit or a significant portion of the court reporter's notes and records has been lost or destroyed or—if the proceedings were electronically recorded—a significant portion of the recording has been lost or destroyed or is inaudible;
- (3) if the lost, destroyed, or inaudible portion of the reporter's record, or the lost or destroyed exhibit, is necessary to the appeal's resolution; and
- (4) if the lost, destroyed or inaudible portion of the reporter's record cannot be replaced by agreement of the parties, or the lost or destroyed exhibit cannot be replaced either by agreement of the parties or with a copy determined by the trial court to accurately duplicate with reasonable certainty the original exhibit.

(g) Original Exhibits.

(1) Reporter May Use in Preparing Reporter's Record. At the court reporter's request, the trial court clerk must give all original exhibits to the reporter for use in preparing the reporter's record. Unless ordered to include original exhibits in the reporter's record, the court reporter must return the original exhibits to the clerk after copying them for inclusion in the reporter's record. If someone other than the trial court clerk possesses an original exhibit, either the trial court or the appellate court may order that person to deliver the exhibit to the trial court clerk.

(2) Use of Original Exhibits by Appellate Court. If the trial court determines that original exhibits should be inspected by the appellate court or sent to that court in lieu of copies, the trial court must make an order for the safekeeping, transportation, and return of those exhibits. The order must list the exhibits and briefly describe them. To the extent practicable, all the exhibits must be arranged in their listed order and bound firmly together before being sent to the appellate clerk. On any party's motion or its own initiative, the appellate court may direct the trial court clerk to send it any original exhibit.

(h) Additional Copies of Reporter's Record in Criminal Cases. In a criminal case in which a party requests a reporter's record, the court reporter must prepare a duplicate of the reporter's record and file it with the trial court clerk. In a case where the death penalty was assessed, the court reporter must prepare two duplicates of the reporter's record.

(i) Supreme Court and Court of Criminal Appeals May Set Fee. From time to time, the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals may set the fee that the court reporters may charge for preparing the reporter's record.

COMMENT TO 1997 CHANGE

Former Rules 50, 51 and 53 are merged. Clerk's record is substituted for transcript, and reporter's record is substituted for statement of facts throughout the rules. In subdivision 34.2, the requisites of an agreed record are more clearly stated. Former Rule 50(d), regarding the burden to file a complete record, is repealed.

REPORTER'S FAILURE NOT "LOST OR DESTROYED"

When a court reporter fails or refuses to comply with deadlines for filing the reporter's record, the appellate record is not "lost or destroyed" for purposes of Rule 34.6(f). Johnson v. State, 151 S.W.3d 193 (Tex. Crim. App. 2004). Rule 34.6(f) offers a remedy when a record was created and later lost or destroyed but no remedy when a record was never created in the first place. Rule 34.6(f) does not contemplate a situation in which a record was never created. Int'l Fidelity Ins. Co. v. State, 586 S.W.3d 9 (Tex. Crim. App. 2019). When the complaining party cannot show that the court reporter ever recorded the missing proceedings, he is not entitled to a new trial. If a defendant cannot show that a hearing was recorded, he cannot prove that the trial court abused its discretion in denying the defendant's motion for a new trial under Rule 34.6(f).

RECORDING BENCH CONFERENCES

A defendant must not only ask for bench conferences to be recorded but also object when they aren't and tell the court what's missing and why it's important. Ex parte Moore, 999 S.W.2d 385 (Tex. Crim. App. 1999); Valle v. State, 109 S.W.3d 500, 508 (Tex. Crim. App. 2003). To be timely, the objection has to come at a time when the trial court may remedy the omission. Walthall v. State, 594 S.W.2d 74 (Tex. Crim. App. 1980).

NO FEES FOR COPIES

Neither the Texas Rules of Appellate Procedure, nor chapter 52 of the Government Code, nor a court reporter's ethical duties authorize a court reporter to charge a district attorney's office when the State is not the appellant for the copy of the reporter's record filed with the trial court clerk pursuant to Rule 34.6(h). Op. Tex. Att'y Gen. KP-0163 (2017).

RULE 35. TIME TO FILE RECORD; RESPONSIBILITY FOR FILING RECORD

RULE 35.1. CIVIL CASES

The appellate record must be filed in the appellate court within 60 days after the judgment is signed, except as follows:

- (a) if Rule 26.1(a) applies, within 120 days after the judgment is signed;

- (b) if Rule 26.1(b) applies, within 10 days after the notice of appeal is filed; or
- (c) if Rule 26.1(c) applies, within 30 days after the notice of appeal is filed.

RULE 35.2. CRIMINAL CASES

The appellate record must be filed in the appellate court:

- (a) if a motion for new trial is not filed, within 60 days after the date the sentence is imposed or suspended in open court or the order appealed from is signed;
- (b) if a timely motion for new trial is filed and denied, within 120 days after the date the sentence is imposed or suspended in open court; or
- (c) if a motion for new trial is granted, within 60 days after the order granting the motion is signed.

RULE 35.3. RESPONSIBILITY FOR FILING RECORD

(a) Clerk's Record. Except when an appendix is filed under Rule 34.5a, [F]the trial court clerk is responsible for preparing, certifying, and timely filing the clerk's record if:

- (1) a notice of appeal has been filed, and in criminal proceedings, the trial court has certified the defendant's right of appeal, as required by Rule 25.2(d); and
- (2) the party responsible for paying for the preparation of the clerk's record has paid the clerk's fee, has made satisfactory arrangements with the clerk to pay the fee, or is entitled to appeal without paying the fee.

(b) Reporter's Record. The official or deputy reporter is responsible for preparing, certifying, and timely filing the reporter's record if:

- (1) a notice of appeal has been filed;
- (2) the appellant has requested that the reporter's record be prepared; and
- (3) the party responsible for paying for the preparation of the reporter's record has paid the reporter's fee, or has made satisfactory arrangements with the reporter to pay the fee, or is entitled to appeal without paying the fee.

(c) Courts to Ensure Record Timely Filed. The trial and appellate courts are jointly responsible for ensuring that the appellate record is timely filed. The appellate court may extend the deadline to file the record if requested by the clerk or reporter. Each extension must not exceed 30 days in an ordinary or restricted appeal, or 10 days in an accelerated appeal. The appellate court must allow the record to be filed late when the delay is not the appellant's fault, and may do so when the delay is the appellant's fault. The appellate court may enter any order necessary to ensure the timely filing of the appellate record.

RULE 36. AGENCY RECORD IN ADMINISTRATIVE APPEALS

RULE 36.1. SCOPE

This rule applies only to cases involving judicial review of state agency decisions in contested cases under the Administrative Procedure Act.

RULE 36.2. INCLUSION IN APPELLATE RECORD

The record of an agency proceeding filed in the trial court may be included in either the clerk's record or the reporter's record.

RULE 36.3. CORRECTING THE RECORD

(a) Correction by Agreement. At any stage of the proceeding, the parties may agree to correct an agency record filed under Section 2001.175(b) of the Government Code to ensure that the agency record accurately reflects the contested case proceedings before the agency. The court reporter need not recertify the agency record.

(b) Correction by Trial Court. If the parties cannot agree to a correction to the agency record, the appellate court must—on any party's motion or its own incentive—send the question to the trial court. After notice and hearing, the trial court must determine what constitutes an accurate copy of the agency record and order the agency to send an accurate copy to the clerk of the court in which the case is pending.

RULE 37. DUTIES OF THE APPELLATE CLERK ON RECEIVING THE NOTICE OF APPEAL AND RECORD

RULE 37.1. ON RECEIVING THE NOTICE OF APPEAL

If the appellate clerk determines that the notice of appeal or certification of defendant's right of appeal in a criminal case is defective, the clerk must notify the parties of the defect so that it can be remedied, if possible. If a proper notice of appeal or certification of a criminal defendant's right of appeal is not filed in the trial court within 30 days of the date of the clerk's notice, the clerk must refer the matter to the appellate court, which will make an appropriate order under this rule or Rule 34.5(c)(2).

RULE 37.2. ON RECEIVING THE RECORD

On receiving the clerk's record or the reporter's record, the appellate clerk must determine whether each complies with the Supreme Court's and Court of Criminal Appeals' order on preparation of the record. If so, the clerk must endorse on each the date of receipt, file it, and notify the parties of the filing and the date. If not, the clerk must endorse on the clerk's record or reporter's record—whichever is defective—the date of receipt and return it to the official responsible for filing it. The appellate court clerk must specify the defects and instruct the official to correct the defects and return the record to the appellate court by a specified date. In a criminal case, the record must not be posted on the Internet.

RULE 37.3. IF NO RECORD FILED

(a) Notice of Late Record.

(1) Civil Cases. If the clerk's record or reporter's record has not been timely filed, the appellate clerk must send notice to the official responsible for filing it, stating that the record is late and requesting that the record be filed within 30 days if an ordinary or restricted appeal, or 10 days if an accelerated appeal. The appellate clerk must send a copy of this notice to the parties and the trial court. If the clerk does not receive the record within the stated period, the clerk must refer the matter to the appellate court. The court must make whatever order is appropriate to avoid further delay and to preserve the parties' rights.

(2) Criminal Cases. If the clerk's record or reporter's record has not been timely filed, the appellate court clerk must refer the matter to the appellate court. The court must make whatever order is appropriate to avoid further delay and to preserve the parties' rights.

(b) If No Clerk's Record Filed Due to Appellant's Fault. If the trial court clerk failed to file the clerk's record because the appellant failed to pay or make arrangements to pay the clerk's fee for preparing the clerk's record, the appellate court may—on a party's motion or its own initiative—dismiss the appeal for want of prosecution unless the appellant was entitled to proceed without payment of costs. The court must give the appellant a reasonable opportunity to cure before dismissal.

(c) If No Reporter's Record Filed Due to Appellant's Fault. Under the following circumstances, and if the clerk's record has been filed, the appellate court may—after first giving the appellant notice and a reasonable opportunity to cure—consider and decide those issues or points that do not require a reporter's record for a decision. The court may do this if no reporter's record has been filed because:

- (1) the appellant failed to request a reporter's record; or
- (2)(A) appellant failed to pay or make arrangements to pay the reporter's fee to prepare the reporter's record; and
- (B) the appellant is not entitled to proceed without payment of costs.

RULE 38. REQUISITES OF BRIEFS

RULE 38.1. APPELLANT'S BRIEF

The appellant's brief must, under appropriate headings and in the order here indicated, contain the following:

(a) Identity of Parties and Counsel. The brief must give a complete list of all parties to the trial court's judgment or order appealed from, except as otherwise provided in Rule 9.8. The brief must also give a complete list of the names of all counsel appearing in the trial or appellate courts; their firm or office name at the time of the appearance; and, for counsel currently appearing, their mailing address, telephone number, and email address. If new counsel appears or if any counsel currently appearing changes their firm or office affiliation during the pendency of the appeal, lead counsel for the party must notify the clerk by filing a supplemental disclosure.

(b) Table of Contents. The brief must have a table of contents with references to the pages of the brief and, in civil cases, be bookmarked to assist in locating each item. The table of contents must indicate the subject matter of each issue or point, or group of issues or points.

(c) Index of Authorities. The brief must have an index of authorities arranged alphabetically and indicating the pages of the brief where the authorities are cited.

(d) Statement of the Case. The brief must state concisely the nature of the case (e.g., whether it is a suit for damages, on a note, or involving a murder prosecution), the course of proceedings, and the trial court's disposition of the case. The statement should be supported by record references, should seldom exceed one-half page, and should not discuss the facts.

(e) Any Statement Regarding Oral Argument. The brief may include a statement explaining why oral argument should or should not be permitted. Any such statement must not exceed one page and should address how the court's decisional process would, or would not, be aided by oral argument. As required by Rule 39.7, any party requesting oral argument must note that request on the front cover of the party's brief.

(f) Issues Presented. The brief must state concisely all issues or points presented for review. The statement of an issue or point will be treated as covering every subsidiary question that is fairly included.

(g) Statement of Facts. The brief must state concisely and without argument the facts pertinent to the issues or points presented. In a civil case, the court will accept as true the facts stated unless another party contradicts them. The statement must be supported by record references.

(h) Summary of the Argument. The brief must contain a succinct, clear, and accurate statement of the arguments made in the body of the brief. This summary must not merely repeat the issues or points presented for review.

(i) Argument. The brief must contain a clear and concise argument for the contentions made, with appropriate citations to authorities and to the record.

(j) Prayer. The brief must contain a short conclusion that clearly states the nature of the relief sought.

(k) Appendix in Civil Cases.

(1) Necessary Contents. The appendix must be bookmarked to assist in locating each item and, [U]unless voluminous or impracticable, [the appendix] must contain a copy of:

- (A) the trial court's judgment or other appealable order from which relief is sought;
- (B) the jury charge and verdict, if any, or the trial court's findings of fact and conclusions of law, if any; and
- (C) the text of any rule, regulation, ordinance, statute, constitutional provision, or other law (excluding case law) on which the argument is based, and the text of any contract or other document that is central to the argument.

(2) Optional Contents. The appendix may contain any other item pertinent to the issues or points presented for review, including copies or excerpts of relevant court opinions, laws, documents on which the suit was based, pleadings, excerpts from the reporter's record, and similar material. Items should not be included in the appendix to attempt to avoid the page limits for the brief.

Amended effective Dec. 1, 2024.

■ COMMENT TO 1997 CHANGE

Paragraph 38.1(e) [now 38.1(f)] specifically allows a party to either present issues or points of error.

■ COMMENT TO 2008 CHANGE

A party may choose to include a statement in the brief regarding oral argument. The optional statement does not count toward the briefing page limit.

RULE 38.2. APPELLEE'S BRIEF

(a) Form of Brief.

(1) An appellee's brief must conform to the requirements of Rule 38.1, except that:

- (A) the list of parties and counsel is not required unless necessary to supplement or correct the appellant's list;
- (B) the appellee's brief need not include a statement of the case, a statement of the issues presented, or a statement of facts, unless the appellee is dissatisfied with that portion of the appellant's brief; and
- (C) the appendix to the appellee's brief need not contain any item already contained in an appendix filed by the appellant.

(2) When practicable, the appellee's brief should respond to the appellant's issues or points in the order the appellant presented those issues or points.

(b) Cross-points.

(1) Judgment Notwithstanding the Verdict. When the trial court renders judgment notwithstanding the verdict on one or more questions, the appellee must bring forward by cross-point any issue or point that would have vitiated the verdict or that would have prevented an affirmance of the judgment if the trial court had rendered judgment on the verdict. Failure to bring forward by cross-point an issue or point that would vitiate the verdict or prevent an affirmance of the judgment waives that complaint. Included in this requirement is a point that:

(A) the verdict or one or more jury findings have insufficient evidentiary support or are against the overwhelming preponderance of the evidence as a matter of fact; or
(B) the verdict should be set aside because of improper argument of counsel.

(2) When Evidentiary Hearing Needed. The appellate court must remand a case to the trial court to take evidence if:

(A) the appellate court has sustained a point raised by the appellant; and
(B) the appellee raised a cross-point that requires the taking of additional evidence.

RULE 38.3. REPLY BRIEF

The appellant may file a reply brief addressing any matter in the appellee's brief. However, the appellate court may consider and decide the case before a reply brief is filed.

RULE 38.4. [REPEALED]

RULE 38.5. APPENDIX FOR CASES RECORDED ELECTRONICALLY

In cases where the proceedings were electronically recorded, the following rules apply:

(a) Appendix.

(1) In General. At or before the time a party's brief is due, the party must file one copy of an appendix containing a transcription of all portions of the recording that the party considers relevant to the appellate issues or points. Unless another party objects, the transcription will be presumed accurate.

(2) Repetition Not Required. A party's appendix need not repeat evidence included in any previously filed appendix.

(3) Form. The form of the appendix and transcription must conform to any specifications of the Supreme Court and Court of Criminal Appeals concerning the form of the reporter's record except that it need not have the reporter's certificate.

(4) Notice. At the time the appendix is filed, the party must give written notice of the filing to all parties to the trial court's judgment or order. The notice must specify, by referring to the index numbers in the court recorder's logs, those parts of the recording that are included in the appendix. The filing party need not serve a copy of the appendix but must make a copy available to all parties for inspection and copying.

(b) Presumptions. The same presumptions that apply to a partial reporter's record under Rule 34.6(c)(4) apply to the parties' appendixes. The appellate court need not review any part of the electronic recording.

(c) Supplemental Appendix. The appellate court may direct or allow a party to file a supplemental appendix containing a transcription of additional portions of the recording.

(d) Inability to Pay. A party who cannot pay the cost of an appendix must file the affidavit provided for by Rule 20. The party must also state in the affidavit or a supplemental affidavit that the party has neither the access to the equipment necessary nor the skill necessary to prepare the appendix. If a contest to the affidavit is not sustained by written order, the court recorder must transcribe or have transcribed those portions of the recording that the party designates and must file the transcription as that party's appendix, along with all exhibits.

(e) Inaccuracies.

(1) Correction by Agreement. The parties may agree to correct an inaccuracy in the transcription of the recording.

(2) Correction by Appellate or Trial Court. If the parties dispute whether an electronic recording or transcription accurately discloses what occurred in the trial court but cannot agree on corrections, the appellate court may:

(A) settle the dispute by reviewing the recording; or
(B) submit the dispute to the trial court, which must—after notice and hearing—settle the dispute and ensure that the recording or transcription is made to conform to what occurred in the trial court.

(f) Costs. The actual expense of preparing the appendixes or the amount prescribed for official reporters, whichever is less, is taxed as costs. The appellate court may disallow the cost of any portion of the appendixes that it considers surplusage or that does not conform to any specifications prescribed by the Supreme Court or Court of Criminal Appeals.

RULE 38.6. TIME TO FILE BRIEFS

(a) Appellant's Filing Date. Except in a habeas corpus or bail appeal, which is governed by Rule 31, or when an appendix is filed under Rule 34.5a, an appellant must file a brief within 30 days—20 days in an accelerated appeal—after the later of:

(1) the date the clerk's record was filed; or
(2) the date the reporter's record was filed.

(b) Appellee's Filing Date. The appellee's brief must be filed within 30 days—20 days in an accelerated appeal—after the date the appellant's brief was filed. In a civil case, if the appellant has not filed a brief as provided in this rule, an appellee may file a brief within 30 days—20 days in an accelerated appeal—after the date the appellant's brief was due.

(c) Filing Date for Reply Brief. A reply brief, if any, must be filed within 20 days after the date the appellee's brief was filed.

(d) Modifications of Filing Time. On motion complying with Rule 10.5(b), the appellate court may extend the time for filing a brief and may postpone submission of the case. A motion to extend the time to file a brief may be filed before or after the date the brief is due. The court may also, in the interests of justice, shorten the time for filing briefs and for submission of the case.

Amended effective Jan. 1, 2024.

RULE 38.7. AMENDMENT OR SUPPLEMENTATION
A brief may be amended or supplemented whenever justice requires, on whatever reasonable terms the court may prescribe.

RULE 38.8. FAILURE OF APPELLANT TO FILE BRIEF

(a) Civil Cases. If an appellant fails to timely file a brief, the appellate court may:

- (1) dismiss the appeal for want of prosecution, unless the appellant reasonably explains the failure and the appellee is not significantly injured by the appellant's failure to timely file a brief;
- (2) decline to dismiss the appeal and give further direction to the case as it considers proper; or
- (3) if an appellee's brief is filed, the court may regard that brief as correctly presenting the case and may affirm the trial court's judgment upon that brief without examining the record.

(b) Criminal Cases.

- (1) Effect. An appellant's failure to timely file a brief does not authorize either dismissal of the appeal or, except as provided in (4), consideration of the appeal without briefs.
- (2) Notice. If the appellant's brief is not timely filed, the appellate clerk must notify counsel for the parties and the trial court of that fact. If the appellate court does not receive a satisfactory response within ten days, the court must order the trial court to immediately conduct a hearing to determine whether the appellant desires to prosecute his appeal, whether the appellant is indigent, or, if not indigent, whether retained counsel has abandoned the appeal, and to make appropriate findings and recommendations.
- (3) Hearing. In accordance with (2), the trial court must conduct any necessary hearings, make appropriate findings and recommendations, and have a record of the proceedings prepared, which record—including any order and findings—must be sent to the appellate court.
- (4) Appellate Court Action. Based on the trial court's record, the appellate court may act appropriately to ensure that the appellant's rights are protected, including initiating contempt proceedings against appellant's counsel. If the trial court has found that the appellant no longer desires to prosecute the appeal, or that the appellant is not indigent but has not made the necessary arrangements for filing a brief, the appellate court may consider the appeal without briefs, as justice may require.

RULE 38.9. BRIEFING RULES TO BE CONSTRUED LIBERALLY

Because briefs are meant to acquaint the court with the issues in a case and to present argument that will enable the court to decide the case, substantial compliance with this rule is sufficient, subject to the following.

- (a) Formal Defects. If the court determines that this rule has been flagrantly violated, it may require a brief to be amended, supplemented, or redrawn. If another brief that does not comply with this rule is filed, the court may strike the brief, prohibit the party from filing another, and proceed as if the party had failed to file a brief.
- (b) Substantive Defects. If the court determines, either before or after submission, that the case has not been properly presented in the briefs, or that the law and authorities have not been properly cited in the briefs, the court may postpone submission, require additional briefing, and make any other order necessary for a satisfactory submission of the case.

RULE 39. ORAL ARGUMENT; DECISION WITHOUT ARGUMENT

RULE 39.1. RIGHT TO ORAL ARGUMENT

A party who has filed a brief and who has timely requested oral argument may argue the case to the court unless the court, after examining the briefs, decides that oral argument is unnecessary for any of the following reasons:

- (a) the appeal is frivolous;
- (b) the dispositive issue or issues have been authoritatively decided;
- (c) the facts and legal arguments are adequately presented in the briefs and record; or
- (d) the decisional process would not be significantly aided by oral arguments.

RULE 39.2. PURPOSE OF ARGUMENT

Oral argument should emphasize and clarify the written arguments in the briefs. Counsel should not merely read from prepared text. Counsel should assume that all members of the court have read the briefs before oral argument and counsel should be prepared to respond to questions. A party should not refer to or comment on matters not involved in or pertaining to what is in the record.

RULE 39.3. TIME ALLOWED

The court will set the time that will be allowed for argument. Counsel must complete argument in the time allotted and may continue after the expiration of the allotted time only with permission of the court. Counsel is not required to use all the allotted time. The appellant must be allowed to conclude the argument.

RULE 39.4. NUMBER OF COUNSEL

Generally, only one counsel should argue for each side. Except on leave of court, no more than two counsel on each side may argue. Only one counsel may argue in rebuttal.

RULE 39.5. ARGUMENT BY AMICUS

With leave of court obtained before the argument and with a party's consent, an amicus curiae may share allotted time with that party. Otherwise, counsel for amicus may not argue.

RULE 39.6. WHEN ONLY ONE PARTY FILES A BRIEF

If counsel for only one party has filed a brief, the court may allow that party to argue.

RULE 39.7. REQUEST AND WAIVER

A party desiring oral argument must note that request on the front cover of the party's brief. If the court sets the case for oral argument, then all parties that filed a brief are entitled to participate in the oral argument, even if a party did not request oral argument on the cover of the party's brief. The court may direct a party that has not requested argument to appear and argue.

RULE 39.8. CLERK'S NOTICE

The clerk must send to the parties—at least 21 days before the date the case is set for argument or submission without argument—a notice telling the parties:

- (a) whether the court will allow oral argument or will submit the case without argument;
- (b) the date of argument or submission without argument;
- (c) if argument is allowed [~~the time allotted for argument; and~~];

(1) the time allotted for argument; and
 (2) the location of the argument or instructions for joining the argument electronically, the court's designated contact information, and instructions for submitting exhibits; and
 (d) the names of the members of the panel to which the case will be argued or submitted, subject to change by the court. A party's failure to receive the notice does not prevent a case's argument or submission on the scheduled date. Once issued, the court may amend the notice at any time before the case is set for argument or submission. The 21-day requirement does not apply to amended notices.

Amended effective Sept. 1, 2024.

■ COMMENT TO 2024 CHANGE

Rule 39.8 is amended to clarify requirements for notices and to clarify the court's ability to amend notices.

RULE 40. ORDER OF DECISION

RULE 40.1. CIVIL CASES

The court of appeals may determine the order in which civil cases will be decided. But the following types of cases have precedence over all others:

- (a) a case given precedence by law;
- (b) an accelerated appeal; and
- (c) a case that the court determines should be given precedence in the interest of justice.

RULE 40.2. CRIMINAL CASES

In cases not otherwise given precedence by law, the court of appeals must hear and determine a criminal appeal at the earliest possible time, having due regard for the parties' rights and for the proper administration of justice.

RULE 41. PANEL AND EN BANC DECISION

RULE 41.1. DECISION BY PANEL

(a) Constitution of Panel. Unless a court of appeals with more than three justices votes to decide a case en banc, a case must be assigned for decision to a panel of the court consisting of three justices, although not every member of the panel must be present for argument. If the case is decided without argument, three justices must participate in the decision. A majority of the panel, which constitutes a quorum, must agree on the judgment. Except as otherwise provided in these rules, a panel's opinion constitutes the court's opinion, and the court must render a judgment in accordance with the panel opinion.
 (b) When Panel Cannot Agree on Judgment. After argument, if for any reason a member of the panel cannot participate in deciding a case, the case may be decided by the two remaining justices. If they cannot agree on a judgment, the chief justice of the court of appeals must:

- (1) designate another justice of the court to sit on the panel to consider the case;
- (2) request the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court to temporarily assign an eligible justice or judge to sit on the panel to consider the case; or
- (3) convene the court en banc to consider the case.

The reconstituted panel or the en banc court may order the case reargued.

(c) When Court Cannot Agree on Judgment. After argument, if for any reason a member of a court consisting of only three justices cannot participate in deciding a case, the case may be decided by the two remaining justices. If they cannot agree on a judgment, that fact must be certified to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. The Chief Justice may then temporarily assign an eligible justice or judge to sit with the court of appeals to consider the case. The reconstituted court may order the case reargued.

■ COMMENT TO 2008 CHANGE

The statutory provisions governing the assignment of judges to appellate courts are located in Chapters 74 and 75 of the Government Code.... Subdivision 41.3 is added to require, in appellate cases transferred by the Supreme Court under §73.001 of the Government Code for docket equalization or other purposes, that the transferee court must generally resolve any conflict between the precedent of the transferor court and the precedent of the transferee court — or that of any other intermediate appellate court the transferee court otherwise would have followed — by following the precedent of the transferor court, unless it appears that the transferor court itself would not be bound by that precedent. The rule requires the transferee court to “stand in the shoes” of the transferor court so that an appellate transfer will not produce a different outcome, based on application of substantive law, than would have resulted had the case not been transferred. The transferee court is not expected to follow the transferor court's local rules or otherwise supplant its own local procedures with those of the transferor court.

RULE 41.2. DECISION BY EN BANC COURT

(a) Constitution of En Banc Court. An en banc court consists of all members of the court who are not disqualified or recused and—if the case was originally argued before or decided by a panel—any members of the panel who are not members of the court but remain eligible for assignment to the court. A majority of the en banc court constitute a quorum. A majority of the en banc court must agree on a judgment.

(b) When En Banc Court Cannot Agree on Judgment. If a majority of an en banc court cannot agree on a judgment, that fact must be certified to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. The Chief Justice may then temporarily assign an eligible justice or judge to sit with the court of appeals to consider the case. The reconstituted court may order the case reargued.

(c) En Banc Consideration Disfavored. En banc consideration of a case is not favored and should not be ordered unless necessary to secure or maintain uniformity of the court's decisions or unless extraordinary circumstances require en banc consideration. A vote to determine whether a case will be considered or reconsidered en banc need not be taken unless a justice of the court requests a vote. If a vote is requested and a majority of the court's members vote to consider or reconsider the case en banc, the en banc court will consider or reconsider the case. Otherwise, a panel of the court will consider the case.

RULE 41.3. PRECEDENT IN TRANSFERRED CASES

In cases transferred by the Supreme Court from one court of appeals to another, the court of appeals to which the case is transferred must decide the case in accordance with the precedent of the transferor court under principles of stare decisis if the transferee court's decision otherwise would have been inconsistent with the precedent of the transferor court. The court's opinion may state whether the outcome would have been different had the transferee court not been required to decide the case in accordance with the transferor court's precedent.

RULE 42. DISMISSAL

RULE 42.1. VOLUNTARY DISMISSAL AND SETTLEMENT IN CIVIL CASES

(a) On Motion or by Agreement. The appellate court may dispose of an appeal as follows:

(1) On Motion of Appellant. In accordance with a motion of appellant, the court may dismiss the appeal or affirm the appealed judgment or order unless such disposition would prevent a party from seeking relief to which it would otherwise be entitled.

(2) By Agreement. In accordance with an agreement signed by the parties or their attorneys and filed with the clerk, the court may:

- (A) render judgment effectuating the parties' agreement;
- (B) set aside the trial court's judgment without regard to the merits and remand the case to the trial court for rendition of judgment in accordance with the agreement; or
- (C) abate the appeal and permit proceedings in the trial court to effectuate the agreement.

(b) Partial Disposition. A severable portion of the proceeding may be disposed of under (a) if it will not prejudice the remaining parties.

(c) Effect on Court's Opinion. In dismissing a proceeding, the appellate court will determine whether to withdraw any opinion it has already issued. An agreement or motion for dismissal cannot be conditioned on withdrawal of the opinion.

(d) Costs. Absent agreement of the parties, the court will tax costs against the appellant.

RULE 42.2. VOLUNTARY DISMISSAL IN CRIMINAL CASES

(a) At any time before the appellate court's decision, the appellate court may dismiss the appeal upon the appellant's motion. The appellant and his or her attorney must sign the written motion to dismiss and file it in duplicate with the appellate clerk, who must immediately send the duplicate copy to the trial court clerk.

(b) After the court of appeals hands down its opinion, it may not grant an appellant's motion to dismiss the appeal unless the other parties consent. If the other parties consent and the court of appeals grants the appellant's motion to dismiss the appeal, the appellate opinion must be withdrawn and the appeal dismissed. The appellate clerk must send notice of the dismissal to the trial court clerk.

RULE 42.3. INVOLUNTARY DISMISSAL IN CIVIL CASES

Under the following circumstances, on any party's motion—or on its own initiative after giving ten days' notice to all parties—the appellate court may dismiss the appeal or affirm the appealed judgment or order. Dismissal or affirmance may occur if the appeal is subject to dismissal:

- (a) for want of jurisdiction;
- (b) for want of prosecution; or

(c) because the appellant has failed to comply with a requirement of these rules, a court order, or a notice from the clerk requiring a response or other action within a specified time.

RULE 42.4. INVOLUNTARY DISMISSAL IN CRIMINAL CASES

The appellate court must dismiss an appeal on the State's motion, supported by affidavit, showing that the appellant has escaped from custody pending the appeal and that to the affiant's knowledge, the appellant has not, within ten days after escaping, voluntarily returned to lawful custody within the state.

(a) Timely Return to Custody; Reinstatement. The appeal may not be dismissed—or, if dismissed, must be reinstated—if an affidavit of an officer or other credible person is filed showing that the appellant, within ten days after escaping, voluntarily returned to lawful custody within the state.

(b) Life Sentence. The appellate court may overrule the motion to dismiss—or, if the motion was granted, may reinstate the appeal—if:

- (1) the appellant received a life sentence; and
- (2) the appellant is recaptured or voluntarily surrenders within 30 days after escaping.

RULE 43. JUDGMENT OF THE COURT OF APPEALS

RULE 43.1. TIME

The court of appeals should render its judgment promptly after submission of a case.

RULE 43.2. TYPES OF JUDGMENT

The court of appeals may:

- (a) affirm the trial court's judgment in whole or in part;
- (b) modify the trial court's judgment and affirm it as modified;
- (c) reverse the trial court's judgment in whole or in part and render the judgment that the trial court should have rendered;
- (d) reverse the trial court's judgment and remand the case for further proceedings;
- (e) vacate the trial court's judgment and dismiss the case; or
- (f) dismiss the appeal.

REFORMATION

An appellate court can reform a conviction to a lesser-included offense without submission of or request for the lesser offense. Bowen v. State, 374 S.W.3d 427 (Tex. Crim. App. 2012).

RULE 43.3. RENDITION APPROPRIATE UNLESS REMAND NECESSARY

When reversing a trial court's judgment, the court must render the judgment that the trial court should have rendered, except when:

- (a) a remand is necessary for further proceedings; or
- (b) the interests of justice require a remand for another trial.

RULE 43.4. JUDGMENT FOR COSTS IN CIVIL CASES

The court of appeals' judgment should award to the prevailing party costs incurred by that party related to the appeal, including filing fees in the court of appeals and costs for preparation of the record. The court of appeals may tax costs otherwise as required by law or for good cause. But the judgment must not require the payment of costs by a party who was entitled to proceed without payment of costs under Rule 20.1, and a provision in the judgment purporting to do so is void.

RULE 43.5. JUDGMENT AGAINST SURETIES IN CIVIL CASES

When a court of appeals affirms the trial court judgment, or modifies that judgment and renders judgment against the appellant, the court of appeals must render judgment against the sureties on the appellant's supersedeas bond, if any, for the performance of the judgment and for any costs taxed against the appellant.

RULE 43.6. OTHER ORDERS

The court of appeals may make any other appropriate order that the law and the nature of the case require.

RULE 44. REVERSIBLE ERROR

RULE 44.1. REVERSIBLE ERROR IN CIVIL CASES

(a) Standard for Reversible Error. No judgment may be reversed on appeal on the ground that the trial court made an error of law unless the court of appeals concludes that the error complained of:

- (1) probably caused the rendition of an improper judgment; or
- (2) probably prevented the appellant from properly presenting the case to the court of appeals.

(b) Error Affecting Only Part of Case. If the error affects part of, but not all, the matter in controversy and that part is separable without unfairness to the parties, the judgment must be reversed and a new trial ordered only as to the part affected by the error. The court may not order a separate trial solely on unliquidated damages if liability is contested.

RULE 44.2. REVERSIBLE ERROR IN CRIMINAL CASES

(a) Constitutional Error. If the appellate record in a criminal case reveals constitutional error that is subject to harmless error review, the court of appeals must reverse a judgment of conviction or punishment unless the court determines beyond a reasonable doubt that the error did not contribute to the conviction or punishment.

(b) Other Errors. Any other error, defect, irregularity, or variance that does not affect substantial rights must be disregarded.

(c) Presumptions. Unless the following matters were disputed in the trial court, or unless the record affirmatively shows the contrary, the court of appeals must presume:

- (1) that venue was proved in the trial court;
- (2) that the jury was properly impaneled and sworn;
- (3) that the defendant was arraigned;
- (4) that the defendant pleaded to the indictment or other charging instrument; and
- (5) that the court's charge was certified by the trial court and filed by the clerk before it was read to the jury.

STATUTORY ERROR IS NONCONSTITUTIONAL

When a defendant claims only a statutory violation, the error must be treated as nonconstitutional for purposes of a harm analysis, and therefore, the error cannot be deemed structural. Gray v. State, 159 S.W.3d 95 (Tex. Crim. App. 2005).

RULE 44.3. DEFECTS IN PROCEDURE

A court of appeals must not affirm or reverse a judgment or dismiss an appeal for formal defects or irregularities in appellate procedure without allowing a reasonable time to correct or amend the defects or irregularities.

RULE 44.4. REMEDIABLE ERROR OF THE TRIAL COURT

(a) Generally. A court of appeals must not affirm or reverse a judgment or dismiss an appeal if:

- (1) the trial court's erroneous action or failure or refusal to act prevents the proper presentation of a case to the court of appeals; and
- (2) the trial court can correct its action or failure to act.

(b) Court of Appeals Direction if Error Remediable. If the circumstances described in (a) exist, the court of appeals must direct the trial court to correct the error. The court of appeals will then proceed as if the erroneous action or failure to act had not occurred.

ABATEMENT VS. REVERSAL

A defendant may not be entitled to a reversal if an abatement gives the trial judge a chance to clear up an unclear ruling. Henery v. State, 364 S.W.3d 915 (Tex. Crim. App. 2012).

RULE 45. DAMAGES FOR FRIVOLOUS APPEALS IN CIVIL CASES

If the court of appeals determines that an appeal is frivolous, it may—on motion of any party or on its own initiative, after notice and a reasonable opportunity for response—award each prevailing party just damages. In determining whether to award damages, the court must not consider any matter that does not appear in the record, briefs, or other papers filed in the court of appeals.

RULE 46. REMITTITUR IN CIVIL CASES

RULE 46.1. REMITTITUR AFTER APPEAL PERFECTED

If the trial court suggests a remittitur but the case is appealed before the remittitur is filed, the party who would make the remittitur may do so in the court of appeals in the same manner as in the trial court. The court of appeals must then render the judgment that the trial court should have rendered if the remittitur had been made in the trial court.

RULE 46.2. APPEAL ON REMITTITUR

If a party makes the remittitur at the trial judge's suggestion and the party benefitting from the remittitur appeals, the remitting party is not barred from contending in the court of appeals that all or part of the remittitur should not have been required, but the remitting party must perfect an appeal to raise that point. If the court of appeals sustains the remitting party's contention that remittitur should not have been required, the court must render the judgment that the trial court should have rendered.

RULE 46.3. SUGGESTION OF REMITTITUR BY COURT OF APPEALS

The court of appeals may suggest a remittitur. If the remittitur is timely filed, the court must reform and affirm the trial court's judgment in accordance with the remittitur. If the remittitur is not timely filed, the court must reverse the trial court's judgment.

RULE 46.4. REFUSAL TO REMIT MUST NOT BE MENTIONED IN LATER TRIAL

If the court of appeals suggests a remittitur, but no remittitur is filed, evidence of the court's determination regarding remittitur is inadmissible in a later trial of the case.

RULE 46.5. VOLUNTARY REMITTITUR

If a court of appeals reverses the trial court's judgment because of a legal error that affects only part of the damages awarded by the judgment, the affected party may—within 15 days after the court of appeals' judgment—voluntarily remit the amount that the affected party believes will cure the reversible error. A party may include in a motion for rehearing—without waiving any complaint that the court of appeals erred—a conditional request that the court accept the remittitur and affirm the trial court's judgment as reduced. If the court of appeals determines that the voluntary remittitur is not sufficient to cure the reversible error, but that remittitur is appropriate, the court must suggest a remittitur in accordance with Rule 46.3. If the remittitur is timely filed and the court of appeals determines that the voluntary remittitur cures the reversible error, then the court must accept the remittitur and reform and affirm the trial court judgment in accordance with the remittitur.

RULE 47. OPINIONS, PUBLICATION, AND CITATION

RULE 47.1. WRITTEN OPINION

The court of appeals must hand down a written opinion that is as brief as practicable but that addresses every issue raised and necessary to final disposition of the appeal.

ADDRESS ALL ARGUMENTS

"As a general proposition, reviewing courts ought to mention a party's number one argument and explain why it does not have the persuasive force that the party thinks it does." Carsner v. State, 444 S.W.3d 1, 4 (Tex. Crim. App. 2014).

RULE 47.2. DESIGNATION AND SIGNING OF OPINIONS; PARTICIPATING JUSTICES

(a) Civil and Criminal Cases. Each opinion of the court must be designated either an "Opinion" or a "Memorandum Opinion." A majority of the justices who participate in considering the case must determine whether the opinion will be signed by a justice or will be per curiam and whether it will be designated an opinion or memorandum opinion. The names of the participating justices must be noted on all written opinions or orders of the court or a panel of the court.

(b) Criminal cases. In addition, each opinion and memorandum opinion in a criminal case must bear the notation "publish" or "do not publish" as determined—before the opinion is handed down—by a majority of the justices who participate in considering the case. Any party may move the appellate court to change the notation, but the court of appeals must not change the notation after the Court of Criminal Appeals has acted on any party's petition for discretionary review or other request for relief. The Court of Criminal Appeals may, at any time, order that a "do not publish" notation be changed to "publish."

(c) Civil cases. Opinions and memorandum opinions in civil cases issued on or after January 1, 2003 shall not be designated "do not publish."

RULE 47.3. DISTRIBUTION OF OPINIONS

All opinions of the courts of appeals are open to the public and must be made available to the public reporting services, print or electronic.

RULE 47.4. MEMORANDUM OPINIONS

If the issues are settled, the court should write a brief memorandum opinion no longer than necessary to advise the parties of the court's decision and the basic reasons for it. An opinion may not be designated a memorandum opinion if the author of a concurrence or dissent opposes that designation. An opinion must be designated a memorandum opinion unless it does any of the following:

- (a) establishes a new rule of law, alters or modifies an existing rule, or applies an existing rule to a novel fact situation likely to recur in future cases;
- (b) involves issues of constitutional law or other legal issues important to the jurisprudence of Texas;
- (c) criticizes existing law; or
- (d) resolves an apparent conflict of authority.

RULE 47.5. CONCURRING AND DISSENTING OPINIONS

Only a justice who participated in the decision of a case may file or join in an opinion concurring in or dissenting from the judgment of the court of appeals. Any justice on the court may file an opinion in connection with a denial of consideration or reconsideration en banc.

RULE 47.6. CHANGE IN DESIGNATION BY EN BANC COURT

A court en banc may change a panel's designation of an opinion.

RULE 47.7. CITATION OF UNPUBLISHED OPINIONS

(a) Criminal Cases. Opinions and memorandum opinions not designated for publication by the court of appeals under these or prior rules have no precedential value but may be cited with the notation, "(not designated for publication)."

(b) Civil Cases. Opinions and memorandum opinions designated "do not publish" under these rules by the courts of appeals prior to January 1, 2003 have no precedential value but may be cited with the notation, "(not designated for publication)." If an opinion or memorandum opinion issued on or after that date is erroneously designated "do not publish," the erroneous designation will not affect the precedential value of the decision.

COMMENT TO 1997 CHANGE

This is former Rule 90. Subdivision 47.1 makes clear that a memorandum opinion should not be any longer than necessary. Subdivision 47.5 is amended to make clear that only justices who participated in the decision may file an opinion in the case. Judges who are not on a panel may file an opinion only in respect to a hearing or rehearing en banc. Former Rule 90(h), regarding publication of opinions after the Supreme Court grants review, is repealed.

COMMENT TO 2002 CHANGE

The rule is substantively changed to discontinue the use of the “do not publish” designation in civil cases, to require that all opinions of the court of appeals be made available to public reporting services, and to remove prospectively any prohibition against the citation of opinions as authority in civil cases. The rule favors the use of “memorandum opinions” designated as such except in certain types of cases but does not change other requirements, such as those in Pool v. Ford Motor Co., 715 S.W.2d 629, 635-636 (Tex. 1986). An opinion previously designated “do not publish” has no precedential value but may be cited. The citation must include the notation, “(not designated for publication).” Of course, whenever an opinion not readily available is cited, copies should be furnished to the court and opposing counsel.

COMMENT TO 2008 CHANGE

Effective January 1, 2003, Rule 47 was amended to prospectively discontinue designating opinions in civil cases as either “published” or “unpublished.” Subdivision 47.7 is revised to clarify that, with respect to civil cases, only opinions issued prior to the 2003 amendment and affirmatively designated “do not publish” should be considered “unpublished” cases lacking precedential value. All opinions and memorandum opinions in civil cases issued after the 2003 amendment have precedential value. The provisions governing citation of unpublished opinions in criminal cases are substantively unchanged. Subdivisions 47.2 and 47.7 are amended to clarify that memorandum opinions are subject to those rules.

RULE 48. COPY OF OPINION AND JUDGMENT TO INTERESTED PARTIES AND OTHER COURTS

RULE 48.1. RECIPIENTS OF OPINION AND JUDGMENT IN ALL CASES

On the date when an appellate court’s opinion is handed down, the appellate clerk must send or deliver copies of the opinion and judgment to the following persons:

- (a) the trial judge;
- (b) the trial court clerk;
- (c) the regional administrative judge; and
- (d) all parties to the appeal.

RULE 48.2. ADDITIONAL RECIPIENTS IN CRIMINAL CASES

In criminal cases, copies of the opinion and judgment will also be mailed or delivered to the State Prosecuting Attorney.

RULE 48.3. FILING OPINION AND JUDGMENT

The trial court clerk must file a copy of the opinion and judgment among the papers of the case in that court.

RULE 48.4. OPINION SENT TO CRIMINAL DEFENDANT

In criminal cases, the attorney representing the defendant on appeal shall, within five days after the opinion is handed down, send his client a copy of the opinion and judgment, along with notification of the defendant’s right to file a pro se petition for discretionary review under Rule 68. This notification shall be sent certified mail, return receipt requested, to the defendant at his last known address. The attorney shall also send the court of appeals a letter certifying his compliance with this rule and attaching a copy of the return receipt within the time for filing a motion for rehearing. The court of appeals shall file this letter in its record of the appeal.

RULE 49. MOTION AND FURTHER MOTION FOR REHEARING

RULE 49.1. MOTION FOR REHEARING

A motion for rehearing may be filed within 15 days after the court of appeals’ judgment or order is rendered. The motion must clearly state the points relied on for the rehearing.

COMMENT TO 2008 CHANGE

Rule 49 is revised to treat a motion for en banc reconsideration as having the effect of a motion for rehearing and to include procedures governing the filing of a motion for en banc reconsideration. Subdivision 49.5(c) is amended to clarify that a further motion for rehearing may be filed if the court issues a different opinion, irrespective of whether the opinion is issued in connection with the overruling of a prior motion for rehearing. Issuance of a new opinion that is not substantially different should not occasion a further motion for rehearing, but a motion’s lack of merit does not affect appellate deadlines. The provisions of former Rule 53.7(b) that address motions for rehearing are moved to new subdivision 49.11 without change, leaving the provisions of Rule 53.7(b) that address petitions for review undisturbed. Subdivision 49.12 mirrors Rule 10.1(a)(5) in excepting motions for rehearing and motions for en banc reconsideration from the certificate-of-conference requirement.

COMMENT TO 2021 CHANGE

Rule 49 is revised to clarify when a motion for en banc reconsideration may be filed. Some subdivisions have been rearranged. Amended subdivision 49.5 adds a cross-reference to the standard for en banc reconsideration in Rule 41.2(c).

RULE 49.2. RESPONSE TO MOTION FOR REHEARING

No response to a motion for rehearing need be filed unless the court so requests. The motion will not be granted unless a response has been filed or requested by the court.

RULE 49.3. DECISION ON MOTION FOR REHEARING

A motion for rehearing may be granted by a majority of the justices who participated in the decision of the case. Unless two justices who participated in the decision of the case agree on the disposition of the motion for rehearing, the chief justice of the court of appeals must assign a justice to replace any justice who participated in the panel decision but cannot participate in deciding the motion for rehearing. If rehearing is granted, the court may dispose of the case with or without rebriefing and oral argument.

RULE 49.4. FURTHER MOTION FOR REHEARING

After a court decides a motion for rehearing, a further motion for rehearing may be filed within 15 days of the court’s action if the court:

- (a) modifies its judgment;
- (b) vacates its judgment and renders a new judgment; or
- (c) issues a different opinion.

RULE 49.5. EN BANC RECONSIDERATION

A party may file a motion for en banc reconsideration as a separate motion, with or without filing a motion for rehearing. The motion must be filed within 15 days after the court of appeals' judgment or order is rendered. While the court of appeals has plenary power, a majority of the en banc court may, on its own initiative, order en banc reconsideration of a decision. If a majority orders reconsideration, the judgment or order does not become final, and the case will be resubmitted to the court for en banc review and disposition. The court may dispose of the case with or without rebriefing and oral argument.

RULE 49.6. FURTHER MOTION FOR EN BANC RECONSIDERATION

After a court decides a motion for en banc reconsideration, a further motion for en banc reconsideration may be filed within 15 days of the court's action if the court:

- (a) modifies its judgment;
- (b) vacates its judgment and renders a new judgment; or
- (c) issues a different opinion.

RULE 49.7. ACCELERATED APPEALS

In an accelerated appeal, the appellate court may deny the right to file a motion for rehearing or en banc reconsideration or shorten the time to file such a motion.

RULE 49.8. AMENDMENTS

A motion for rehearing or en banc reconsideration may be amended as a matter of right anytime before the 15-day period allowed for filing the motion expires, and with leave of the court, anytime before the court of appeals decides the motion.

RULE 49.9. EXTENSIONS OF TIME

A court of appeals may extend the time for filing a motion for rehearing or en banc reconsideration if a party files a motion complying with Rule 10.5(b) no later than 15 days after the last date for filing the motion.

RULE 49.10. NOT REQUIRED FOR REVIEW

A motion for rehearing or for en banc reconsideration is not a prerequisite to filing a petition for review in the Supreme Court or a petition for discretionary review in the Court of Criminal Appeals nor is it required to preserve error.

RULE 49.11. RELATIONSHIP TO PETITION FOR REVIEW

A party may not file a motion for rehearing or en banc reconsideration in the court of appeals after that party has filed a petition for review in the Supreme Court unless the court of appeals modifies its opinion or judgment after the petition for review is filed. The filing of a petition for review does not preclude another party from filing a motion for rehearing or en banc reconsideration or preclude the court of appeals from ruling on the motion. If a motion for rehearing or en banc reconsideration is timely filed after a petition for review is filed, the petitioner must immediately notify the Supreme Court clerk of the filing of the motion, and must notify the clerk when the last timely filed motion is overruled by the court of appeals.

RULE 49.12. CERTIFICATE OF CONFERENCE NOT REQUIRED

A certificate of conference is not required for a motion for rehearing or en banc reconsideration.

RULE 50—REPEALED

RULE 51. ENFORCEMENT OF JUDGMENTS AFTER MANDATE

RULE 51.1. CIVIL CASES

(a) Statement of Costs. The appellate clerk must prepare, and send to the trial court clerk with the mandate, a statement of costs showing:

- (1) the preparation costs for the appellate record, and any court of appeals filing fees, with a notation of those items that have been paid and those that are owing; and
- (2) the party or parties against whom costs have been adjudged.

(b) Enforcement of Judgment. When the trial court clerk receives the mandate, the appellate court's judgment must be enforced. Appellate court costs must be included with the trial court costs in any process to enforce the judgment. If all or part of the costs are collected, the trial court clerk must immediately remit to the appellate court clerk any amount due to that clerk. The trial court need not make any further order in the case, and the appellate court's judgment may be enforced as in other cases, when the appellate judgment:

- (1) affirms the trial court's judgment;
- (2) modifies the trial court's judgment and, as so modified, affirms that judgment; or
- (3) renders the judgment the trial court should have rendered.

RULE 51.2. CRIMINAL CASES

When the trial court clerk receives the mandate, the appellate court's judgment must be enforced as follows:

(a) Clerk's Duties. The trial court clerk must:

- (1) send an acknowledgment to the appellate clerk of the mandate's receipt; and
- (2) immediately file the mandate.

(b) Judgment of Affirmance; Defendant Not in Custody.

(1) Capias to Be Issued. If the judgment contains a sentence of confinement or imprisonment that has not been suspended, the trial court must promptly issue a capias for the defendant's arrest so that the court's sentence can be executed.

(2) Contents of Capias. The capias may issue to any county of this state and must be executed and returned as in felony cases, except that no bail may be taken. The capias must:

- (A) recite the fact of conviction;
- (B) set forth the offense and the court's judgment and sentence;
- (C) state that the judgment was appealed from and affirmed, and that the mandate has been filed; and
- (D) command the sheriff to arrest and take the defendant into his custody, and to place and keep the defendant in custody until delivered to the proper authorities as directed by the sentence.

(3) Sheriff's Duties. The sheriff must promptly execute the capias as directed. The sheriff must notify the trial court clerk and the appellate clerk when the mandate has been carried out and executed.

(c) Judgment of Reversal.

(1) When New Trial Ordered. When the appellate court reverses the trial court's judgment and grants the defendant a new trial, the procedure is governed by Code of Criminal Procedure article 44.29. If the defendant is in custody and entitled to bail, the defendant must be released upon giving bail.

(2) When Case Dismissed. When the appellate court reverses the trial court's judgment and orders the case to be dismissed, the defendant—if in custody—must be discharged.

(d) Judgment of Acquittal. When the appellate court reverses a judgment and orders the defendant's acquittal, the defendant—if in custody—must be discharged, and no further order or judgment of the trial court is necessary.

SECTION THREE: ORIGINAL PROCEEDINGS IN THE SUPREME COURT AND THE COURTS OF APPEALS

RULE 52. ORIGINAL PROCEEDINGS

RULE 52.1. COMMENCEMENT

An original appellate proceeding seeking extraordinary relief—such as a writ of habeas corpus, mandamus, prohibition, injunction, or quo warranto—is commenced by filing a petition with the clerk of the appropriate appellate court. The petition must be captioned “In re [name of relator].”

RULE 52.2. DESIGNATION OF PARTIES

The party seeking the relief is the relator. In original proceedings other than habeas corpus, the person against whom relief is sought—whether a judge, court, tribunal, officer, or other person—is the respondent. A person whose interest would be directly affected by the relief sought is a real party in interest and a party to the case.

RULE 52.3. FORM AND CONTENTS OF PETITION

The petition must, under appropriate headings and in the order here indicated, contain the following:

(a) Identity of Parties and Counsel. The petition must give a complete list of all parties. The petition must also give a complete list of the names of all counsel appearing in the trial or appellate courts; their firm or office name at the time of the appearance; and, for counsel currently appearing, their mailing address, telephone number, and email address. If new counsel appears or if any counsel currently appearing changes their firm or office affiliation during the pendency of the appeal, lead counsel for the party must notify the clerk by filing a supplemental disclosure.

(b) Table of Contents. The petition must include a table of contents with references to the pages of the petition and be bookmarked to assist in locating each item. The table of contents must indicate the subject matter of each issue or point, or group of issues or points.

(c) Index of Authorities. The petition must include an index of authorities arranged alphabetically and indicating the pages of the petition where the authorities are cited.

(d) Statement of the Case. The petition must contain a statement of the case that should seldom exceed one page and should not discuss the facts. The statement must contain the following:

(1) a concise description of the nature of any underlying proceeding (e.g., a suit for damages, a contempt proceeding for failure to pay child support, or the certification of a candidate for inclusion on an election ballot);

(2) if the respondent is a judge, the name of the judge, the designation of the court in which the judge was sitting, and the county in which the court is located; and if the respondent is an official other than a judge, the designation and location of the office held by the respondent;

(3) a concise description of the respondent's action from which the relator seeks relief;

(4) if the relator seeks a writ of habeas corpus, a statement describing how and where the relator is being deprived of liberty;

(5) if the petition is filed in the Supreme Court after a petition requesting the same relief was filed in the court of appeals:

(A) the date the petition was filed in the court of appeals;

(B) the district of the court of appeals and the names of the justices who participated in the decision;

(C) the author of any opinion for the court of appeals and the author of any separate opinion;

(D) the citation of the court's opinion;

(E) the disposition of the case by the court of appeals, and the date of the court of appeals' order.

(e) Statement of jurisdiction. The petition must state, without argument, the basis of the court's jurisdiction. If the Supreme Court and the court of appeals have concurrent jurisdiction, the petition must be presented first to the court of appeals unless there is a compelling reason not to do so. If the petition is filed in the Supreme Court without first being presented to the court of appeals, the petition must state the compelling reason why the petition was not first presented to the court of appeals.

(f) Issues presented. The petition must state concisely all issues or points presented for relief. The statement of an issue or point will be treated as covering every subsidiary question that is fairly included.

(g) Statement of facts. The petition must state concisely and without argument the facts pertinent to the issues or points presented. Every statement of fact in the petition must be supported by citation to competent evidence included in the appendix or record.

(h) Argument. The petition must contain a clear and concise argument for the contentions made, with appropriate citations to authorities and to the appendix or record.

(i) Prayer. The petition must contain a short conclusion that clearly states the nature of the relief sought.

(j) Certification. The person filing the petition must certify that he or she has reviewed the petition and concluded that every factual statement in the petition is supported by competent evidence included in the appendix or record.

(k) Appendix.

(1) Necessary Contents. The appendix must be bookmarked to assist in locating each item and must contain:

(A) any order or opinion of the court of appeals, if the petition is filed in the Supreme Court;

(B) [(A)] a certified or sworn copy of any order complained of, or any other document showing the matter complained of;

[(B) any order or opinion of the court of appeals, if the petition is filed in the Supreme Court;]

(C) unless voluminous or impracticable, the text of any rule, regulation, ordinance, statute, constitutional provision, or other law (excluding case law) on which the argument is based; and

(D) if a writ of habeas corpus is sought, proof that the relator is being restrained.

(2) Optional Contents. The appendix may contain any other item pertinent to the issues or points presented for review, including copies or excerpts of relevant court opinions, statutes, constitutional provisions, documents on which the suit was based, pleadings, and similar material. Items should not be included in the appendix to attempt to avoid the page limits for the petition. The appendix should not contain any evidence or other item that is not necessary for a decision.

Amended effective Dec. 1, 2024.

RULE 52.4. RESPONSE

Any party may file a response to the petition, but it is not mandatory. The court must not grant relief—other than temporary relief—before a response has been filed or requested by the court. The response must conform to the requirements of 52.3, except that:

- (a) the list of parties and counsel is not required unless necessary to supplement or correct the list contained in the petition;
- (b) the response need not include a statement of the case, a statement of the issues presented, or a statement of the facts unless the responding party is dissatisfied with that portion of the petition;
- (c) a statement of jurisdiction should be omitted unless the petition fails to assert valid grounds for jurisdiction, in which case the reasons why the court lacks jurisdiction must be concisely stated;
- (d) the argument must be confined to the issues or points presented in the petition; and
- (e) the appendix to the response need not contain any item already contained in an appendix filed by the relator.

RULE 52.5. RELATOR'S REPLY TO RESPONSE

The relator may file a reply addressing any matter in the response. However, the court may consider and decide the case before a reply brief is filed.

RULE 52.6. [REPEALED]

RULE 52.7. RECORD

(a) Filing by Relator Required. Relator must file with the petition:

- (1) a certified or sworn copy of every document that is material to the relator's claim for relief and that was filed in any underlying proceeding; and
- (2) a properly authenticated transcript of any relevant testimony from any underlying proceeding, including any exhibits offered in evidence, or a statement that no testimony was adduced in connection with the matter complained.

(b) Supplementation Permitted. After the record is filed, relator or any other party to the proceeding may file additional materials for inclusion in the record.

(c) Service of Record on All Parties. Relator and any party who files materials for inclusion in the record must—at the same time—serve on each party:

- (1) those materials not previously served on that party as part of the record in another original appellate proceeding in the same or another court; and
- (2) an index listing the materials filed and describing them in sufficient detail to identify them.

RULE 52.8. ACTION ON PETITION

(a) Relief Denied. If the court determines from the petition and any response and reply that the relator is not entitled to the relief sought, the court must deny the petition. If the relator in a habeas corpus proceeding has been released on bond, the court must remand the relator to custody and issue an order of commitment. If the relator is not returned to custody, the court may declare the bond to be forfeited and render judgment against the surety.

(b) Interim Action. If the court is of the tentative opinion that relator is entitled to the relief sought or that a serious question concerning the relief requires further consideration:

- (1) the court must request a response if one has not been filed;
- (2) the Supreme Court may request full briefing under Rule 55;
- (3) in a habeas corpus proceeding, the court may order that relator be discharged on execution and filing of a bond in an amount set by the court; and
- (4) the court may set the case for oral argument.

(c) Relief Granted. If the court determines that relator is entitled to relief, it must make an appropriate order. The court may grant relief without hearing oral argument.

(d) Opinion. When denying relief, the court may hand down an opinion but is not required to do so. When granting relief, the court must hand down an opinion as in any other case. Rule 47 is applicable to an order or opinion by a court of appeals except that the court of appeals may not order an unpublished opinion published after the Supreme Court or Court of Criminal Appeals has acted on any party's petition for extraordinary relief addressing the same issues.

RULE 52.9. MOTION FOR REHEARING

Any party may file a motion for rehearing within 15 days after the final order is rendered. The motion must clearly state the points relied on for the rehearing. No response to a motion for rehearing need be filed unless the court so requests. The court will not grant a motion for rehearing unless a response has been filed or requested.

RULE 52.10. TEMPORARY RELIEF

(a) Motion for Temporary Relief; Certificate of Compliance. The relator may file a motion to stay any underlying proceedings or for any other temporary relief pending the court's action on the petition. The relator must notify or make a diligent effort to notify all parties by expedited means (such as by telephone or fax) that a motion for temporary relief has been or will be filed and must certify to the court that the relator has complied with this paragraph before temporary relief will be granted.

(b) Grant of Temporary Relief. The court—on motion of any party or on its own initiative—may without notice grant any just relief pending the court's action on the petition. As a condition of granting temporary relief, the court may require a bond to protect the parties who will be affected by the relief. Unless vacated or modified, an order granting temporary relief is effective until the case is finally decided.

(c) Motion to Reconsider. Any party may move the court at any time to reconsider a grant of temporary relief.

RULE 52.11. GROUNDLESS PETITION OR MISLEADING STATEMENT OR RECORD

On motion of any party or on its own initiative, the court may—after notice and a reasonable opportunity to respond—impose just sanctions on a party or attorney who is not acting in good faith as indicated by any of the following:

- (a) filing a petition that is clearly groundless;
- (b) bringing the petition solely for delay of an underlying proceeding;
- (c) grossly misstating or omitting an obviously important and material fact in the petition or response; or
- (d) filing an appendix or record that is clearly misleading because of the omission of obviously important and material evidence or documents.

SECTION FOUR: PROCEEDINGS IN THE SUPREME COURT

RULE 53. PETITION FOR REVIEW

RULE 53.1. METHOD OF REVIEW

The Supreme Court may review a court of appeals' final judgment on a petition for review addressed to "The Supreme Court of Texas." A party who seeks to alter the court of appeals' judgment must file a petition for review. The petition for review procedure replaces the writ of error procedure. Statutes pertaining to the writ of error in the Supreme Court apply equally to the petition for review.

RULE 53.2. CONTENTS OF PETITION

The petition for review must, under appropriate headings and in the order here indicated, contain the following items:

- (a) Identity of Parties and Counsel. The petition must give a complete list of all parties to the trial court's final judgment. The petition must also give a complete list of the names of all counsel appearing in the trial or appellate courts; their firm or office name at the time of the appearance; and, for counsel currently appearing, their mailing address, telephone number, and email address. If new counsel appears or if any counsel currently appearing changes firm or office affiliation during the pendency of the appeal, lead counsel for the party must notify the clerk by filing a supplemental disclosure.
- (b) Table of Contents. The petition must have a table of contents with references to the pages of the petition and must be bookmarked to assist in locating each item. The table of contents must indicate the subject matter of each issue or point, or group of issues or points.
- (c) Index of authorities. The petition must have an index of authorities arranged alphabetically and indicating the pages of the petition where the authorities are cited.
- (d) Statement of the Case. The petition must contain a statement of the case that should seldom exceed one page and should not discuss the facts. The statement must contain the following:
  - (1) a concise description of the nature of the case (e.g., whether it is a suit for damages, on a note, or in trespass to try title);
  - (2) the name of the judge who signed the order or judgment appealed from;
  - (3) the designation of the trial court and the county in which it is located;
  - (4) the disposition of the case by the trial court;
  - (5) the parties in the court of appeals;
  - (6) the district of the court of appeals;

- (7) the names of the justices who participated in the decision in the court of appeals, the author of the opinion for the court, and the author of any separate opinion;
- (8) the citation for the court of appeals' opinion; and
- (9) the disposition of the case by the court of appeals, including the disposition of any motions for rehearing or en banc reconsideration, and whether any motions for rehearing or en banc reconsideration are pending in the court of appeals at the time the petition for review is filed.

(e) Statement of Jurisdiction. The petition must state, without argument, the basis of the Court's jurisdiction.

(f) Issues Presented. The petition must state concisely all issues or points presented for review. The statement of an issue or point will be treated as covering every subsidiary question that is fairly included. If the matter complained of originated in the trial court, it should have been preserved for appellate review in the trial court and assigned as error in the court of appeals.

(g) Introduction. The petition must contain an introduction summarizing the reasons the Court should grant review.

(h) ~~[(g)]~~ Statement of Facts. The petition must affirm that the court of appeals correctly stated the nature of the case, except in any particulars pointed out. The petition must state concisely and without argument the facts and procedural background pertinent to the issues or points presented. The statement must be supported by record references.

(i) ~~[(h)]~~ Summary of the Argument. The petition must contain a succinct, clear, and accurate statement of the arguments made in the body of the petition. This summary must not merely repeat the issues or points presented for review.

(j) ~~[(i)]~~ Argument. The petition must contain a clear and concise argument for the contentions made, with appropriate citations to authorities and to the record. The argument need not address every issue or point included in the statement of issues or points. Any issue or point not addressed may be addressed in the brief on the merits if one is requested by the Court. The argument should explain ~~[state]~~ the reasons why the Supreme Court should exercise jurisdiction to hear the case with specific reference to the factors listed in Rule 56.1(a). The petition need not quote at length from a matter included in the appendix; a reference to the appendix is sufficient. The Court will consider the court of appeals' opinion along with the petition, so statements in that opinion need not be repeated.

(k) ~~[(j)]~~ Prayer. The petition must contain a short conclusion that clearly states the nature of the relief sought.

(l) ~~[(k)]~~ Appendix.

(1) Necessary Contents. The appendix must be bookmarked to assist in locating each item and, ~~[U]~~ unless voluminous or impracticable, ~~[the appendix]~~ must contain a copy of:

(A) the opinion and judgment of the court of appeals;

(B) ~~[(A)]~~ the judgment or other appealable order of the trial court from which relief in the court of appeals was sought;

(C) ~~[(B)]~~ the jury charge and verdict, if any, or the trial court's findings of fact and conclusions of law, if any; and

~~[(C)] the opinion and judgment of the court of appeals; and~~

(D) the text of any rule, regulation, ordinance, statute, constitutional provision, or other law on which the argument is based (excluding case law), and the text of any contract or other document that is central to the argument.

(2) Optional Contents. The appendix may contain any other item pertinent to the issues or points presented for review, including copies or excerpts of relevant court opinions, statutes, constitutional provisions, documents on which the suit was based, pleadings, and similar material. Items should not be included in the appendix to attempt to avoid the page limits for the petition.

Amendments to (g)–(k) effective March 1, 2024. Amendments to (b) & (l) effective Dec. 1, 2024.

RULE 53.3. RESPONSE TO PETITION FOR REVIEW

Any other party to the appeal may file a response to the petition for review, but it is not mandatory. If no response is timely filed, or if a party files a waiver of response, the Court will consider the petition without a response. A petition will not be granted before a response has been filed or requested by the Court. The response must conform to the requirements of 53.2, except that:

- (a) the list of parties and counsel is not required unless necessary to supplement or correct the list contained in the petition;
- (b) a statement of the case and a statement of the facts need not be made unless the respondent is dissatisfied with that portion of the petition;
- (c) a statement of the issues presented need not be made unless:
  - (1) the respondent is dissatisfied with the statement made in the petition;
  - (2) the respondent is asserting independent grounds for affirmance of the court of appeals' judgment; or
  - (3) the respondent is asserting grounds that establish the respondent's right to a judgment that is less favorable to the respondent than the judgment rendered by the court of appeals but more favorable to the respondent than the judgment that might be awarded to the petitioner (e.g., a remand for a new trial rather than a rendition of judgment in favor of the petitioner);
- (d) a statement of jurisdiction should be omitted unless the petition fails to assert valid grounds for jurisdiction, in which case the reasons why the Supreme Court lacks jurisdiction must be concisely stated;
- (e) the introduction should summarize the reasons the Court should deny review;
- (f) ~~[(e)]~~ the respondent's argument must be confined to the issues or points presented in the petition or asserted by the respondent in the respondent's statement of issues; and
- (g) ~~[(f)]~~ the appendix to the response need not contain any item already contained in an appendix filed by the petitioner.

Amended effective March 1, 2024.

RULE 53.4. POINTS NOT CONSIDERED IN COURT OF APPEALS

To obtain a remand to the court of appeals for consideration of issues or points briefed in that court but not decided by that court, or to request that the Supreme Court consider such issues or points, a party may raise those issues or points in the petition, the response, the reply, any brief, or a motion for rehearing.

RULE 53.5. PETITIONER'S REPLY TO RESPONSE
The petitioner may file a reply addressing any matter in the response. However, the Court may consider and decide the case before a reply brief is filed.

RULE 53.6. [REPEALED]

RULE 53.7. TIME AND PLACE OF FILING

(a) Petition. Unless the Supreme Court orders an earlier filing deadline, the petition must be filed with the Supreme Court clerk within 45 days after the following:

- (1) the date the court of appeals rendered judgment, if no motion for rehearing or en banc reconsideration is timely filed; or
- (2) the date of the court of appeals' last ruling on all timely filed motions for rehearing or en banc reconsideration.

(b) Premature Filing. A petition filed before the last ruling on all timely filed motions for rehearing and en banc reconsideration is treated as having been filed on the date of, but after, the last ruling on any such motion. If a party files a petition for review while a motion for rehearing or en banc reconsideration is pending in the court of appeals, the party must include that information in its petition for review.

(c) Petitions Filed by Other Parties. If a party files a petition for review within the time specified in 53.7(a)—or within the time specified by the Supreme Court in an order granting an extension of time to file a petition—any other party required to file a petition may do so within 45 days after the last timely motion for rehearing or en banc reconsideration is overruled or within 30 days after any preceding petition is filed, whichever date is later.

(d) Response. Any response must be filed with the Supreme Court clerk within 30 days after the petition is filed.

(e) Reply. Any reply must be filed with the Supreme Court clerk within 15 days after the response is filed.

(f) Extension of Time. The Supreme Court may extend the time to file a petition for review if a party files a motion complying with Rule 10.5(b) no later than 15 days after the last day for filing the petition. The Supreme Court may extend the time to file a response or reply if a party files a motion complying with Rule 10.5(b) either before or after the response or reply is due.

(g) Petition Filed in Court of Appeals. If a petition is mistakenly filed in the court of appeals, the petition is deemed to have been filed the same day with the Supreme Court clerk, and the court of appeals clerk must immediately send the petition to the Supreme Court clerk.

RULE 53.8. AMENDMENT

On motion showing good cause, the Court may allow the petition, response, or reply to be amended on such reasonable terms as the Court may prescribe.

RULE 53.9. COURT MAY REQUIRE REVISION

If a petition, response, or reply does not conform with these rules, the Supreme Court may require the document to be revised or may return the document to the party who filed it and consider the case without allowing the document to be revised.

RULE 54. FILING THE RECORD

RULE 54.1. REQUEST FOR RECORD

With or without granting the petition for review, the Supreme Court may request that the record from the court of appeals be filed with the clerk of the Supreme Court.

RULE 54.2. DUTY OF COURT OF APPEALS CLERK

(a) Request for Record. The court of appeals clerk must not send the record to the Supreme Court unless it is requested. Upon receiving the Supreme Court clerk's request for the record, the court of appeals clerk must promptly send to the Supreme Court clerk all of the following:

- (1) the original record;
- (2) any motion filed in the court of appeals;
- (3) copies of all orders of the court of appeals; and
- (4) copies of all opinions and the judgment of the court of appeals.

(b) Nondocumentary Exhibits. The clerk should not send any nondocumentary exhibits unless the Supreme Court specifically requests.

RULE 54.3. EXPENSES

The petitioner must pay to the court of appeals clerk a sum sufficient to pay the cost of mailing or shipping the record to and from the Supreme Court clerk.

RULE 54.4. DUTY OF SUPREME COURT CLERK

Upon receiving the record, the Supreme Court clerk must file it and enter the filing on the docket. The clerk may refuse the record if the charges for mailing or shipping have not been paid.

RULE 55. BRIEFS ON THE MERITS

RULE 55.1. REQUEST BY COURT

A brief on the merits must not be filed unless requested by the Court. With or without granting the petition for review, the Court may request the parties to file briefs on the merits. In appropriate cases, the Court may realign parties and direct that parties file consolidated briefs.

RULE 55.2. PETITIONER'S BRIEF ON THE MERITS

The petitioner's brief on the merits must be confined to the issues or points stated in the petition for review and must, under appropriate headings and in the order here indicated, contain the following items:

- (a) Identity of Parties and Counsel. The brief must give a complete list of all parties to the trial court's final judgment. The brief must also give a complete list of the names of all counsel appearing in the trial or appellate courts; their firm or office name at the time of the appearance; and, for counsel currently appearing, their mailing address, telephone number, and email address. If new counsel appears or if any counsel currently appearing changes firm or office affiliation during the pendency of the appeal, lead counsel for the party must notify the clerk by filing a supplemental disclosure.
- (b) Table of Contents. The brief must have a table of contents with references to the pages of the brief and be bookmarked to assist in locating each item. The table of contents must indicate the subject matter of each issue or point, or group of issues or points.
- (c) Index of Authorities. The brief must have an index of authorities arranged alphabetically and indicating the pages of the brief where the authorities are cited.
- (d) Statement of the Case. The brief must contain a statement of the case that should seldom exceed one page and should not discuss the facts. The statement must contain the following:

- (1) a concise description of the nature of the case (e.g., whether it is a suit for damages, on a note, or in trespass to try title);
  - (2) the name of the judge who signed the order or judgment appealed from;
  - (3) the designation of the trial court and the county in which it is located;
  - (4) the disposition of the case by the trial court;
  - (5) the parties in the court of appeals;
  - (6) the district of the court of appeals;
  - (7) the names of the justices who participated in the decision in the court of appeals, the author of the opinion for the court, and the author of any separate opinion;
  - (8) the citation for the court of appeals' opinion, if available, or a statement that the opinion was unpublished; and
  - (9) the disposition of the case by the court of appeals.
- (e) Statement of Jurisdiction. The brief must state, without argument, the basis of the Court's jurisdiction.
- (f) Issues Presented. The brief must state concisely all issues or points presented for review. The statement of an issue or point will be treated as covering every subsidiary question that is fairly included. The phrasing of the issues or points need not be identical to the statement of issues or points in the petition for review, but the brief may not raise additional issues or points or change the substance of the issues or points presented in the petition.
- (g) Statement of Facts. The brief must affirm that the court of appeals correctly stated the nature of the case, except in any particulars pointed out. The brief must state concisely and without argument the facts and procedural background pertinent to the issues or points presented. The statement must be supported by record references.
- (h) Summary of the Argument. The brief must contain a succinct, clear, and accurate statement of the arguments made in the body of the brief. This summary must not merely repeat the issues or points presented for review.
- (i) Argument. The brief must contain a clear and concise argument for the contentions made, with appropriate citations to authorities and to the record.
- (j) Prayer. The brief must contain a short conclusion that clearly states the nature of the relief sought.

Amended effective Dec. 1, 2024.

RULE 55.3. RESPONDENT'S BRIEF

If the petitioner files a brief on the merits, any other party to the appeal may file a brief in response, which must conform to 55.2, except that:

- (a) the list of parties and counsel is not required unless necessary to supplement or correct the list contained in the petitioner's brief;
- (b) a statement of the case and a statement of the facts need not be made unless the respondent is dissatisfied with that portion of the petitioner's brief; and
- (c) a statement of the issues presented need not be made unless:
  - (1) the respondent is dissatisfied with the statement made in the petitioner's brief;
  - (2) the respondent is asserting independent grounds for affirmance of the court of appeals' judgment; or

- (3) the respondent is asserting grounds that establish the respondent's right to a judgment that is less favorable to the respondent than the judgment rendered by the court of appeals but more favorable to the respondent than the judgment that might be awarded to the petitioner (e.g., a remand for a new trial rather than a rendition of judgment in favor of the petitioner);
- (d) a statement of jurisdiction should be omitted unless the petition fails to assert valid grounds for jurisdiction; and
- (e) the respondent's argument must be confined to the issues or points presented in the petitioner's brief or asserted by the respondent in the respondent's statement of issues.

RULE 55.4. PETITIONER'S BRIEF IN REPLY

The petitioner may file a reply brief addressing any matter in the brief in response. However, the Court may consider and decide the case before a reply brief is filed.

RULE 55.5. RELIANCE ON PRIOR BRIEF

As a brief on the merits or a brief in response, a party may file the brief that the party filed in the court of appeals.

RULE 55.7. TIME AND PLACE OF FILING; EXTENSION OF TIME

Briefs must be filed with the Supreme Court clerk in accordance with the schedule stated in the clerk's notice that the Court has requested briefs on the merits. If no schedule is stated in the notice, petitioner must file a brief on the merits within 30 days after the date of the notice, respondent must file a brief in response within 20 days after receiving petitioner's brief, and petitioner must file any reply brief within 15 days after receiving respondent's brief. On motion complying with Rule 10.5(b) either before or after the brief is due, the Supreme Court may extend the time to file a brief.

RULE 55.8. AMENDMENT

On motion showing good cause, the Court may allow a party to amend a brief on such reasonable terms as the Court may prescribe.

RULE 55.9. COURT MAY REQUIRE REVISION

If a brief does not conform with these rules, the Supreme Court may require the brief to be revised or may return it to the party who filed it and consider the case without further briefing by that party.

RULE 56. ORDERS ON PETITION FOR REVIEW

RULE 56.1. ORDERS ON PETITION FOR REVIEW

(a) Considerations in Granting Review. Whether to grant review is a matter of judicial discretion. Among the factors the Supreme Court considers in deciding whether to grant a petition for review are the following:

- (1) whether the justices of the court of appeals disagree on an important point of law;
- (2) whether there is a conflict between the courts of appeals on an important point of law;
- (3) whether a case involves the construction or validity of a statute;

- (4) whether a case involves constitutional issues;
- (5) whether the court of appeals appears to have committed an error of law of such importance to the state's jurisprudence that it should be corrected; and
- (6) whether the court of appeals has decided an important question of state law that should be, but has not been, resolved by the Supreme Court.

(b) Petition Denied or Dismissed. When the petition has been on file in the Supreme Court for 30 days, the Court may deny or dismiss the petition—whether or not a response has been filed—with one of the following notations:

(1) "Denied." If the Supreme Court is not satisfied that the opinion of the court of appeals has correctly declared the law in all respects, but determines that the petition presents no error that requires reversal or that is of such importance to the jurisprudence of the state as to require correction, the Court will deny the petition with the notation "Denied."

(2) "Dismissed w.o.j." If the Supreme Court lacks jurisdiction, the Court will dismiss the petition with the notation "Dismissed for Want of Jurisdiction."

(c) Petition Refused. If the Supreme Court determines—after a response has been filed or requested—that the court of appeals' judgment is correct and that the legal principles announced in the opinion are likewise correct, the Court will refuse the petition with the notation "Refused." The court of appeals' opinion in the case has the same precedential value as an opinion of the Supreme Court.

(d) Imprudent Grant. If the Court has granted review but later decides that review should not have been granted, the Court may, without opinion, set aside the order granting review and dismiss the petition or deny or refuse review as though review had never been granted.

RULE 56.2. MOOT CASES

If a case is moot, the Supreme Court may, after notice to the parties, grant the petition and, without hearing argument, dismiss the case or the appealable portion of it without addressing the merits of the appeal.

RULE 56.3. SETTLED CASES

If a case is settled by agreement of the parties and the parties so move, the Supreme Court may grant the petition if it has not already been granted and, without hearing argument or considering the merits, render a judgment to effectuate the agreement. The Supreme Court's action may include setting aside the judgment of the court of appeals or the trial court without regard to the merits and remanding the case to the trial court for rendition of a judgment in accordance with the agreement. The Supreme Court may abate the case until the lower court's proceedings to effectuate the agreement are complete. A severable portion of the proceeding may be disposed of if it will not prejudice the remaining parties. In any event, the Supreme Court's order does not vacate the court of appeals' opinion unless the order specifically provides otherwise. An agreement or motion cannot be conditioned on vacating the court of appeals' opinion.

RULE 56.4. NOTICE TO PARTIES

When the Supreme Court grants, denies, refuses, or dismisses a petition for review, the Supreme Court clerk must send a written notice of the disposition to the court of appeals, the trial court, and all parties to the appeal.

RULE 56.5. RETURN OF DOCUMENTS TO COURT OF APPEALS

When the Supreme Court denies, refuses, or dismisses a petition for review, the clerk will retain the petition, together with the record and accompanying papers, for 30 days after the order is rendered. If no motion for rehearing has been filed by the end of that period or when any motion for rehearing of the order has been overruled, the clerk must send a certified copy of its order to the court of appeals and return the record and all papers (except for documents filed in the Supreme Court) to the court of appeals clerk.

RULE 57. DIRECT APPEALS TO THE SUPREME COURT

RULE 57.1. APPLICATION

Except when inconsistent with a statute, this rule governs direct appeals to the Supreme Court that are authorized by the Constitution and by statute.

RULE 57.2. PERFECTING DIRECT APPEAL

(a) Notice of Direct Appeal. A direct appeal to the Supreme Court authorized by law is perfected when a written notice of direct appeal is filed with the trial court clerk. The notice of direct appeal must be filed within the time provided by Rule 26.1 or as extended by Rule 26.3. The trial court clerk must immediately send a copy of the notice of direct appeal to the clerk of the Supreme Court. If a notice of direct appeal is mistakenly filed with the Supreme Court or the court of appeals, the notice is deemed filed the same day with the trial court clerk, and the Supreme Court clerk or the court of appeals' clerk must immediately send the trial court clerk a copy of the notice.

(b) Contents of Notice. The notice of direct appeal must:

- (1) identify the trial court and state the case's trial court number and style;
- (2) state the date of the judgment or order appealed from;
- (3) state that the party desires to take a direct appeal to the Supreme Court;
- (4) state the name of each party filing the notice;
- (5) specify the law or laws under which the direct appeal is authorized;
- (6) in an accelerated appeal, state that the appeal is accelerated; and
- (7) state, if applicable, that the appellant is presumed indigent and may proceed without advance payment of costs as provided in Rule 20.1.

(c) Amending the Notice. An amended notice of direct appeal correcting a defect or omission in an earlier filed notice may be filed with the Supreme Court at any time before the appellant's brief is filed. The amended notice is subject to being struck for cause on the motion of any party affected by the amended notice. After the appellant's brief is filed, the notice may be amended only on leave of the Supreme Court and on such terms as the Supreme Court may prescribe.

(d) Other Requirements. Promptly upon filing the notice of direct appeal, appellant must file in the Supreme Court a docketing statement as provided in Rule 32.1 and pay all required fees authorized to be collected by the clerk of the Supreme Court.

(e) The Appellate Record. Rules 34 and 35 governing the appellate record apply to direct appeals to the Supreme Court.

RULE 57.3. JURISDICTION OF SUPREME COURT

(a) Statement of Jurisdiction. The appellant must file with the Supreme Court a statement of jurisdiction within ten days after the notice of appeal is filed with the trial court clerk.

(b) Contents of Statement. The statement of jurisdiction must plainly state the basis for the exercise of the Supreme Court's direct appeal jurisdiction; insofar as appropriate, follow the form and contents of a petition for review prescribed by Rule 53; and conform to the length requirements prescribed for a petition for review by Rule 9.4.

(c) Response to Statement. An appellee may file a response to the appellant's statement of jurisdiction challenging the exercise of direct appeal jurisdiction or a waiver of the response within ten days after the statement is filed with the Supreme Court. If filed, the response must, insofar as appropriate, follow the form and contents of a response to a petition for review prescribed by Rule 53 and conform to the length requirements prescribed for a response to a petition to review by Rule 9.4.

RULE 57.4. PRELIMINARY RULING ON PROBABLE JURISDICTION; DISMISSAL OF APPEAL

The Supreme Court may determine whether the Court has probable jurisdiction based on the statement of jurisdiction and any response. If the Supreme Court determines that it does not have or will not exercise jurisdiction over a direct appeal, the Court will dismiss the appeal.

RULE 57.5. DIRECT APPEAL EXCLUSIVE WHILE PENDING

If a direct appeal to the Supreme Court is filed, the parties to the appeal must not, while that appeal is pending, pursue an appeal to the court of appeals. But if the direct appeal is dismissed, any party may pursue any other appeal available at the time when the direct appeal was filed. The other appeal must be perfected within 15 days after dismissal of the direct appeal or the date of the Supreme Court's ruling on a timely filed motion for rehearing.

RULE 57.6. DETERMINATION OF DIRECT APPEAL

(a) Ruling on Merits. If the Supreme Court determines that it has probable jurisdiction, the Court:

- (1) may request full briefing under Rule 55;
- (2) may set the case for submission under Rule 59; and
- (3) may render judgment or make an appropriate order under Rule 60.

(b) Rehearing. A motion for rehearing may be filed with the Supreme Court clerk within 15 days after the Court renders judgment or makes an order disposing of the direct appeal. The motion must clearly state the issues relied on for rehearing.

RULE 58. CERTIFICATION OF QUESTIONS OF LAW BY UNITED STATES COURTS

RULE 58.1. CERTIFICATION

The Supreme Court of Texas may answer questions of law certified to it by any federal appellate court if the certifying court is presented with determinative questions of Texas law having no controlling Supreme Court precedent. The Supreme Court may decline to answer the questions certified to it.

RULE 58.2. CONTENTS OF THE CERTIFICATION ORDER

An order from the certifying court must set forth:

- (a) the questions of law to be answered; and
- (b) a stipulated statement of all facts relevant to the questions certified, showing fully the nature of the controversy in which the questions arose.

RULE 58.3. TRANSMISSION OF CERTIFICATION ORDER

The clerk of the certifying court must send to the clerk of the Supreme Court of Texas the following:

- (a) the certification order under the certifying court's official seal;
- (b) a list of the names of all parties to the pending case, giving the address and telephone number, if known, of any party not represented by counsel; and
- (c) a list of the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of counsel for each party.

RULE 58.4. TRANSMISSION OF RECORD

The certifying court should not send the Supreme Court of Texas the record in the pending case with the certification order. The Supreme Court may later require the original or copies of all or part of the record before the certifying court to be filed with the Supreme Court clerk.

RULE 58.5. FEES AND COSTS

Unless the certifying court orders otherwise in its certification order, the parties must bear equally the fees under Rule 5.

RULE 58.6. NOTICE

If the Supreme Court agrees to answer the questions certified to it, the Court will notify all parties and the certifying court. The Supreme Court clerk must also send a notice to the Attorney General of Texas if:

- (a) the constitutionality of a Texas statute is the subject of a certified question that the Supreme Court has agreed to answer; and
- (b) the State of Texas or an officer, agency, or employee of the state is not a party to the proceeding in the certifying court.

RULE 58.7. BRIEFS AND ORAL ARGUMENT

(a) Briefs. The appealing party in the certifying court must file a brief with the Supreme Court clerk within 30 days after the date of the notice. Opposing parties must file an answering brief within 20 days after receiving the opening brief. Briefs must comply with Rule 55 to the extent its provisions apply. On motion complying with Rule 10.5(b), either before or after the brief is due, the Supreme Court may extend the time to file a brief.

(b) Oral Argument. Oral argument may be granted either on a party's request or on the Court's own initiative. Argument is governed by Rule 59.

RULE 58.8. INTERVENTION BY THE STATE

If the constitutionality of a Texas statute is the subject of a certified question that the Supreme Court has agreed to answer the State of Texas may intervene at any reasonable time for briefing and oral argument (if argument is allowed), on the question of constitutionality.

RULE 58.9. OPINION ON CERTIFIED QUESTIONS
If the Supreme Court has agreed to answer a certified question, it will hand down an opinion as in any other case.

RULE 58.10. ANSWERING CERTIFIED QUESTIONS
After all motions for rehearing have been overruled, the Supreme Court clerk must send to the certifying court the written opinion on the certified questions. The opinion must be under the Supreme Court's seal.

RULE 59. SUBMISSION AND ARGUMENT

RULE 59.1. SUBMISSION WITHOUT ARGUMENT
If at least six members of the Court so vote, a petition may be granted and an opinion handed down without oral argument.

RULE 59.2. SUBMISSION WITH ARGUMENT
If the Supreme Court decides that oral argument would aid the Court, the Court will set the case for argument. The clerk will notify all parties of the submission date.

RULE 59.3. PURPOSE OF ARGUMENT
Oral argument should emphasize and clarify the written arguments in the briefs. Counsel should not merely read from a prepared text. Counsel should assume that all Justices have read the briefs before oral argument and should be prepared to respond to the Justices' questions.

RULE 59.4. TIME FOR ARGUMENT
Each side is allowed only as much time as the Court orders. Counsel is not required to use all the allotted time. On motion filed before the day of argument, the Court may extend the time for argument. The Court may also align the parties for purposes of presenting argument.

RULE 59.5. NUMBER OF COUNSEL
Generally, only one counsel should argue for each side. Except on leave of court, no more than two counsel on each side may argue. Only one counsel may argue in rebuttal.

RULE 59.6. ARGUMENT BY AMICUS CURIAE
With leave of court obtained before the argument and with a party's consent, an amicus may share allotted time with that party. Otherwise, counsel for amicus curiae may not argue.

RULE 60. JUDGMENTS IN THE SUPREME COURT

RULE 60.1. ANNOUNCEMENT OF JUDGMENTS
The Court's judgments will be announced by the clerk.

RULE 60.2. TYPES OF JUDGMENT
The Supreme Court may:

- (a) affirm the lower court's judgment in whole or in part;
- (b) modify the lower court's judgment and affirm it as modified;
- (c) reverse the lower court's judgment in whole or in part and render the judgment that the lower court should have rendered;
- (d) reverse the lower court's judgment and remand the case for further proceedings;
- (e) vacate the judgments of the lower courts and dismiss the case; or
- (f) vacate the lower court's judgment and remand the case for further proceedings in light of changes in the law.

RULE 60.3. REMAND IN THE INTEREST OF JUSTICE

When reversing the court of appeal's judgment, the Supreme Court may, in the interest of justice, remand the case to the trial court even if a rendition of judgment is otherwise appropriate.

RULE 60.4. JUDGMENT FOR COSTS

The Supreme Court's judgment will award to the prevailing party the costs incurred by that party in the Supreme Court. If appropriate, the judgment may also award the prevailing party the costs—including preparation costs for the record—incurred by that party in the court of appeals and in the trial court. But the Court may tax costs otherwise as required by law or for good cause.

RULE 60.5. JUDGMENT AGAINST SURETIES

When affirming, modifying, or rendering a judgment against the party who was the appellant in the court of appeals, the Supreme Court must render judgment against the sureties on that party's supersedeas bond, if any, for the performance of the judgment. If the Supreme Court taxes costs against the party who was the appellant in the court of appeals, the Court must render judgment for those costs against the sureties on that party's supersedeas bond, if any.

RULE 60.6. OTHER ORDERS

The Supreme Court may make any other appropriate order required by the law and the nature of the case.

RULE 61. REVERSIBLE ERROR

RULE 61.1. STANDARD FOR REVERSIBLE ERROR

No judgment may be reversed on appeal on the ground that the trial court made an error of law unless the Supreme Court concludes that the error complained of:

- (a) probably caused the rendition of an improper judgment; or
- (b) probably prevented the petitioner from properly presenting the case to the appellate courts.

RULE 61.2. ERROR AFFECTING ONLY PART OF THE CASE

If the error affects a part, but not all, of the matter in controversy, and that part is separable without unfairness to the parties, the judgment must be reversed and a new trial ordered only as to the part affected by the error. The Court may not order a separate trial solely on unliquidated damages if liability is contested.

RULE 61.3. DEFECTS IN PROCEDURE

The Supreme Court will not affirm or reverse a judgment or dismiss a petition for review for formal defects or irregularities in appellate procedure without allowing a reasonable time to correct or amend the defects or irregularities.

RULE 61.4. REMEDIABLE ERROR OF THE TRIAL COURT OR COURT OF APPEALS

(a) Generally. The Supreme Court will not affirm or reverse a judgment or dismiss a petition for review if:

- (1) the trial court's or court of appeals' erroneous action or failure or refusal to act prevents the proper presentation of a case to the Supreme Court; and
- (2) the trial court or court of appeals can correct its action or failure to act.

(b) Supreme Court Direction if Error Remediable. If the circumstances described in (a) exist, the Supreme Court will direct the trial court or court of appeals to correct the error. The Supreme Court will then proceed as if the error had not occurred.

RULE 62. DAMAGES FOR FRIVOLOUS APPEALS

If the Supreme Court determines that a direct appeal or a petition for review is frivolous, it may—on motion of any party or on its own initiative, after notice and a reasonable opportunity for response—award to each prevailing party just damages. In determining whether to award damages, the Court must not consider any matter that does not appear in the record, briefs, or other papers filed in the court of appeals or the Supreme Court.

RULE 63. OPINIONS; COPY OF OPINION AND JUDGMENT TO INTERESTED PARTIES AND OTHER COURTS

The Supreme Court will hand down a written opinion in all cases in which it renders a judgment. The clerk will send a copy of the opinion and judgment to the court of appeals clerk, the trial court clerk, the regional administrative judge, and all parties to the appeal.

RULE 64. MOTION FOR REHEARING

RULE 64.1. TIME FOR FILING

A motion for rehearing may be filed with the Supreme Court clerk within 15 days from the date when the Court renders judgment or makes an order disposing of a petition for review. In exceptional cases, if justice requires, the Court may shorten the time within which the motion may be filed or even deny the right to file it altogether.

RULE 64.2. CONTENTS

The motion must specify the points relied on for the rehearing.

RULE 64.3. RESPONSE AND DECISION

No response to a motion for rehearing need be filed unless the Court so requests. A motion will not be granted unless a response has been filed or requested by the Court. But in exceptional cases, if justice so requires, the Court may deny the right to file a response and act on a motion any time after it is filed.

RULE 64.4. SECOND MOTION

The Court will not consider a second motion for rehearing unless the Court modifies its judgment, vacates its judgment and renders a new judgment, or issues a different opinion.

RULE 64.5. EXTENSIONS OF TIME

The Court may extend the time to file a motion for rehearing in the Supreme Court, if a motion complying with Rule 10.5 (b) is filed with the Court no later than 15 days after the last date for filing a motion for rehearing.

RULE 65. ENFORCEMENT OF JUDGMENT
AFTER MANDATE

RULE 65.1. STATEMENT OF COSTS

The Supreme Court clerk will prepare, and send to the clerk to whom the mandate is directed, a statement of costs showing:

- (a) the costs that were incurred in the Supreme Court, with a notation of those items that have been paid and those that are owing; and

(b) the party or parties against whom costs have been adjudged.

RULE 65.2. ENFORCEMENT OF JUDGMENT

If the Supreme Court renders judgment, the trial court need not make any further order. Upon receiving the Supreme Court's mandate, the trial court clerk must proceed to enforce the judgment of the Supreme Court's as in any other case. Appellate court costs must be included with the trial court costs in any process to enforce the judgment. If all or part of the costs are collected, the trial court clerk must immediately remit to the appellate court clerk any amount due to that clerk.

SECTION FIVE: PROCEEDINGS IN THE COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS

RULE 66. DISCRETIONARY REVIEW IN GENERAL

RULE 66.1. WITH OR WITHOUT PETITION

The Court of Criminal Appeals may review a court of appeals' decision in a criminal case on its own initiative under Rule 67 or on the petition of a party under Rule 68.

RULE 66.2. NOT A MATTER OF RIGHT

Discretionary review by the Court of Criminal Appeals is not a matter of right, but of the Court's discretion.

RULE 66.3. REASONS FOR GRANTING REVIEW

While neither controlling nor fully measuring the Court of Criminal Appeals' discretion, the following will be considered by the Court in deciding whether to grant discretionary review:

- (a) whether a court of appeals' decision conflicts with another court of appeals' decision on the same issue;
- (b) whether a court of appeals has decided an important question of state or federal law that has not been, but should be, settled by the Court of Criminal Appeals;
- (c) whether a court of appeals has decided an important question of state or federal law in a way that conflicts with the applicable decisions of the Court of Criminal Appeals or the Supreme Court of the United States;
- (d) whether a court of appeals has declared a statute, rule, regulation, or ordinance unconstitutional, or appears to have misconstrued a statute, rule, regulation, or ordinance;
- (e) whether the justices of a court of appeals have disagreed on a material question of law necessary to the court's decision; and
- (f) whether a court of appeals has so far departed from the accepted and usual course of judicial proceedings, or so far sanctioned such a departure by a lower court, as to call for an exercise of the Court of Criminal Appeals' power of supervision.

RULE 66.4. DOCUMENTS TO AID DECISION

(a) Acquiring Documents. The Court of Criminal Appeals—or any judge of the Court—may order the court of appeals clerk to promptly send the following items to the Court in order to aid it in deciding whether to grant discretionary review:

- (1) the appellate record;
- (2) a copy of the opinions of the court of appeals;
- (3) a copy of the motions filed in the court of appeals; and

(4) certified copies of any judgment or order of the court of appeals.

(b) Return of Documents. If discretionary review is not granted, the clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals will return the appellate record to the court of appeals clerk.

RULE 67. DISCRETIONARY REVIEW
WITHOUT PETITION

RULE 67.1. FOUR JUDGES' VOTE

By a vote of at least four judges, the Court of Criminal Appeals may grant review of a court of appeals' decision in a criminal case at any time before the mandate of the court of appeals issues. An order granting review will be filed with the clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals, who must send a copy to the court of appeals clerk.

RULE 67.2. ORDER STAYING MANDATE

To provide enough time for the Court of Criminal Appeals to decide whether to grant discretionary review under 67.1, the Court—or any judge of the Court—may file with the clerk of the court of appeals an order staying the court of appeals' mandate. The order must be signed by a judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals. The clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals must immediately send a copy of the order to the court of appeals clerk.

RULE 67.3. TIME TO ISSUE MANDATE EXTENDED

Unless otherwise limited in the order itself, an order staying the court of appeals' mandate under 67.2 will extend for an additional 45 days the time before issuance of the court of appeals' mandate. An order granting review prevents the issuance of the court of appeals' mandate pending the further order of the Court of Criminal Appeals. If four judges do not agree to grant review within that time the court of appeals clerk must issue the mandate.

RULE 68. DISCRETIONARY REVIEW WITH PETITION

RULE 68.1. GENERALLY

On petition by any party, the Court of Criminal Appeals may review a court of appeals' decision in a criminal case.

RULE 68.2. TIME TO FILE PETITION

- (a) First Petition. The petition must be filed within 30 days after either the day the court of appeals' judgment was rendered or the day the last timely motion for rehearing or timely motion for en banc reconsideration was overruled by the court of appeals.
- (b) Subsequent Petition. Even if the time specified in (a) has expired, a party who otherwise may file a petition may do so within 10 days after the timely filing of another party's petition.
- (c) Extension of Time. The Court of Criminal Appeals may extend the time to file a petition for discretionary review if a party files a motion complying with Rule 10.5(b) no later than 15 days after the last day for filing the petition. The Court of Criminal Appeals may extend the time to file a response or reply if a party files a motion complying with Rule 10.5(b) either before or after the response or reply is due.

RULE 68.3. WHERE TO FILE PETITION

(a) The petition and all copies of the petition must be filed with the clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals.

(b) Petition Filed in Court of Appeals. If a petition is mistakenly filed in the court of appeals, the petition is deemed to have been filed the same day with the clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals, and the court of appeals clerk must immediately send the petition to the clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals.

■ COMMENT TO 2011 CHANGE

Rule 68.3 is changed to require petitions for discretionary review to be filed in the Court of Criminal Appeals rather than in the court of appeals. With the deletion of Rule 50, there is no reason to file petitions in the court of appeals. Rule 68.3(b) is added to address and prevent the untimely filing of petitions for discretionary review that are incorrectly filed in the court of appeals rather than in the Court of Criminal Appeals.

RULE 68.4. CONTENTS OF PETITION

A petition for discretionary review must be as brief as possible. It must be addressed to the "Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas" and must state the name of the party or parties applying for review. The petition must contain the following items:

- (a) Identity of Judge, Parties, and Counsel. The petition must list the trial court judge, all parties to the judgment or order appealed from, and the names and addresses of all trial and appellate counsel.
- (b) Table of Contents. The petition must include a table of contents with references to the pages of the petition. The table of contents must indicate the subject matter of each ground or question presented for review.
- (c) Index of Authorities. The petition must include an index of authorities arranged alphabetically and indicating the pages of the petition where the authorities are cited.
- (d) Statement Regarding Oral Argument. The petition must include a short statement of why oral argument would be helpful, or a statement that oral argument is waived. If a reply or cross-petition is filed, it likewise must include a statement of why oral argument should or should not be heard.
- (e) Statement of the Case. The petition must state briefly the nature of the case. This statement should seldom exceed half a page. The details of the case should be reserved and stated with the pertinent grounds or questions.
- (f) Statement of Procedural History. The petition must state:
  - (1) the date any opinion of the court of appeals was handed down, or the date of any order of the court of appeals disposing of the case without an opinion;
  - (2) the date any motion for rehearing was filed (or a statement that none was filed); and
  - (3) the date the motion for rehearing was overruled or otherwise disposed of.
- (g) Grounds for Review. The petition must state briefly, without argument, the grounds on which the petition is based. The grounds must be separately numbered. If the petitioner has access to the record, the petitioner must (after each ground) refer to the page of the record where the matter complained of is found. Instead of listing grounds for review, the petition may contain the questions presented for review, expressed in the terms and circumstances of the case but without unnecessary detail. The statement of questions should be short and concise, not argumentative or repetitious.
- (h) Argument. The petition must contain a direct and concise argument, with supporting authorities, amplifying the reasons for granting review. See Rule 66.3. The court of appeals' opinions will be considered with the petition, and statements in those opinions need not be repeated if counsel accepts them as correct.

(i) Prayer for Relief. The petition must state clearly the nature of the relief sought.

(j) Appendix. The petition must contain a copy of any opinion of the court of appeals.

RULE 68.5. [REPEALED]

RULE 68.6. NONCONFORMING PETITION

The Court may strike, order redrawn, or summarily refuse a petition for discretionary review that is unnecessarily lengthy or that does not conform to these rules.

RULE 68.7. COURT OF APPEALS
CLERK'S DUTIES

Within 15 days of receiving notice of the filing of a petition for discretionary review from the clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals, the clerk of the court of appeals must send to the clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals the record, any motions filed in the case, and copies of any judgments, opinions, and orders of the court of appeals. The clerk need not forward any nondocumentary exhibits unless ordered to do so by the Court of Criminal Appeals.

RULE 68.8. COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS
CLERK'S DUTIES

Upon receipt of the record from the court of appeals, the clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals will file the record and enter the filing on the docket.

RULE 68.9. REPLY

The opposing party has 15 days after the timely filing of the petition in the Court of Criminal Appeals to file a reply to the petition with the clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals.

RULE 68.10. AMENDMENT

Upon motion the petition or a reply may be amended or supplemented at any time justice requires.

RULE 69. ACTION OF COURT ON PETITION FOR DISCRETIONARY REVIEW AND AFTER GRANTING REVIEW

RULE 69.1. GRANTING OR REFUSAL

If four judges do not vote to grant a petition for discretionary review, the Court will enter a docket notation that the petition is refused. If four judges vote to grant a petition, the Court will enter a docket notation that discretionary review is granted.

RULE 69.2. SETTING CASE FOR SUBMISSION

If discretionary review is granted, either on the petition of a party or by the Court on its own initiative, the case will be set for submission.

RULE 69.3. IMPROVIDENT GRANT OF REVIEW

If, after granting discretionary review, five judges are of the opinion that discretionary review should not have been granted, the case will be dismissed.

RULE 69.4. CLERK'S DUTIES

(a) On Refusal or Dismissal. When the Court refuses or dismisses a petition, the clerk will send to the parties and the State

Prosecuting Attorney a notice informing them that the petition was refused or dismissed. The clerk will retain the petition and all other items filed in the case for at least 15 days from the date of the refusal or dismissal. At the end of that time, if no motion for rehearing has been timely filed, or upon the overruling or dismissal of such a motion, the clerk will send to the court of appeals clerk a certified copy of the order refusing or dismissing the petition (as well as any order overruling a motion for rehearing). The clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals will return the appellate record to the court of appeals clerk but will retain the petition, and other documents filed in the Court of Criminal Appeals.

(b) On Granting Review. If the Court grants discretionary review, the clerk will send to the parties and the State Prosecuting Attorney a notice informing them that discretionary review was granted.

RULE 70. BRIEF ON THE MERITS

RULE 70.1. INITIAL BRIEF

If review is granted, the petitioner—or, if there was no petition, the party who lost in the court of appeals—must file a brief within 30 days after review is granted.

RULE 70.2. RESPONDENT'S BRIEF

The opposing party must file a brief within 30 days after the petitioner's brief is filed.

RULE 70.3. BRIEF CONTENTS AND FORM

Briefs must comply with the requirements of Rules 9 and 38, except that they need not contain the appendix (Rule 38.1(k)).

RULE 70.4. OTHER BRIEFS

The Court of Criminal Appeals may direct that a party file a brief, or an additional brief, in a particular case. Additionally, upon motion by a party the Court may permit the filing of additional briefs.

RULE 71. DIRECT APPEALS

RULE 71.1. DIRECT APPEAL

Cases in which the death penalty has been assessed under Code of Criminal Procedure article 37.071, and cases in which bail has been denied in non-capital cases under Article I, Section 11a of the Constitution, are appealed directly to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

RULE 71.2. RECORD

The appellate record should be prepared and filed in accordance with Rules 31, 32, 34, 35 and 37, except that the record must be filed in the Court of Criminal Appeals. After disposition of the appeal, the Court may discard copies of juror information cards or other portions of the clerk's record that are not relevant to an issue on appeal.

RULE 71.3. BRIEFS

Briefs in a direct appeal should be prepared and filed in accordance with Rules 9 and 38, except that the brief need not contain an appendix (Rule 38.1(k)). All briefs must be filed in the Court of Criminal Appeals. The brief must include a short statement of why oral argument would be helpful, or a statement that oral argument is waived.

RULE 71.4. ADDITIONAL BRIEFS

Upon motion by a party the Court may permit the filing of additional briefs other than those provided for in Rule 38.

RULE 72. EXTRAORDINARY MATTERS

RULE 72.1. LEAVE TO FILE

A motion for leave to file must accompany an original petition for writ of habeas corpus, mandamus, procedendo, prohibition, certiorari, or other extraordinary writ, or any other motion not otherwise provided for in these rules.

RULE 72.2. DISPOSITION

If five judges tentatively believe that the case should be filed and set for submission, the motion for leave will be granted and the case will then be handled and disposed of in accordance with Rule 52.8. If the motion for leave is denied, no motions for rehearing or reconsideration will be entertained. But the Court may, on its own initiative, reconsider a denial of a motion for leave.

RULE 73. POSTCONVICTION APPLICATIONS FOR WRITS OF HABEAS CORPUS

RULE 73.1. FORM FOR APPLICATION FILED UNDER ARTICLE 11.07 OF THE CODE OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

(a) Prescribed Form. An application filed under Article 11.07 must be on the form prescribed by the Court of Criminal Appeals.

(b) Availability of Form. The district clerk of the county of conviction shall make the forms available to applicants on request, without charge.

(c) Contents. The applicant or petitioner must provide all information required by the form. The form must include all grounds for relief and set forth in summary fashion the facts supporting each ground. Any ground not raised on the form will not be considered. Legal citations and arguments may be made in a separate memorandum. The form must be computer-generated, typewritten or legibly handwritten.

(d) Length. Each ground for relief and supporting facts raised on the form shall not exceed the two pages provided for each ground in the form. The applicant or petitioner may file a separate memorandum. This memorandum shall comply with these rules and shall not exceed 15,000 words if computer-generated or 50 pages if not. If the total number of pages, including those in the original and any additional memoranda, exceed the word or page limits, an application may be dismissed unless the convicting court for good cause shown grants leave to exceed the prescribed limits. The prescribed limits do not include appendices, exhibits, cover page, table of contents, table of authorities, and certificate of compliance.

(e) Typeface. A computer-generated memorandum must be printed in a conventional typeface no smaller than 14-point except for footnotes, which must be no smaller than 12-point. A typewritten document must be printed in standard 10-character-per-inch (cpi) monospaced typeface.

(f) Certificate of Compliance. A computer-generated memorandum, including any additional memoranda, must include a certificate by the applicant or petitioner stating the number of words in the document. The person certifying may rely on the word count of the computer program used to prepare the document.

- (g) Verification. The application must be verified by either:
- (1) oath made before a notary public or other officer authorized to administer oaths, or
  - (2) an unsworn declaration in substantially the form required by Civil Practice and Remedies Code chapter 132 as set out in the verification section of the application form.

COMMENT TO 1997 CHANGE

This is former Rule 4 of the Appendix for Criminal Cases. The rule is amended without substantive change.

COMMENT TO 2000 CHANGE

Rules 73.1 and 73.2 are added, and a form is added in an appendix.

COMMENT TO 2018 CHANGE

Rules 73.1 and 73.4 are amended in conjunction with amendments to the form for applications filed under Article 11.07 of the Code of Criminal Procedure (Appendix E to these rules) and the Clerk's Summary Sheet (Appendix F to these rules). The amendments clarify terminology and procedures for filing Article 11.07 writ applications and update the Article 11.07 writ application form to incorporate current technologies and filing procedures. The application form will be made available on the internet through the Court of Criminal Appeals' website. In addition, the amendments bring the application and filing procedures into conformity with Civil Practice and Remedies Code chapter 132, which permits both inmates and non-inmates to file unsworn declarations in lieu of notarized oaths. Further, the rules amendments and changes to the clerk's summary sheet clarify the information that district clerks must provide to the Court of Criminal Appeals and add a new requirement that clerks certify that they have complied with all the requirements of Rule 73.4, including the requirement to serve on all parties in the case all objections, motions, affidavits, exhibits, proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, findings of fact and conclusions of law, and any other orders entered or pleadings filed in the habeas case. The phrase "all parties in the case" as used in Rule 73.4 includes: the attorney representing the State; the applicant (including pro se and inmate applicants); and, if the applicant is represented by counsel, applicant's attorney.

RULE 73.2. NONCOMPLIANT APPLICATIONS

The Court of Criminal Appeals may dismiss an application that does not comply with these rules.

RULE 73.3. STATE'S RESPONSE

Any response by the State must comply with length, typeface, and certificate of compliance requirements set out in rule 73.1(d), (e) and (f).

RULE 73.4. FILING AND TRANSMISSION OF HABEAS RECORD

- (a) The district clerk of the county of conviction shall accept and file all Code of Criminal Procedure article 11.07 applications.
- (b) In addition to the duties set out in Article 11.07, the clerk shall do the following:

- (1) If the convicting court enters an order designating issues, the clerk shall immediately transmit to the Court of Criminal Appeals a copy of that order and proof of the date the district attorney received the habeas application.

- (2) When any pleadings, objections, motions, affidavits, exhibits, proposed or entered findings of fact and conclusions of law, or other orders are filed or made a part of the record, the district clerk shall immediately send a copy to all parties in the case. A party has ten days from the date he receives the trial court's findings of facts and conclusions of law to file objections, but the trial court may, nevertheless, order the district clerk to transmit the record to the Court of Criminal Appeals before the expiration of the ten days. Upon transmission of the record, the district clerk shall immediately notify all parties in the case.

- (3) When a district clerk transmits the record in a postconviction application for a writ of habeas corpus under Code of Criminal Procedure articles 11.07 or 11.071, the district clerk must prepare and transmit a summary sheet that includes the following information:

- (A) the convicting court's name and county, and the name of the judge who tried the case;
- (B) the applicant's name, the offense, the plea, the cause number, the sentence, and the date of sentence, as shown in the judgment of conviction;
- (C) the cause number of any appeal from the conviction and the citation to any published report;
- (D) whether a hearing was held on the application, whether findings of fact were made, any recommendation of the convicting court, and the name of the judge who presided over the application;
- (E) the name of counsel if applicant is represented; and
- (F) the following certification:

I certify that all applicable requirements of Texas Rule of Appellate Procedure 73.4 have been complied with in this habeas proceeding, including the requirement to serve on all the parties in the case any objections, motions, affidavits, exhibits, proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, findings of fact and conclusions of law, and any other orders entered or pleadings filed in the habeas case.

_____
Signature of District Clerk or Clerk's Representative

_____
Date Signed

The Court of Criminal Appeals may by order adopt a form of summary sheet that the district clerks must use.

- (4) The district clerk shall also include in the record transmitted to the Court of Criminal Appeals, among any other pertinent papers or supplements, the indictment or information, any plea papers, the court's docket sheet, the court's charge and the jury's verdict, any proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, the court's findings of fact and conclusions of law, any objections to the court's findings of fact and conclusions of law filed by either party, and the transcript of any hearings held.

- (5) On the 181st day from the date of receipt of the application by the State of a postconviction application for writ of habeas corpus under Article 11.07, the district clerk shall forward the writ record to this Court unless the district court has received an extension of time from the Court of Criminal Appeals pursuant to Rule 73.5.

RULE 73.5 TIME FRAME FOR RESOLUTION OF CLAIMS RAISED IN APPLICATION

Within 180 days from the date of receipt of the application by the State, the convicting court shall resolve any issues that the court has timely designated for resolution. Any motion for extension of time must be filed in the Court of Criminal Appeals before the expiration of the 180-day period.

RULE 73.6. ACTION ON APPLICATION

The Court may deny relief based upon its own review of the application or may issue such other instructions or orders as may be appropriate.

RULE 73.7. NEW EVIDENCE AFTER APPLICATION FORWARDED TO COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS

If an Article 11.07 or 11.071 application has been forwarded to this Court, and a party wishes this Court to consider evidence not filed in the trial court, then the party must comply with the following procedures or the evidence will not be considered.

(a) If the Court of Criminal Appeals has received an Article 11.07 or 11.071 application from the district clerk of the county of conviction and has filed and set the application for submission, a party has two options:

(1) The party may file the evidence directly in the Court of Criminal Appeals with a motion for the Court of Criminal Appeals to consider the evidence. In this motion, the party should describe the evidence, explain its evidentiary value, and state why compelling and extraordinary circumstances exist for the Court of Criminal Appeals to consider the evidence directly. The moving party must immediately serve copies of the motion and the evidence the party seeks to file on the other party or parties in the case. If the Court of Criminal Appeals grants this motion, the Court will consider the evidence in its review of the application. The Court of Criminal Appeals will grant such a motion only if the Court concludes the circumstances are truly exceptional.

(2) The party may file in the Court of Criminal Appeals a motion to supplement the record in the trial court. In this motion, the party should describe the evidence the party intends to file, explain its evidentiary value, and state why the evidence could not have been filed in the trial court before the Court of Criminal Appeals filed and set the application for submission. The moving party must immediately serve copies of the motion and the evidence the party seeks to file on the other party or parties in the case. If the Court of Criminal Appeals grants the motion, the party may file the evidence with the district clerk of the county of conviction, and should attach a copy of the motion to supplement and the Court of Criminal Appeals' order granting said motion. The district clerk shall immediately send a copy of the filed materials to the trial judge assigned to the habeas case and to the other party or parties in the case, and otherwise comply with the procedures set out in Rule 73.4(b) of these rules.

(b) If the Court of Criminal Appeals has received an Article 11.07 or 11.071 application from the district clerk of the county of conviction, but the Court has not yet filed and set the application for submission, the party must file in the Court of Criminal Appeals a motion to stay the proceedings pending the filing of the evidence in the trial court. In this motion, the party should describe the evidence the party intends to file and explain its evidentiary value. The moving party must immediately serve copies of the motion and the evidence the party seeks to file on the other party or parties in the case. If the Court of Criminal Appeals grants the motion, the Court will specify a designated time frame for the party to file the evidence with the district clerk of the county of conviction. The party should attach a copy of the motion to stay proceedings and the Court of Criminal Appeals' order granting said motion to the evidentiary filing. The district clerk of the county of conviction shall immediately send a copy of the filed materials to the trial judge assigned to the habeas case and to the other party or parties in the case, and otherwise comply with the procedures set out in Rule 73.4(b) of these rules.

COMMENT TO 2017 CHANGE

Rule 73.7 is added. This rule only applies after an Article 11.07 or 11.071 application has been forwarded to the Court of Criminal Appeals. If an Article 11.07 or 11.071 application is pending in the trial court and has not been forwarded to the Court of Criminal Appeals, a party may file additional evidentiary materials with the district clerk of the county of conviction without filing any special motion in the Court of Criminal Appeals or the trial court. But the district clerk of the county of conviction still must immediately send a copy of the filed materials to the trial judge assigned to the habeas case and to the other party or parties in the case, and otherwise comply with the procedures set out in Rule 73.4(b) of these rules.

RULE 73.8. RULES OF EVIDENCE

The Texas Rules of Evidence apply to a hearing held on a postconviction application for a writ of habeas corpus filed under Code of Criminal Procedure Article 11.07 or 11.071.

COMMENT TO 2019 CHANGE

Rule 73.8 is added to clarify that the Rules of Evidence apply in hearings held in Article 11.07 and 11.071 habeas corpus cases. This rule does not limit the ability of an applicant to attach supporting documents to an application for a writ of habeas corpus.

RULE 74. REVIEW OF CERTIFIED STATE CRIMINAL-LAW QUESTIONS

RULE 74.1. CERTIFICATION

The Court of Criminal Appeals may answer questions of Texas criminal law certified to it by any federal appellate court if the certifying court is presented with determinative questions of Texas criminal law having no controlling Court of Criminal Appeals precedent. The Court may decline to answer the questions certified to it.

RULE 74.2. CONTENTS OF THE CERTIFICATION ORDER

An order from the certifying court must set forth:

- (a) the questions of law to be answered; and
- (b) a stipulated statement of all facts relevant to the questions certified, showing fully the nature of the controversy in which the questions arose.

RULE 74.3. TRANSMISSION OF CERTIFICATION ORDER

The clerk of the certifying court must send to the clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals the following:

- (a) the certification order under the certifying court's official seal;
- (b) a list of the names of each party to the pending case, giving the address and telephone number, if known, of any party not represented by counsel; and
- (c) a list of the names and addresses of counsel for each party.

RULE 74.4. TRANSMISSION OF RECORD

The certifying court should not send to the Court of Criminal Appeals the record in the pending case with the certification order. The Court of Criminal Appeals may later require the original or copies of all or part of the record before the certifying court to be filed with the Court of Criminal Appeals clerk.

RULE 74.5. NOTICE

If the Court of Criminal Appeals agrees to answer the questions certified to it, the Court will notify all parties and the certifying court. The Court of Criminal Appeals clerk must also send a notice to the Attorney General of Texas if:

- (a) the constitutionality of a Texas statute is the subject of a certified question that the Court of Criminal Appeals has agreed to answer; and
- (b) the State of Texas or an officer, agency, or employee of the State is not a party to the proceeding in the certifying court.

RULE 74.6. BRIEFS AND ORAL ARGUMENT

(a) Briefs. The appealing party in the certifying court must file a brief with the clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals within 30 days after the date of the notice. Opposing parties must file an answering brief within 15 days of receiving the opening brief. Briefs must comply with Rule 38 to the extent that its provisions apply.

(b) Oral Argument. Oral argument may be granted either on a party's request or on the Court's own initiative. Argument is governed by Rule 39.

RULE 74.7. INTERVENTION BY THE STATE

If the constitutionality of a Texas statute is the subject of a certified question that the Court of Criminal Appeals has agreed to answer, the State of Texas may intervene at any reasonable time for briefing and oral argument (if argument is allowed) on the question of constitutionality.

RULE 74.8. OPINION ON CERTIFIED QUESTION

If the Court of Criminal Appeals has agreed to answer a certified question, it will hand down an opinion as in any other case.

RULE 74.9. MOTION FOR REHEARING

Any party may file a motion for rehearing within 15 days after the opinion is handed down. The motion must clearly state the points relied on for the rehearing. No reply to a motion for rehearing need be filed unless the Court so requests. The Court will not grant a motion for rehearing unless a response has been filed or requested.

RULE 74.10. ANSWERING CERTIFIED QUESTIONS

After all motions for rehearing have been overruled, the clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals must send to the certifying court the written opinion on the certified questions. The opinion must be under the Court of Criminal Appeals' seal.

RULE 75. NOTIFICATION; ORAL ARGUMENT

RULE 75.1. NOTIFICATION OF ARGUMENT OR SUBMISSION

Oral argument will be permitted only in cases designated by the Court of Criminal Appeals. If the Court permits argument in a case, the clerk will notify the parties of the date set for argument. If a case will be submitted without argument, the clerk will notify the parties of the date of submission. The clerk must use all reasonable diligence to notify counsel of settings, but counsel's failure to receive notice will not necessarily prevent argument or submission of the case on the day it is set.

RULE 75.2. REQUEST FOR ARGUMENT

If a case is not designated for oral argument but counsel desires oral argument, counsel may—within 30 days of the date of the clerk's notice—petition the Court to allow oral argument. This petition must contain specific reasons why oral argument is desired.

RULE 75.3. ORAL ARGUMENT

Unless extended in a special case, the total maximum time for oral argument is 20 minutes per side. Counsel for the appellant or petitioner is entitled to open and conclude the argument. Counsel should not read at length from the briefs, records, or authorities. Counsel may orally correct a brief, but multiple additional citations should not be given orally; instead, these citations should be filed in writing with the clerk.

RULE 76. SUBMISSIONS EN BANC

The Court will sit en banc to consider the following types of cases:

- (a) direct appeals;
- (b) cases of discretionary review;
- (c) cases in which leave to file was granted under Rule 72;
- (d) cases that were docketed under Code of Criminal Procedure articles 11.07 or 11.071;
- (e) certified questions; and
- (f) rehearings under Rule 79.

RULE 77. OPINIONS

RULE 77.1. GENERALLY

In each case that is argued or submitted without argument to the Court of Criminal Appeals, the Court will hand down a written opinion setting forth the reasons for its decision and any germane precedent. Any judge may file an opinion dissenting from or concurring in the Court's judgment.

RULE 77.2. SIGNING; PUBLICATION

A majority of the judges will determine whether an opinion will be signed by a judge or issued per curiam, and whether the opinion (or a portion of the opinion) will be published.

RULE 77.3. UNPUBLISHED OPINIONS

Unpublished opinions have no precedential value and must not be cited as authority by counsel or by a court.

RULE 77.4. COPIES

On the date when an opinion is handed down or an order rendered, the clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals must mail copies of the opinion or order to:

- (a) the parties;
- (b) the State Prosecuting Attorney;
- (c) the trial court clerk; and
- (d) if the case is of discretionary review, the court of appeals clerk.

RULE 78. JUDGMENT IN THE COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS

RULE 78.1. TYPES OF JUDGMENT

The Court of Criminal Appeals may:

- (a) affirm the lower court's judgment in whole or in part;
- (b) modify the lower court's judgment and affirm it as modified;
- (c) reverse the court's judgment in whole or in part and render the judgment that the lower court should have rendered;
- (d) reverse the lower court's judgment and remand the case for further proceedings;
- (e) vacate the judgments of the lower courts and dismiss the case;
- (f) vacate the lower court's judgment and remand the case for further proceedings in light of changes in the law; or
- (g) dismiss the appeal.

RULE 78.2. REMAND IN THE INTERESTS OF JUSTICE

When reversing the court of appeals' judgment, the Court of Criminal Appeals may, in the interests of justice, remand the case to the trial court even if a rendition of judgment is otherwise appropriate.

RULE 78.3. OTHER ORDERS

The Court of Criminal Appeals may make any other appropriate order required by the law and the nature of the case.

RULE 79. REHEARINGS

RULE 79.1. MOTION FOR REHEARING

A motion for rehearing may be filed with the Court of Criminal Appeals clerk within 15 days from the date of the judgment or order. In exceptional cases, if justice requires, the Court may shorten the time within which the motion may be filed or even deny the right to file it altogether.

RULE 79.2. CONTENTS

- (a) The motion must briefly and distinctly state the grounds and arguments relied on for rehearing.
- (b) A motion for rehearing an order that grants discretionary review may not be filed.
- (c) A motion for rehearing an order that refuses a petition for discretionary review may be grounded only on substantial intervening circumstances or on other significant circumstances which are specified in the motion. Counsel must certify that the motion is so grounded and that the motion is made in good faith and not for delay.

(d) A motion for rehearing an order that denies habeas corpus relief or dismisses a habeas corpus application under Code of Criminal Procedure, articles 11.07 or 11.071, may not be filed. The Court may on its own initiative reconsider the case.

RULE 79.3. AMENDMENTS

A motion for rehearing may be amended anytime before the period allowed for filing the motion expires, and with leave of the court, anytime before the Court decides the motion.

RULE 79.4. DECISION

If the Court grants rehearing, the case will be set for submission. Oral argument may, but normally will not, be permitted.

RULE 79.5. FURTHER MOTION FOR REHEARING
The Court will not consider a second motion for rehearing after rehearing is denied. If rehearing is granted and the Court delivers an opinion on rehearing, a party may file a further motion for rehearing.

RULE 79.6. EXTENSION OF TIME

The Court may extend the time for filing a motion or a further motion for rehearing if a party files a motion complying with Rule 10.5(b) within the time for filing a motion or further motion for rehearing.

RULE 79.7. SERVICE

The requirements of Rule 80.1 apply.

COMMENT TO 2019 CHANGE

This is former Rule 230, and the portion of former Rule 213 that prohibited motions for rehearing. The Court may now permit oral argument after granting rehearing, although it is disfavored. A further motion for rehearing may now be filed by any party, rather than only the losing party. Other nonsubstantive changes are made.

RULE 80. STATE PROSECUTING ATTORNEY

RULE 80.1. SERVICE ON STATE PROSECUTING ATTORNEY

The State Prosecuting Attorney must be served on every petition for discretionary review or brief filed by any party or amicus curiae in the Court of Criminal Appeals, including replies, responses, amendments, and supplements.

COMMENT TO 2019 CHANGE

This rule incorporates and expands former Rule 68.11 to require service on the State Prosecuting Attorney of all petitions for discretionary review and all substantive briefing in the Court of Criminal Appeals. In using the phrase "brief filed by any party or amicus curiae in the Court of Criminal Appeals," the rule does not intend to require service on the State Prosecuting Attorney of petitions for a writ of mandamus (or responses) or applications for a writ of habeas corpus (or answers) and their accompanying memoranda. However, if the Court of Criminal Appeals has filed and set a mandamus petition or habeas corpus application, the rule does require service on the State Prosecuting Attorney of the briefs filed in the case.
